School Fund Campaign Opened By Bishop Casey

Geneva — Formally opening the St. Stephen School Building Fund campaign, here, His Excellency, Auxiliary Bishop Lawrence B. Casey was guest speaker and imparted individual blessing to each of the campaign workers on Sunday, Oct. 16.

The campaign was officially opened in St. Stephen Church. Approximately 200 workers met in DeSales High School gymnasium at 7:30 p.m. and marched into the church in a body at 8 p.m. The workers were led by a color guard of Fourth Degree Knights of Columbus from Geneva Assembly.

Bishop Casey pontificated at Solemn Benediction.

SPEAKING TO the large group of workers and parishioners, Bishop Casey emphasized the need for the new school addition and urged full support of the parishioners.

An advance Memorial Gifts Committee has already raised more than one third of the $150,000 minimum goal. More than $52,000 was reported in subscriptions after approximately two weeks' solicitation of a portion of the parish.

In the General Phase of the drive every family in St. Stephen Parish will be asked to participate. Volunteer workers will conduct house-to-house solicitation of all parishioners for the next three weeks.
