Remedial Reading

Mercy Sisters Ready Classes

Registration for the ninth summer session of the Reading Laboratory conducted by the Sisters of Mercy will be held next week. This year, through the courtesy of Rev. Leonard A. Kelly, a branch will be operating for the first time in Fairport.

THE SISTERS of Mercy will live in Assumption Convent in Fairport and teach reading in the Catechetical Center there. The branch annually conducted in northern Rochester will be at St. Salome School this summer, through the courtesy of Rev. Edward J. Eschrich, pastor.

Parents of prospective students are expected to call in person between the hours of 9 and 5 on the following dates:

Fairport Branch at Assumption Catechetical Center: June 2, Tuesday.

Newark Branch at Saint Michael School, Newark: June 3, Wednesday.

Irondequoit Branch at Saint Salome School: June 4, Thursday.

Laboratory Headquarters at Mercy High: June 5 and 6, Friday and Saturday.

Auburn Branch at Holy Family School, Auburn: June 8, Monday.

STUDENTS FROM second grade through college are eligible for the remedial reading program. They are analyzed by diagnostic tests, classified according to reading achievement and needs, taught in groups of seven.

The program consists of one hour's instruction for twenty days, each morning Monday through Friday, July 1 to July 24. A staff of forty Sisters of Mercy includes, besides teachers of reading, psychologists, psychometrists, guidance personnel, and speech therapists. A variety of teaching media, including audio-visual equipment, is employed. Sister Mary de Pazzi is director of the Reading Laboratory, Sister Mary Helena is registrar.

THE TESTING and Guidance Center offers a complete testing program including: clinical I.Q. testing, personality analysis, achievement and interest tests, and vocational aptitude inventories. Students not attending the Reading Laboratory may avail themselves of testing services by calling HU 2-3442 and making an appointment with Sister Mary Peter.

Speech therapy is offered as an adjunct to the summer Reading Laboratory session. Students who desire speech correction work may register at the time of Reading Laboratory registration. Arrangements for remedial work in English and arithmetic may be made at this time also.

Emmett O'Brien To Address Legion Post

J. Emmett O'Brien will address members, friends and ladies of Streb-Lappan-Klem Post, American Legion at its 12th annual installation dinner, to be held June 6 at Lake Shore Country Club, Beach Ave.

Prominent Rochester attorney and Monroe County Chairman of the Citizens Advisory Committee on Indecent Literature, O'Brien will present a progress report on the stamping out of indecency.

To be held at 6:30 p.m., the speaker will be introduced by toastmaster for the affair, Rev. Donald J. Murphy, post chaplain. John R. Ward is dinner chairman.

PAST COUNTY commander of the American Legion Frank G. Jurlen will install Giles Hobin as commander, Joseph Belle Isle as 1st vice-commander; Edward L. Miller, 2nd vice-commander; Paul R. Bredmore, adjutant; Franklin McGee, finance officer; William Nyhan, service officer; Joseph Kopler, sergeant-at-arms and Neil Hickey, historian. New members also will be sworn-in at the dinner meeting and receive their Legion pin.

Present county commander James C. Dryer Jr. with vice-commander Frank Heveron will be among honored guests at the installation.

Mission Guild To Aid Africa Nuns

FIRST OFFICERS of the new Medical Missionaries of Mary Guild outline program to aid nuns in African outpost. Rev. George Wood is Guild chaplain. Dr. Paul S. Lalonde, just returned from five months working with the nuns in Tanganyika, inspired Guild's organization by describing needs of the nuns. Elected president is Mrs. John F. Noonan (at right) and Mrs. James P. Kenny, treasurer. Dr. Lalonde's story will appear in subsequent issues of the Courier Journal.

The Weekly Note From Mr. Pepsi

The first long holiday weekend of the summer is upon us. Traditionally, this is the beginning of warm weather activity. Millions of people across the country will be on the move to family outings and good times together.

In the midst of our plans for a carefree holiday, let us remember the spirit behind Memorial Day. Take a few moments in the peace and quiet of personal meditation to remember those who have gone before, and who by their deeds, have made worthwhile contributions to home and country.

This can be the time to take spiritual inventory of our own lives, to decide how we ourselves can add to our priceless heritage by action as well as word.
