$255,732 Pledged To Top Goal In St. Patrick Parish Fund Drive

The school renovation and new gym-auditorium building fund appeal conducted in St. Patrick Parish, Elmira exceeded its goal of $225,000 by $30,732.50, Charles F. Kennedy, general chairman reported on May 21.

More than 450 men, all parish volunteers, participated in the general solicitation of the parish, May 19.

TOTAL AMOUNT already pledged is $255,732.50 according to Monsignor William J. Brien V.F., pastor and more gifts are to be reported.

"I can't tell you men how much I personally appreciate the job you have done," Monsignor Brien declared. "When we started this campaign, I'll admit I didn't know whether or not the job could be accomplished.

"But we were successful because all of us worked together. I particularly feel that all of us in this Parish have drawn closer together during the campaign and I know that this will mean much to every man here in the years to come."

Daniel R. Laux, vice chairman explained that there are a few prospects yet to be reached in the parish and urges all the campaign workers to complete their reports immediately. "I know everyone wants to be part of this tremendous success," he declared, "and we are going to give everyone the opportunity."

THE EFFORT brought special commendation from Thomas F. O'Connell, resident campaign director, who organized and instructed the volunteers. O'Connell of Foley Associates, Inc. of Rochester, a nationwide Catholic firm of professional fund raising counsel who planned the appeal, lauded the workers for their hard work, spirit, and enthusiasm.

"This is as fine a job as I have ever seen a group of men do in all my experience," he asserted. "You have given not only services to this campaign but your hearts."

"In the hundreds of parish campaigns Foley Associates have organized, we have learned that sometimes the hearts of the volunteers can catch a flame of dedication and enthusiasm which accomplishes not only the raising of the needed money but the establishment of a closer relationship among all of them and a heightened devotion to their Church."

The funds realized from the pledges will be allocated toward renovation of the parish buildings and the reduction of parish indebtedness.
