Rochesterian Completes Pre-Novitiate Studies

Callicoon, N. Y. — Parents, relatives and friends gathered here to witness the graduation exercises of 34 seminarians from St. Joseph Seraphic Seminary. Anthony J. Finks, brother of Rev. P. David Finks, of Saint Charles Borromeo Church in Rochester was among the graduates.

A SOLEMN MASS accompanied by impressive commencement ceremonies was offered in the chapel of the Seminary which overlooks the Delaware River. The Seminary was founded in 1901 as a preparatory school for aspirants to the Priesthood in the Franciscan Order, Province of the Most Holy Name.

Very Rev. Celsus R. Wheeler, O.F.M., Minister Provincial, offered the Mass assisted by Rev. Pascal F. Foley, O.F.M., archpriest, Rev. Terence McNally, O.F.M., deacon, and Rev. P. David Finks as subdeacon. The master of ceremonies was Rev. Theodore Cavanaugh, O.F.M., prefect of discipline.

After the Mass, Rev. Pascal F. Foley, O.F.M., rector, conferred the diplomas with Father Provincial presiding. The address to the graduates was delivered by Rev. Reginald Redion, O.F.M., Ph.D., professor of philosophy, Saint Francis College, Rye Beach, N. H.

On July 14th, the graduates will be invested with the brown habit of the Franciscan Order at Saint Raphael's Novitiate, Lafayette, N. J. There they will spend a year of intense spiritual training in the Franciscan way of life. Upon completion of the Novitiate, they will continue their studies in philosophy and theology in New Hampshire and finally in Washington, D.C. where they will be ordained after six years of study.

Latin Awards Presented 45 Students At Mercy High

Forty-five students of our Lady of Mercy High School were awarded certificates as a result of the National Latin Test sponsored by the Association for the Promotion of Latin.

The 27,000 contestants who participated represented all levels of Latin and were required to translate from English to Latin as well as from Latin to English. The total possible score was 120.

IN THE highest class, Summa Cum Laude, senior Rita Grebe, Latin 4, with 116 points, and junior Elaine DeCarlo, Latin 3, with 115 points, received a gold pin with their certificates. Senior Dorothy Becker, Latin 4, with 110 points received an award in the Maxima Cum Laude class. Magna Cum Laude certificates were awarded to: Latin 1, Edna Chrysafides, 105 points, and Barbara Eismont, 103 points; Latin II, Nancy Sandman, 101 points, and Latin IV, Margaret Spahn, 101 points.

Cum Laude certificates for an average between 90 and 100 were given to the following: Latin IV, Mary Jo Lamphear, Anne Crowley, Gloria Gorczynski, Maureen Powers, and Betty Marella.

Latin III, Bridget Romano, Jean Kearse, Sue Maier, Mario Rizzo, Mary Pat Simmons, Helen Brach, Katherine Ambrose, Janet Speiss, Jackie Legler, Linda Coelho, and Elizabeth Rector.

Latin II, Monika Wickert, Martha Doell, Ruth Hummel, Mary Beth Geiger, Dianne Ruff, Kathleen Vinci, Marcia Farrell, Carol May, Barbara Frawley, Joan Millerick.

Latin I, Judy Loewenguth, Judy Haney, Sue Kennedy, Pat O'Brien, Claire Friedman, Joyce McDonald, Janice Klein, Jeanette Madalena, Marcia Wagner, Madeline Geiger, Carolyn Smit, and Mary Anne Weiskopf.

Whenever three girls in a school receive a gold pin, the school receives a trophy. Mercy already has one trophy and now will receive another one due to the high ratings of the two girls this year and two last year, graduates Pat Millerick '57 and junior Pat Russell, who won the gold pins.

Blood Donors Asked During Summertime

Summertime at the Rochester Regional Red Cross Blood Center is a time of less blood, less donors and a great need for more blood according to Dr. Herbert R. Brown, Jr., medical director of the Blood Program.
