Miss Scheible Wins Rome Scholarship For Summer Study

Miss Ann Scheible, Nazareth College graduate, class of 1954, has been awarded a scholarship by the Classical Association of the Atlantic States for the summer session at the American Academy in Rome School of Classical Studies

Director of the School is Professor Paul L. MacKendrick of the University of Wisconsin.

Miss Scheible was a Latin major at Nazareth and is now teaching Latin and English at the Hammondsport Central School. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Scheible, 80 Wimbledon Road, Rochester.

SUMMER COURSE will include a study of Roman civilization as portrayed in the literature of the late Republic and early Empire, and in the surviving material remains in and around Rome.

Rich archaeological material in Rome and Ostia, objects on exhibition in museums and the fine collection of books belonging to the American Academy are valuable in giving a thorough picture of the ancient civilization.

After the summer course of six weeks Miss Scheible plans to spend some time in European travel.

Career Guidance Program Held At Women's College

A Career Guidance Program at Nazareth College on Monday, March 5 attracted a large group of underclassmen. All Sophomore and Freshman women were invited for an informal supper at five o'clock in the college cafeteria, at which Miss Peggy Sarber, of the Executive Placement Bureau, outlined the various types of positions open to college women, especially in this community.

Miss Sarber has had wide experience in the placement of college graduates in business and industry. She also handles part-time and summer placement for the Executive Placement Bureau. Miss Sarber was introduced by Miss Maureen Donegan, Lima, a Sophomore Business student.

Following the supper meeting there were several sessions: At 6:15 a group of students interested in Education heard Miss Catherine Sullivan, Coordinator of Instruction, Benjamin Franklin High School, on the subject of secondary education and Miss Margaret Kenny, Principal, School No. 4 on elementary teaching.

THE SPEAKERS in this session were introduced by Miss Kay Morphy, Clifton Springs, president of the Sophomore Class. A discussion period followed each talk.

During the second discussion period, students interested in Science met with Mr. Sam S. C. Rich, Personnel Director, Eastman Kodak Research Laboratories, who spoke about the opportunities for women in science.

Junior and Senior Science majors joined this group, which was under the chairmanship of Miss Diane Smith, Rochester, president of the Nieuwland Chemistry Club.

At the same period a large group of underclassmen heard Reverend Donald Mulcahy, Director of the Catholic Family Center speak on Social Work. Father Mulcahy is a graduate of Catholic University School of Social Work.

FOR SOME years he was in charge of the C.Y.O. and Youth Work in the Diocese, prior to becoming the head of the Catholic Family Center. Miss Karen Bove, Sophomore from Seneca Falls introduced Father Mulcahy.

Freshman and Senior Nurses participated in a session on Nursing, in which the following panel of speakers discussed the subject, "The College Graduate in Nursing": Miss Patricia Gibson, Assistant Executive Secretary Counseling and Placement, New York State Nurses Association, Miss Beatrice Stanley, Director of Nursing, Strong Memorial Hospital, Mrs. Ruby Hendryx, Assistant Professor of Public Health Nursing, Nazareth College. The film, "When You Choose Nursing" was shown.

Exhibits of Vocational Literature of interest to college women are set up in the College Cafeteria and in the Speech Theatre.

THIS PROGRAM is part of the regular vocational guidance program at Nazareth, which includes a comprehensive testing schedule, and individual conferences with the Vocational Guidance Director and heads of the various departments.

Nazareth Glee Club In Buffalo Concert

Nazareth College Students participated in a fund-raising project for students in foreign countries by joining with other Catholic colleges in the Lake Erie region of the National Federation of Catholic College Students in an Intercollegiate Glee Club Concert held in Buffalo recently at Kleinhans Music Hall. Nazareth students contributed $127.80 toward this affair.

The Nazareth Glee Club under the direction of Dr. David Fetler took part in the program, which included glee clubs from Villa Marie College, Erie, Pa., D'Youville College, Buffalo; Rosary Hill College, Buffalo; St. Bonaventure University, Olean; Canisius College, Buffalo and Niagara University.

Total proceeds of the concert amounted to about $1,100. This program is typical of the joint projects sponsored by the N.F.C.C.S. in the various regions.

"Colleen Queen" Mary Corby

Nazareth Nursing Student Named 'Queen' By Knights

Miss Mary Corby, a freshman nursing student at Nazareth College, will be named "Colleen Queen" at the annual St. Patrick's Day dinner of the Knights of Equity at the Powers Hotel on March 17.

Miss Corby, a native of Leix, Ireland, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Corby of Leix. In Rochester, she lives with an aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Murphy, Hazelwood Terr.

RECENTLY CHOSEN "Colleen of the Year" by Canandaigua Industries, Inc., Miss Corby's picture will soon be seen throughout Western New York State in connection with a new product of the firm.

In large, full-colored die cut posters, the red-haired "typically Irish beauty" will be pictured in the native costume of her homeland, according to Stuart Rice, Hutchins Advertising representative for the Canagaigua firm.

THE OUTFIT includes a bright yellow skirt edged with a green embroidered music score of "When Irish Eyes Are Smiling". She also wears a white lace-edged blouse, yellow kerchief, black bodice and white apron.

Canandaigua Industries will present Miss Corby with a check for $100 at the Knights of Equity dinner.

A graduate of St. Ambrose and Nazareth Academy, Miss Corby will affiliate with St. Joseph Hospital, Elmira in June, as part of her training in the college nursing course.

Fordham Head Listed For Talk Over WHEC

New York —(NC)— Father Lawrence J. McGinley, S.J., president of Fordham University here, will speak on the "Church of the Air" broadcast over CBS radio network on Sunday, March 11.

Rochester area listeners will hear, the program over Station WHEC from 11 to 11:30 a.m.

The Jesuit priest's talk will be related to the Ignatian Year observances throughout the country that mark the 400th anniversary of the death of St. Ignatius Loyola, founder of the Society of Jesus, CBS said here.

Course Opens In Speech Clinic

Eight children are enrolled in a spring speech training program at Nazareth College. This is a special service of the Speech Department. The children enrolled in the program are from groups of parochial school children in Rochester.

The program began on Monday, Feb. 27 and will continue for eight weeks until April 26. Classes meet on Monday, Wednesday and Thursday at 3 o'clock in the Speech Department.

THE DAY'S SCHEDULE begins with a class in group therapy taught by Sister Helen Daniel, Head of the Speech Department, and observed by Speech Correction students. A short period of supervised play follows after which the children receive individual instruction from Speech Correction majors at the college.

For the past two years Nazareth College has offered a major in Speech Correction but this is the first time that the college has been able to offer this clinical service of eight-weeks' training.

Nazareth Sets 'Anastasia' Scene For Alfred Festival

Nazareth College will be well represented Friday (today) at the Alfred State Tech Fourth Annual Drama Festival when two of its students appear in "The Recognition Scene From Anastasia" in the auditorium of the State University of New York Agricultural and Technical Institute at Alfred.

Mary Mikell Clark, a senior, and Carol Von Wanckel, a junior, will play the parts of the Dowager Empress, Maria, Feodorovna, and the Princess Anastasia, hier apparent to the Russian throne. Miss Clark will portray the aging Empress while Miss Von Wanckel will appear as Anastasia.

Alan A. Stambusky, Jr., instructor in Speech and Drama at Nazareth, is the director of the scene. Time of the performance is 7:45 p.m.

THE SCENE, taken from the second act of the recent Broadway hit, Anastasia, adapted from Marcelle Maurette by Guy Bolton, is "one of tremendous power and emotion, wherein the daughter of the deposed Czar, thought to be an imposter, attempts to convince her grandmother of her true identity. Their meeting is tense and shuddering, with doubt, recognition and inexpressible emotion."

Miss Clark, who plays the role made famous on Broadway by Eugenie Leontovich, is a speech and drama major at Nazareth. Miss Von Wanckel, music major, follows in the footsteps of Viveca Lindfors who originally played the part of Anastasia in the Broadway production.

Mary Ann Handlon, Nazareth junior and speech major, will be stage manager for the scene.
