School Song

DEAR NOTRE DAME, we sing thy glory;
Great are the gifts thou hast bestowed.
Praise to thy name! Long may thy fame
Reflect the standards learned from thee.
Thy motto "Ego sum lux Mundi"
Leads to Eternal Light divine.
Where'er thou stand, courage will yield,
Wisdom, truth, the stronghold of truth,
Ah, Alma Mater, defender of youth.

DEAR NOTRE DAME, we'll ever salute thee,
Cherishing friends and memories shared.
Noble thy goal, true to each soul
Entrusted to thy fostering hand.
Guardian of faith and hope and love,
Broken young minds in future years;
Strengthen our aim, God's love proclaim,
Keep Mary's image, so precious, in view
Ah, Alma Mater, our Mother most true.

Congratulations Sisters!

Custodian

Christopher Deuel

Christopher Deuel, custodian of the Notre Dame High School, has, by his remarkable dedication to the best interests of the new school, made an important contribution to its development from the initial stages. He was with Notre Dame when it was only scaffolding and has zealously guarded its progress. He now takes a special pride in the maintenance of the beauty of the plant.

Those who watched the construction of the building have come to know Mr. Deuel and respect his knowledge and proprietorship of the building that once was and still is, in a certain sense, uniquely his.

His hours of unselfish service, above and beyond the "call of duty" deserve special recording in the annals of Notre Dame, according to Sister Mary Raphael, principal of Notre Dame High School.
