

LOCAL HAPPENINGS.

J. E. Carberry, wife and daughter, of Ithaca, were in the city this week, the guests of J. William Carberry.

Mrs. Frank Reese and Miss Marie Reese of Naples have been visiting friends in the city the past two weeks.

J. M. Nolan, of Rosa & Nolan, is a director and treasurer of the Rochester base ball club. The new manager, Mr. Powers, is a gentleman of fine personal qualities. We will say more about ball next week.

Miss Frances Beatrice Quigley of this city, has been received into the order of the Sisters of Divine Compassion at the Convent of Divine Compassion, New York city, her name in religion being Sister M. Gabriel.

John B. Crowley and Miss Amelia Gilman, both of this city, were united in marriage at the church of the Immaculate Conception, by Rev. James F. O'Hare, DD. V. G.

Last Sunday afternoon the Bishop solemnly blessed the new bell of St. Stanislaus Polish church. A large number witnessed the ceremony. Rev. Fathers Szadinski, Quinn and J. J. Hartley assisted the Bishop.

Vice-President Dr. Somers presided at Monday evening's meeting of the "Catholic Literary." An interesting programme was rendered. The quotations from Pope were well rendered. The next meeting will be held April 20th and will open with quotations from Dryden.

At Nazareth convent Saturday morning, Miss Mary Brodson, of Auburn, N. Y., and Miss Francis Dwyer of Rochester were received into the order of the Sisters of St. Joseph. Their names in religion are: Miss Brennan, Sister Mary Anicetus; Miss Dwyer, Sister Mary Florence. The latter is a daughter of Michael Dwyer a well-known member of St. Bridget's parish.

The funeral of Miss Jennie T. Lennon took place from St. Bridget's church Friday. She was the eldest daughter of Bernard Lennon, one of the most respected residents of the Fifth ward, and was a most estimable and accomplished young lady.

At St. Aloysius church, Detroit, Mich., Monday morning last, John Kiley of this city and Miss Clemmie McLaughlin of Detroit were united in marriage. Mr. Kiley is widely known here as the manager of the malting interests of the Bartholomay Brewing Co. The bride is an estimable and talented young lady, and a former pupil of the Sacred Heart convent.

Mayor Carroll has appointed Edward H. McSweeney and Robert Seibert members of the Excise Board. The first named is a native of Rochester, having been born here in 1844. He has always lived in the city and has been a resident of the Fourth ward for the past thirty years. He has been in business at the corner of East Main and St. Paul streets for the last twenty years. Mr. McSweeney was the city sealer in 1873-74. Mr. Seibert is a member of the shoe manufacturing firm of Rauber & Seibert and a prominent member of St. Michael's church. He is also well known as a Catholic society man, being a member of several organizations. Mr. Seibert is well-known in the C. M. B. A.

All frequenters of the Central library, irrespective of creed or party, express regret at the summary displacement by the new Board of Education of Mrs. Catherine J. Dowling as assistant librarian. Mrs. Dowling has held her position ten years, to the entire satisfaction of all concerned. She is a highly educated woman, and well posted on books. In fact she was the ideal person for the position. We have nothing to say in disparagement of the new appointee, but we know nothing of her, have never heard of her, are not certain that she possesses any special qualifications for the place, except being suitable to the politicians. We do know Mrs. Dowling, and that she was fitted for the position. We fail to see any reason for her removal. Party politics certainly did not enter into the question. We are informed Mrs. Dowling was displaced because of her religion. If that be so, we have the heartiest contempt for each and every commissioner who voted for Mrs. Dowling's successor.

St. Mary's church was the scene of a very pretty wedding at 4:30 p. m. Monday. The contracting parties were J. Eugene Baker, of Hastings-on-the-Hudson, and Miss Minnie O'Hara, of this city. The party entered the church to the strains of a merry wedding march, played by Miss Julia Madden. The ushers, John Rogan and Willard A. Marakle led the way, followed by the groom and his best man, Joseph Murphy, of New York; the bride came last, leaning on the arm of her brother, Joseph O'Hara. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. P. Stewart, assisted by Rev. Felix O'Hanlon. Before the marriage, Father Stewart addressed the two about to be made one in affecting terms and gave them a few words of wholesome advice about the duties and obligations incumbent upon married life.

Then the beautiful service of our Holy Church was read, while the large throng of friends breathed a prayer that Heaven's choicest blessings would attend the two through life. At the home of the bride's mother, 18 No. Union street, a reception was held. Mr. and Mrs. Baker left at 9:30 p. m. for their eastern home. The bride is a charming young lady and has many warm friends in this city, who were loth to part with her. The groom is a successful young business man of Hastings.

VERY Rev. Mgr. De Regge, chancellor of this diocese, sailed Wednesday for Belgium, to be absent three or four months. We know all our readers will join in a prayer that he may have a pleasant visit abroad and return safely to us.

The new statutes of the Mother of Sorrows and St. John add much to the beauty of our sanctuary.

OUR CARPET DEPARTMENT

PRESENTS UNUSUAL ACTIVITY THESE DAYS.

Everybody Busy, with Sales Doubling the Figures of Any Previous Season.

It is but a few years since we added this branch to our regular business, and in so doing were governed largely by the fact that Carpets, like all other kinds of Dry Goods, to be handled successfully, should be sold on the basis of a fair but small profit—a problem which up to that time had not been tried in the Flower City, and even up to the present day is recognized but by only a few in the carpet trade. So, starting our Carpet Department on the basis of small profits, and keeping that point always in view, we have from a very modest beginning a few years back grown into favor so rapidly that to-day our display of floor coverings is one of the largest and finest in this city, comprising all the newest patterns, choicest designs and latest tints in Axminsters, Wiltons, Moquettes, Ingrains, and American and Oriental Rugs, together with an excellent variety of Straw Matting, and everything that is desirable in Linoleums and Oil Cloths.

Come and see us. We will be pleased to show you, whether you wish to buy or not.

McFarlin's New Store.

From the July, April 4th.

One of the greatest events in the commercial history of Rochester is the removal of the business of F. M. McFarlin & Son from their old stand on East Main to their new clothing palace, situated a few yards distant at Nos. 38 and 40 North St. Paul street. Remember the new stand is close by the old one and is in the magnificent P. Cox building recently erected, and which is one of the most imposing structures in the state. The length of the new store is 115 feet and its width is fifty feet. It is illuminated with arc and incandescent lights and the appointments are beautiful and artistic. There will always be plenty of space for the crowds which purchase clothing of this celebrated firm. The name of McFarlin is a household word in every home in Western New York and is closely allied with the prosperity of the city. The house is famous for the excellent qualities of men's, youths and boys clothing, it being the universal verdict that goods purchased at McFarlin & Son's look better, last longer and cost less than any other clothing house in the state. We advise all to go and visit the new clothing palace and see mammoth stocks of new and fashionable garments of every description for men, youths and children that are piled in the capacious salesroom.
