Society Hears Fr. McNamara

Clifton Springs — "If a person hear the Word of God and keep it in his daily life, he is truly great," the Rev. Elmer McNamara of Rochester said in speaking at the annual banquet of the Rosary and Altar Society of St. Felix Church on "The Pattern for Greatness."

Father McNamara spoke of the true greatness of the Blessed Mary Mother of God, and commented on the trend today for the extraordinary, and public fame and acclaim given a person to be used as the standard for judging their greatness.

Father McNamara, professor of Sacred Scripture at St. Bernard Seminary, Rochester, was introduced by the Rev. Robert A. Meng, assistant pastor of St. Felix.

EIGHTY-EIGHT members of the society and their guests assembled for the banquet held at the Town Pump Restaurant, Orleans, with the welcome extended by Mrs. Bernard Meath, president. Miss Mary Louise Connolly was toastmistress and Mrs. Claude Goodman songleader.
