Family Swim Series Opens

The C.Y.O. has instituted a program of family participation in the Sunday afternoon family swim series.

This program is intended to bring the family group together for a Sunday afternoon of entertainment and swimming. It is necessary that any youngsters coming to swim be accompanied by at least one parent.

Those family groups who have used this as a source of recreation for their family have found it very entertaining and also helpful in teaching their youngsters how to swim and dive, a spokesman said.

This is open to any family and not just C.Y.O. members.

Colombian Envoy

Vatican City — (NC) — His Holiness Pope Pius XII has received the new Colombian Ambassador to the Holy See.

NEWLY DECORATED, the interior of the 50-year old edifice of St. Mary Parish, Canandaigua will form a fitting setting for the Golden Jubilee of Dedication Mass on Sunday when His Excellency Bishop Kearney will preside. Refurbishing of the church was under direction of the Rev. Alphonsus P. Crimmens pastor. (Reldy Studio Photo).

BRITAIN SAYS

St. John Fisher Links Britain, United States

Bath, England — (NC) — One of the most enduring links between the United States and Great Britain is the veneration with which two English martyr-saints are held in both countries.

This was stated here by Robert Wilberforce, former director of British Information Services in New York, in a talk to the Guild of Catholic Civil Servants. He identified the martyrs as St. Thomas More, who is the patron saint of the guild, and St. John Fisher, both of whom were beheaded in 1535 during the reign of King Henry VIII.

Wilberforce said that St. Thomas More, who had been Lord Chancellor of England, had been chosen as the patron saint also of the Catholic Lawyers' Guild in the United States, and thus had become a symbol of the reverence with which the common law and the human personality are regarded in both America and England.

Meanwhile, Wilberforce added, St. John Fisher, Bishop of Rochester, has been specially chosen as the patron saint of one of the great dioceses of America — Rochester, N. Y. — whose Ordinary, Bishop James E. Kearney, had been instrumental, through the generosity of his people, in building the first Catholic church in Rochester, England, since the Reformation.

"The memory of St. Thomas More and St. John Fisher," Wilberforce said, "is intensely alive today and their example has a significance for this generation greater than for any of the generation since their time. They were conspicuous in witnessing by their deaths to the primacy of the spiritual over the material, the religious over the secular powers. This is the primary issue today between communism and the West."
