

LOCAL HAPPENINGS.

Father Angelo is preaching the Lenten sermons at St. Mary's.

Thursday last a large First Communion class was organized at the Cathedral.

At Monday's meeting of the Park Commission, the old board of officers was re-elected for the ensuing year.

Miss Libbie Daly, of 193 South Union street, is in New York.

During the past week Mother Hieronymo received $2,000 from the estate of Patrick Barry.

A fine programme was rendered at the last meeting of the Cathedral Book Club.

Sunday last the collection for the Propagation of the Faith was taken up, it having been postponed because the first Sunday of Lent fell on the day usually set apart for the school collection.

The Cathedral choir, under the able direction of Professor Eugene Bonn, is rendering Gregorian music in excellent style.

Miss Lillie Halloran, of 104 Atkinson street, is enjoying a four weeks' visit with her sister, Mrs. Dr. Smagg, of 2203 Fifth avenue, New York city.

The Children of Mary of St. Mary's Church last Sunday donated the month's dues and quite a sum besides to St. Mary's hospital.

St. Francis Xavier's society is endeavoring to raise $1,000 for the fund to rebuild St. Mary's hospital.

Miss Ella A. Finucane, of 89 Meigs street, is visiting friends in Buffalo.

The Whitcomb House will be extended to North Clinton street the coming summer.

John H. Foley's friends in the Eighth ward say his canvass as an independent candidate for Alderman is progressing nicely.

Miss Ida Dowd, of Brooklyn, who has been visiting the Misses Daly, So. Union street, returned home Tuesday. During her stay in the Flower City, she made many acquaintances who were loath to part with her.

In the Picton, Ont., Gazette, of Feb. 13th, we find the following: Miss A. M. Sheridan, of Rochester, was married Monday of last week. Miss Sheridan will be remembered by many as one of the jolly crowd from Rochester, who were rusticated at the Sandbanks last summer, when she was a great favorite among the boarders. Her Picton friends join her friends across the line in wishing her many years of happiness.

The pupils of St. Michael's school gave two entertainments Tuesday for the benefit of St. Mary's hospital. The same programme was presented after-noon and evening. The first half of the entertainment consisted of musical selections, both vocal and instrumental, and the exercises closed with a drama, which was quite interesting. There was a large audience at each entertainment, which gave evidence of the interest which is manifested in the welfare of St. Mary's hospital.

Wednesday and Thursday the city was ablaze with flags and bunting, and Grand Army hats and buttons were seen everywhere. The annual convention of the Grand Army of the Republic, department of New York, was in progress, and some 1,200 delegates were in attendance. The place of meeting was in Washington rink. Mayor Carrill delivered an address of welcome in his usual felicitous style. The visitors expressed themselves as heartily in love with the Flower City.

The Chamber of Commerce banquet Monday evening was the social event of the season. There were present 448 guests, and all enjoyed themselves to the utmost. The speakers included Pres. Eugene T. Curtis, Hon. Chauncey M. Depew, Hon. Chas. J. Bissell, Hon. Joseph Tait, of Toronto, Hon. J. Sloan Fassett, of Elmira, Dr. David J. Hill, president of the University of Rochester. "Our Chaucer" was in his happiest vein and his speech was all that could be asked. J. H. Stedman made a very satisfactory toast-master. Among the guests present were Hon. Wm. Purcell, Valentine Fleckenstein, W. P. Hamlin, W. C. Barry, J. Miller Kelly, Mayor Carroll, T. W. Finucane, C. K. Min- ar, A. B. Hone, W. H. Tracy, Michael Doyle, B. P. Smith, A. V. Hone, F. A. Shale, S. F. Minges, J. M. E. O'Grady, T. H. McGuire, J. and V. Gerling, James Frost, W. Gleason, J. H. Foley, Louis Eest.

The "Catholic Literary" met Monday evening in the C. B. L. rooms in the Durand block. President Marskile presided. After the routine business was transacted, Dr. James H. Finnessy read the deliberations of the Second Council. Misses Nellie O'Callaghan and Mary Cunningham played a pretty piano solo; Miss Sweeney sang a charming vocal solo; Miss Kate Lucas read an interesting paper on the "Roman Octavoids"; Miss Farrell gave an instrumental solo; Frank Ashe played a piano solo with Miss Ida Dowd, of Brooklyn, as accompanist; Miss Kate Grant recited "Jennie McNeill" to the satisfaction of all. Rev.

Felix O'Hanlon gave a very interesting account of his recent visit to Florida, and spoke a few words on the objects and benefits of the "Literary," which he thought could be made very interesting and instructive to its members. He wished it all success, and hoped each member would not shirk when called upon to do his or her part. The question box was then taken up, and some little time spent therewith. At the next meeting, Monday evening, March 11th, the Councils will be continued. The president will also commence a series of papers on "The History of the Catholic Church in the United States." The meeting will open with quotations from Moore.

On our first page will be found the report of the committee in charge of the contributions to Mother Hieronymo's golden jubilee testimonial. The following corrections were received too late to be made: Mrs. J. T. Cunningham and Mrs. R. K. Dryer, solicitors—Mrs. J. Maloney, $5. Mrs. C. H. Wilkins, sol.—Mary Concaunon, $2.50. Mrs. J. C. O'Brien, sol.—John Le- Veque, C. M. Everest, J. D. Casey, R. Curran, Irving Paine, G. T. Otis, each $5; G. Stritt, $1; R. Vay, $2. Total by this solicitor, $228.50. Mrs. G. Carroll, sol.—Chas. Correct contents of purse presented, $1,717.50; received personally by Mother Hieronymo day of reception, $936.70. M. E. Dryer, treasurer.

Rev. P. A. Ludden, Bishop of Syracuse, was in the city Thursday, the guest of Bishop McQuaid.

A number of ladies met at St. Mary's hospital yesterday and formed a Hospital Aid Society.

The insurance adjusters have decided to pay St. Mary's hospital $12,000 on the building and $8,000 on the furniture. The committee in charge of rebuilding estimate it will take $28,233 to restore the building in desirable but economical manner, and barely make good the loss on furniture and other appurtenances of the institution, and most earnestly appeal to the citizens of Rochester and the environment for subscriptions to the necessary fund. Subscriptions may be sent to the treasurer, Wm. F. Balkan, of the Union and Advertiser.

SOCIETIES MEET NEXT WEEK.
Monday—Branches 93, 134.
Wednesday—Branch 88.
Friday—Branch 87.

One application was received at the last meeting of Branch 134.

The C. M. B. A. Weekly published in full the address of Grand Deputy Ernst, which recently appeared in the Journal.

Members of 139 will receive Holy Communion in a body on Palm Sunday at Corpus Christi church. All members who can possibly join their Brothers are expected to do so.

We regret to chronicle the dangerous illness of Brother McLaughlin, of Branch 139, who is suffering from an attack of typhoid pneumonia at his residence, 66 Ontario street.

Branch 93 is entitled to much credit for its prompt action in resolving to raise $100 for St. Mary's hospital.

Bro. Wm. J. Appel is now a member of Branch 81, having withdrawn from 139.

There will be no parade of the Irish societies of Boston St. Patrick's day.

At the last meeting of Branch 27, L. C. B. A., Mrs. J. W. Brock, vice-president, on behalf of the branch, presented Mrs. C. V. Lee, the talented recorder, a seal skin bag, as a mark of appreciation of her faithful services and zeal in organizing the Branch.

June 24, 1891, the annual convention of the Knights of St. John will be held in Fort Wayne, Ind. The commanderies of that city have issued a circular to their sister organizations setting forth in glowing colors the beauties of their city, and promising an enjoyable time to delegates.

The time is at hand when the different branches of the C. M. B. A. will consider the question of receiving Holy Communion; whether the members will receive singly, as they find it convenient, or in a body. The latter course is, by all means, the better one, and we think no really strong objections can be brought against it.

The example of a body of men showing their devotion to the Catholic faith and their firm belief in the Real Presence of Our Saviour in the Eucharist is an edifying one, not only to individual Catholics, but to other organizations. Let no branch fail to take this course, and let no member fail to join his brothers in this sacred duty.

Branch 93, C. M. B. A., is greatly pleased with its quarters in the C. B. L. rooms, 22 Durand block.

Appropriate resolutions were adopted by St. Leopold's Union, Commandery No. 30, Knights of St. John, on the death of Michael Leidecker, expressing the grief of the members on the death of their beloved friend and brother, who was one of their most earnest charter members. The members deeply sympathize with the family and friends of their deceased associate, order that the rooms of the Commandery be draped in mourning for a period of thirty days, and resolve to attend the funeral in a body.

Brothers Thomas J. O'Brien and Adolph Legler are candidates for inspector of election in the Tenth ward, and Brother John Torney in the Fourteenth.

The Doctors Baffled.
Helpless and in Torturing Pain for Two Months, Cured in Ten Days by Dr. Freeman, 105 Franklin Street.

Mr. Spencer G. Wright, of No. 11 Halbert st. feels that his life has been saved by Dr. Freeman and tells the following interesting story for the benefit of other sufferers: "On the 11th day of last August I began to feel weak and miserable; my bones ached, and sharp pains darted through every muscle and joint; it became difficult for me to walk around or even move. Chill and fever now took hold of me, and my joints became swollen and tender; I could not bear to have any one come near or touch me, even the air caused a person walking across the room produced excruciating pains. For thirteen weeks I was attended by two doctors, each of whom said they could cure me in a short time; but I got worse, and finally became delirious, and many thought I would die. While in this condition my wife, who was herself cured by Dr. Freeman two years ago, called on the doctor for medicine and advice. I improved from the very first treatment, but could scarcely believe so rapid a change possible, but in ten days I was entirely free from pain, and was able to walk about still weak from my long illness. I have now fully recovered my lost strength, and feel better than I ever did. I have every reason to feel grateful to Dr. Freeman, who saved my life after months of suffering, when other doctors failed even to relieve. I reside at No. 11 Halbert street, and will be pleased to talk with any sufferers who wish to call."—SPENCER G. WRIGHT.

Dr. Freeman cures Catarrh, Dyspepsia, Rheumatism, Blood and Skin Diseases, Nervous Debility, derangements of the Liver and Kidneys, and Diseases of Women.
