(Photos on Page 8)

A total of $29,552.42 for the year reported by the Aquinas Mission Crusade on Friday last, was declared a record national total for any school by the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Edward A. Freking of Cincinnati, national secretary of the Catholic Students' Mission Crusade.

Monsignor Freking was principle speaker at the final Mission Assembly at the Basilian school on June 8 at which the report topping last year's total of $27,000 was made.

Reports also showed that Father Edmund Burns' Homeroom 319 was the champion with a total of $2,818.80 topping any single room's previous total. In second place was Father Francis Sheahan's 321 with $1,898.54. Third place banner was awarded to Father Vincent Fullerton's 318 with $1,523.77. These are all senior homerooms.

CSMC AWARDS were presented by the Rt. Rev. Msgr. John S. Randall, diocesan director of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith.

Marty Gullen, president of Aquinas Mission Crusade received the Paladin Award for his work in guiding the mission activity. Donald Maccio, vice president was given the St. Louis the Crusader medal. Monsignor Randall paid tribute to the Aquinas mission spirit and said that many missionary vocations are resulting from the Scenerama which he directed last fall.

Monsignor Randall presented Monsignor Freking who spoke on God's All-Americans who are our missionaries, and of the challenge to American youth to make sacrifice of offering their lives for the missions. He recounted a story about Bishop Ward who had turned down a contract to play baseball with the Yankees to become a missionary.

Monsignor Freking was presented with a check for $300 to be used in connection with his work of the mission apostolate. A presentation was made to Monsignor Randall by the Rev. John Wilson, C.S.B., Mission Moderator, on behalf of the Aquinas student body in recognition of his outstanding work for the missions during his 25 years as a priest.

A chalice was presented by Homeroom 316 to the Rev. John Collins, C.S.B., director of the Basilian Fathers Mexican missions.

The Rev. John Fullerton, superior of the Scarboro Missions in Santo Domingo spoke on his mission work in the West Indies. A check was presented him for $200.

Missionaries in far-off places in China, India, Pakistan, Africa and the Philippines as well as in the Arctic receive substantial aid every year from the Aquinas Mission fund, Father Wilson said.
