China Born Priest Made Bishop

Rome — (NC) — A Russian priest who has ministered to his compatriots in Australia since 1932 has been consecrated a Bishop in the Church of St. Anthony Abbot of the Russicum College here.

Archbishop Alexander Evreinoff, ordaining Bishop in Rome for the Byzantine Rite, consecrated Father Andrew Katkoff, M.S.C., as Titular Bishop of Nauplia.

Bishop Katkoff, who will serve as Coadjutor to Archbishop Evreinoff, was born at Harbin, Manchuria, on October 26 1916 of parents who were refugees from Russia.

Mass Telecast From Historic French Abbey

Paris — (NC — French television viewers gathered around their sets on Christmas Eve to watch the nationwide telecast of a Midnight Mass celebrated at the famous Abbey of Mont-St.-Michel.

A choir of Catholic students from the University of Paris accompanied the Mass, offered by Bishop Louis Guyot, of Coutances in the historic 10th-century abbey situated on a rocky island off the coast of Normandy.

The French national broadcasting system, which transmitted the ceremony, will also televise on Jan. 11 a High Mass commemorating the 10th anniversary of Catholic Radio and TV programs in the country. The Mass will be offered in Notre Dame cathedral here by His Eminence Maurice Cardinal Feltin, Archbishop of Paris.

'Holiday Interlude' For Collegians

Paying Off

Teenagers Fight Immoral Movies

Springfield, Ohio — (NC) — High school students campaigning against immoral movies here have reached an agreement with the city's theater owners.

Last month Catholic Central High School students formed a Council for Finer Movies and pledged themselves to stay away from all local theaters until the quality of films booked in the area had improved.

MOST OF the other high schools in Springfield and Clark county, public schools included, supported the council's campaign.

Kevin Charters, leader of the combined student effort, reports: "We had two meetings with Michael Chakeres (the city's major theater owner) and he told us he was going to keep condemned movies and 'adult only' movies out of town."

"Another theater owner, William Settos, told students he never has shown "and never will show" offensive films.

"Charters said the student group will continue to meet periodically with theater officials on future scheduling of movies.

Religious Play In Paris Stadium

Paris — (RNS) — "The Trial of Jesus," a play by Diego Fabbri, was performed in the largest sports stadium of the capital before an audience of 15,000 people, including 8,000 students.

A new acoustic system invented by a young Frenchman was used for the first time, making it possible for the actors to speak normally and be heard throughout the stadium even when speaking in whispers.

After the play, the spectators formed a procession and marched along the embankments of the Seine to Notre Dame Cathedral for a special night Mass and all-night prayer watch.

The paris authorities permitted the embankments and all the monuments along the route to be floodlighted for the occasion.

Maurice Cardinal Feltin, Archbishop of Paris, greeted the marchers at Notre Dame and presided at the Mass.

Beatification Cause Closed

Rome — (NC) — The Rome Vicariate has closed the diocesan investigation of the writings and lack of previous cult of the Servant of God, Mother Ursula Ledochowski, foundress of the Ursuline Sisters of the Sacred Heart of Jesus in Agony.

Two Rochester theaters, the Little and the Capitol, have on more than one occasion this year shown movies rated as Class C (Condemned) by the Legion of Decency. Catholics are reminded of the Legion pledge by which they promise to stay away from theaters showing condemned films as a matter of policy.

Blaze Away

A farmer retired and moved to the city. In the morning, after spending the first night in their new home, his wife said, "Well, Pa, isn't it about time you were getting up to build the fire?"

"Not me," was his reply. "We might as well get used to these city conveniences right from the start—I'm going to call the fire department."

Dominican Helps

Singer's Rise To Fame

Matsuyama, Japan — (NC) — A Spanish Dominican missionary here feels like an art patron of old: a Japanese girl whom he encouraged to go on from his parish choir to intensive vocal training has made good with the Metropolitan Opera in New York.

Kunie Imai won acclaim from New York critics when she sang the role of Cho-Cho-San in Puccini's Madame Butterfly, the year's top classical record seller. The Rev. Sergio Santamaria, O.P. gave her her major push.

THE SPANISH friar is now director of the Dominican-conducted mental hospital here. When the first met Miss Imai, in 1950, he was pastor of Our Lady of Pilar parish in nearby Imabari.

Some friends of hers, already members of the Pilar choir, asked Father Santamaria whether she could join the choir despite the fact she was a pagan. The priest consented, and the girl joined the choir despite initial disapproval on the part of her mother.

Earlier that year, Kunie Imai had won a Japanese Broadcasting Corporation singing contest for Ehime prefecture, and she entered the contest for the whole island of Shikoku shortly after joining the choir.

It was Father Santamaria who drove her and her family in his jeep from Imabari to Matsuyama, where the contest was held. Kunie won first prize, and on the way back home, Father Santamaria casually suggested: "How about studying Spanish and going to Spain to study music?"

Three days later the priest was nonplussed to find she was indeed studying Spanish. So to carry out his part of what had started as banter, he wrote his provincial in Spain, asking if a music scholarship could be arranged for Kunie.

As a result, the young singer who also started studying the Catholic Faith, later to be baptized Cecilia, after the patron saint of music — set out for the International Music University in Madrid the following year.

SHE WAS graduated in three years instead of the usual four, and then went on to the Madrid Conservatory.

On completing her work at the conservatory in 1957 the young soprano had won a cash award from the Spanish Ministry of Education for her outstanding work, and had won the conservatory's first prize, the Mozart Prize and the Lucrecia Azcuna Prize.

Miss Imai studied futher under Ettore Verna in Milan, Italy, and last summer made her operatic debut in the title role of Madame Butterfly in Seville. Rudolf Bing, the Metropolitan's general manager, heard her sing in Europe, and immediately signed her on for the New York appearance.

It was a hit. But Kunie wasn't ready to rest on her laurels. She had already contracted to return to Europe almost immediately for performances in Turin, Como, Naples, Rome and Parma.

Miss Imai, now 27, has expressed her gratitude to Father Santamaria. His kindness not only led to her conversion, and contributed to her rise in the world of music, but it also had another effect: Her parents, once hostile to the Church, are now devout Catholics.

Reds Balk Food Parcels

Hong Kong — (NC) — Communist Chinese Red Cross officials have refused to accept two food parcels for Bishop James E. Walsh, M.M. at the border here.

They said: "His name is not on our list."

Bishop Walsh, the last U.S. Catholic missionary in Red China, has reportedly been placed under arrest by the communists.

J. R. Hildebrand, American Red Cross official who brought food parcels to the boder for five Americans "detained" in Red China, reported the communists' refusal in an interview after his meeting with the representative of the Chinese Red Cross.
