Guild To Hear Father Nangle

Auburn — The Rev. C. Richard Nangle, principle of DeSales High School, Geneva, will be the speaker at the first dinner meeting of Our Lady of Mercy Guild of Mercy Hospital, Monday, May 21, at Springside Inn.

The guild which was organized to coordinate certain volunteer and merchandising projects at the hospital is concluding its first year of existence. Mrs. Donald Crawford is chairman of the party.

GOD LOVE YOU!

By MOST REV. FULTON J. SHEEN

* * *

Immediately after the Last Supper, just before Our Blessed Lord went into the Garden of Olives, He gave this strange order to His apostles: "Now it is time for a man to sell his cloak and buy a sword." To understand His words it must be remembered that the hour of sweet fellowship at the Last Supper was quickly passing. The Savior reminds them that it cannot always last. They must go out from the supper table to a cold world of hostility and trial, to preach His gospel.

The battle is not against "flesh and blood" but against brutality and the power of the rulers of darkness. Nations make war against the enemy without; Christians wage war against the enemy within.

The seriousness of this battle against the forces of evil in the world, Our Lord symbolizes by the selling of the cloak. The cloak is the symbol of luxury. Sacrifices, superfluities, luxuries must be sacrificed in order to spread a knowledge and love of Christ throughout the world. The cloak is also the symbol of comfort as much as it is a protection against the cold wind and chilling rain. Our Lord therefore suggests that sometimes we must sacrifice not merely our luxuries, but even our comforts in order to be His soldiers.

This God Love You Column bids the faithful exchange cloaks for swords, their luxuries for a native priest in Japan, their comforts for a leper colony in India, their extra blessings for the sword of a Gospel missionary in Burma. Nothing will so much add to your inner peace as a daily sacrifice to bring the faith to pagan lands.

GOD LOVE YOU to J. O. for $10. "I do a little oil painting as a hobby and of every picture I sell I promised ten percent of the price for the poor." . . . to T. T. for $2. "I was just seven years old and I want you to have my birthday money for the poor children." . . to W. F. C. for $30. "In thanksgiving for a successful operation and good health" . . . to W. G. "Enclosed is a money order for $3. I have been saving this from my lunch money for the past two weeks for your missions." . . . to W. F. M. "This is to fulfill a promise I made recently when I started a part time sales job. The enclosed $10 represents 50 cents from every sale I have made." . . to D. J. R. "This $5 is the spending money my Dad gave me during our recent vacation trip. I promise to make a daily sacrifice for the missions." . . to E. S. "Enclosed is $1 which I earned baby sitting. I will do without some candy and cake."

A stray earring or cuff link that you have around the house could mean a meal for a starving Korean orphan. Broken eye glass frames could mean bandages for a leper. Bracelets you no longer wear—any discarded jewelry—or old gold—IF YOU WILL SEND IT TO US—will be resold, and the money will aid are poor and the homeless in the five continents of the World.

Cut out this column, pin your sacrifice to it and mail it to the Most Rev. Fulton J. Sheen, National Director of The Society for the Propagation of the Faith, 366 Fifth Avenue, New York 1x, N. Y., or your Diocesan Director Rt. Rev. Msgr. John S. Randall, 50 Chestnut Street, Rochester 4, New York.

John J. Kleintjes Requiem Offered By Priest Son

Auburn—Funeral services for John J. Kleintjes, father of the Rev. John B. Kleintjes, assistant pastor of St. Anne Church, Rochester, took place Tuesday, May 15, in St. Alphonsus Church, Auburn.

Mr. Kleintjes of 14 Florence St., who was 76 years of age, died suddenly Friday, May 11, 1956. Born in Fleming, he came to Auburn as a boy and continued his residence here until his death.

Solemn Requiem Mass was offered by Father Kleintjes, assisted by the Rev. John M. Merklinger, Deacon; the Rev. Raymond J. Wahl, Subdeacon; the Rev. Frederick Eismann, first master; the Rev. Raymond Wuest and the Rev. Francis Valukevicius, acolytes; the Rev. John S. Whalen, thurifer and the Rev. Raymond G. Heisel, crossbearer.

When Mr. Kleintjes retired as foreman of the pattern shop of the American Locomotive Co., Auburn, a few years ago, he terminated more than 50 years as an employee of that concern.

He was a member of the Holy Name Society of St. Alphonsus Church.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Lillian H. Brill Kleintjes; two sons, the Rev. John B. Kleintjes, assistant pastor of St. Anne Church, Rochester, and Paul L., Garden Grove, Calif.; a sister, Miss Alida Kleintjes; a brother, Peter J. Kleintjes, both of Auburn; three grandchildren and several nieces and nephews.

The following members of the clergy were present at the Mass: Rt. Rev. Msgr. Frederick G. Straub, Rt. Rev. Msgr. Francis J. Lane, Very Rev. Msgr. Gregory Dugan, Very Rev. Msgr. J. Emmett Murphy, Reverend Fathers Raymond P. Nolan, Leo A. Jones, Francis J. Taylor, Paul G. Wohlrab, Gerard G. Kelly, William Tobin, Theodore J. Winterroth, Brendan Hourihan, O. Carm., Francis Donohue, O. Carm., John J. Hempel, Francis G. Waterstraat, E. Joseph Esser, John J. Steger, Richard G. Stanton, Donald J. Murphy, J. B. Crowley, Ralph J. Meyer, Edwin B. He completed his graduate work in English Literature at Harvard University, receiving the Ph.D. degree in 1940.

His main academic interest has been in the field of old and Middle English Literature. Father Shook has been giving undergraduate and graduate courses in this field for 16 years.

He has held the post of professor of English in St. Michael College, University of Toronto and Professor of Vernacular Literature in the Pontifical Institute of Mediaeval Studies.

Bishop Kearney Honored At Annual Tea

Approximately 200 women, representing a membership of 60,000, attended the second annual Bishop's Tea of the Rochester Diocesan Council of Catholic Women held in Medaille Hall of Nazareth College on Saturday, May 12.

HIS EXCELLENCY Bishop Kearney addressed the women briefly—expressing his "delight in this friendly, social gathering of the women of the diocese of Rochester".

The Bishop met and talked with them individually. The seven deaneries of the dioceses were well represented, and those who were not able to attend sent notes and telegrams of greetings to their Episcopal Moderator.

Mrs. Gerald Morris was chairman of the tea, and her co-chairmen were Mrs. Frank Shaughnessy and Mrs. Florian Czerniak.

Pentecost Vigil Saturday, Fast Day

Tomorrow, Saturday, May 19 is the vigil of Pentecost.

It is a day of fast and partial abstinence.

That means for Catholics over 7 years of age — meat is permitted at principal meal only.

For those aged 21 to 59 — one full meal with meat permitted, two other meatless meals, and no eating between meals.
