Requiem Held For Father Of Priest

Funeral Mass for Arthur Charbonneau was celebrated by his son, Father William Charbonneau of Rochester Catholic Charities, in St. Mary's Church, Monday, April 27.

Mr. Charbonneau, 76, veteran Rochester carpenter, died in his home 462 Court St., Wednesday, April 22, 1959.

AUXILIARY BISHOP Casey imparted the Absolution at the Mass and at the grave in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery.

Father Charbonneau was assisted in the Solemn Requiem Mass by the Rev. Jerome Schiferli, deacon; and Rev. Robert Donovan, subdeacon. A number of priests attended.

Mr. Charbonneau, a native of Hull, Quebec was a resident of Rochester for 33 years. He moved here from Watertown in 1926. He learned the carpenter's trade in the lumber camps of Quebec, came to the United States in 1904 and first settled at Pepper Lake.

During World War I, he served with an Army Construction Battalion in Washington, D. C., Maryland and Virginia. Following the war, he settled in Watertown. He was a member of Carpenters Local 72.

MR. CHARBONNEAU is survived also by his wife, Mae, and five other sons: Marcel of Saratoga Springs, Ernest of Chicago, Ill., Homer of Rochester, Paul of New Haven, Conn., and Robert of East Lansing, Mich.; a daughter, Mrs. Mary Dillabaugh of Smithville; and a sister, Mrs. Ryan Cobalt of Canada. There are nine grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren, several nieces and nephews.

Arrangements were by Thomas F. Trott Funeral Home.

The Rosary-Altar Society of St. Aloysius Church, Auburn, held a food shower for the Sisters in the parish hall, recently, when thousands of food items were presented to the nuns. Shown looking over a few of the items are (left to right): Sister Alphonsa Marie, Sister Rose Cecilia, Sister Michaela, Sister Oswald, Sister Mary Ida, Sister Jonathan, Mrs. John Miskell, co-chairman; Rev. John V. Loughlin, assistant pastor; Mrs. Paul Bona, chairman; and Rev. James C. Lane, pastor.

Food Shower Given Sisters

Auburn—The Sisters of St. Joseph who staff St. Aloysius School were honored by the Rosary-Altar Society with a food shower, attended by over 200 members and guests.

The CYO Glee club under the direction of Rev. John V. Loughlin, assistant pastor, presented a program. In the group were Walter Burns, John Caruana, Thomas Lawler, William Mallory, James Marventano, Richard Paulino and Rocco Tabone; Miss Dia Gaffney was the accompanist.

REV. JAMES C. LANE, pastor, spoke on behalf of the Sisters and thanked the women. The Rev. John B. Crowley, pastor emeritus, spoke briefly.

Mrs. Paul Bona and Mrs. John Miskell were co-chairmen.

Thomas Hickey Chosen For Boys' State

Geneva — Thomas Michael Hickey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hickey, of 10 Lyceum Street, Geneva, has been chosen to represent his school at Boys' State from June 21 to June 27.

Thomas is a Junior at DeSales High School. Besides maintaining a high scholastic average, Thomas has participated in sports, playing basketball with the C.Y.O. of St. Stephen's Parish High School group. He is also a carrier for the Democrat and Chronicle.

BOYS' STATE, which is held at Colgate University in Hamilton, N. Y., is sponsored by the American Legion. It is a citizenship training program designed to meet the needs of our youth and inculcate individual responsibility to Community, state, and nation.

To qualify for this laboratory of practical political science, a boy must be at least fifteen years of age, a junior in high school and possess qualities of leadership, character, scholarship and service.

BESIDES THE program of work in running thirty cities into which Boys' State is divided, the boys have plenty of other activity. A softball schedule, tennis tournament, swimming, band, daily newspaper, and a talent show help to fill up the busy week.

St. Alphonsus Unit Sponsors Sale

Auburn — The Mothers Club of St. Alphonsus Church will sponsor a Rummage sale today and tomorrow, May 1 and 2 at 13 South Street, Auburn.

Mrs. Paul Young heads the following committee: Mesdames Fred Bennett, William Coleman, Frank Newcomb, Stanley Kott, William Dunn, Louis Daly, Warren Harding, Andrew Lawford and William Longo.

Noted Jesuit's Lecture Set By 3 College Groups

Rev. Vincent P. McCorry, S.J., will speak in Rosina O'Doherty Kearney Auditorium at St. John Fisher College on Monday, May 4 at 8 p.m. Father McCorry's subject will be "The Mystery of Bigotry."

Lecture is sponsored by the Rochester Chapters of the Alumnae and Alumni Associations of Le Moyne, Nazareth and St. John Fisher Colleges.

FATHER McCORRY is a product of Jesuit education, having attended Xavier High School in New York City, Woodstock College, and Loyola College of Baltimore. He entered the Society of Jesus in 1926 and was ordained to the priesthood in 1940.

Since his ordination, he has taught at Loyola of Baltimore, Canisius and Le Moyne Colleges and Fordham University.

He is the author of six books, including "Most Worthy of All Praise" (1945) and "Those Terrible Teens" (1949). His present literary activities include an editorship on America Magazine, in which his weekly column "The Word" appears, and he is also writing for the Messenger of the Sacred Heart.

Father McCorry is best known as a retreat master and is presently touring the eastern United States in that capacity.

TICKETS ARE now available at Nazareth and St. John Fisher College or at the Auditorium on the evening of the lecture.

Parish Group Hears Fr. Smith

Geneva — The Rev. Robert Smith of St. Francis de Sales Church gave a sermon on personal sanctification to the members of St. Stephen's Club recently.

Members assembled in St. Stephen's Church for their annual Holy Hour which was conducted by the Rev. John F. Duffy. Benefits accruing from membership in the Daily Mass League were explained.

LATER TWO film strips on the subject of the Mass were shown in the school hall. A buffet supper was served by members of the committee. Co-chairmen were Mrs. Thomas McNerney and William Wilson.
