GEN. VON MOLTKE DEAD.

Germany's Greatest Soldier Suddenly Expired in Berlin. BERLIN, April 25 - Gen. von Moltke. the leminent commander, is dead. He was born Oct. 26, 1800, and his 90th birthday was the occasion of a great celebration. Count von Moltke entered first into the Danish service. being of Dauish descent, but shortly afterward, in 1822, passed into the Prussian army. In about ten years he succeeded in achieving promotion to the staff. In 1835 he made a voyage. tothe East, where COUNT VON MOLTKE. he was introduced to Sultan Mahmond of Turkey. At the request of the sultan, von Moltke undertook important military reforms in the Turkish service, and also won considerable bredit in the Syrian campaign of 1839.

Returning to Prussia he was appointed chief of staff in 1856 and aid-de-camp to Prince Frederick William. He devised the campaign of 1866 against Austria, and. having been promoted to the rank of general, he directed operations, under King William, in the decisive battle of Sadowa. He is credited with having laid out the plan of operations for the Franco-Prussian war, and he was the chief milidary director on the German side in that great struggle. The investment of Paris was his plan for ending the war. He has since been the chief military figure in Europe, keeping up his activities even until his death. He attended the reichstag in the afternoon, and died suddenly at 9.45 last evening of heart failure.

ANOTHER RAILROAD WRECK.

This Time on the B. and O. - Four Killed; Two Injured.

WASHINGTON, April 29.—The Cincinnati express train which left Washington at 8:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon ran into freight train at 4:40 p. m. about twentyfive miles west of Washington on the Metropolitan branch of the Baltimore and Ohio road.

Engineers Elliott and Groff, Fireman Murphy of the freight and Postal Clerk Burdett were killed.

Postal Clerk Heacock and Fireman Miller of the express were seriously hurt. None of the passengers was seriously in-The scene of the accident was at a port curve where the express, which was run ning at the rate of about forty miles an hour, found the freight train on the main track taking water. Engineer Elliott of the express train reversed his engine and applied the brakes, but he could not break the speed of his train before the crash came. The forward cars of both trains left the track, but none of the coaches were derailed.

The postal and baggage cars and one coach of the express train and two freight cars took fire from the furnaces of the engines and were burned up.

All of the killed and injured lived in Baltimore. All through trains for the west were sent from Baltimore and Washington over the main stem, via Relay House and Washington Junction so that there is little or no interruption to through traffic.

The distance of 2,500 miles can be made in four days.

Ground Broken for the Monument. NEW YORK, April 28.—Thousands of people assembled in Riverside park yesterday to witness the ceremonies attending the breaking of ground for the erection of a monument to the late Gen. Grant. Yesterday was the 69th anniversary of the birth of Gen. Grant and was therefore selected by the Grant Monument association as the most appropriate occasion for the ceremonies. There was a large attendance of prominent army men. The members of the Grant family were seated on a raised platform, including Miss Nellie Sartoris, nee Grant, who recently arrived from England. The ceremonies were impressive and passed off without accident.

A Disastrous Fire.

UTICA, N. Y., April 28.—At 11:30 o'clock last evening a disastrous fire broke out in the village of Forestport, in the northern part of Oneida county. The flames first appeared in the Sherman house, which was quickly destroyed. Several dwelling laws of 1886, entitled 'An act to prevent houses and stores adjoining were soon en- extortion by railroad companies." veloped in the blaze, and the people of the village became panic stricken. The total destruction of the place seems imminent. At 1 a. m. the fire shows no signs, of abatement. Fully twenty-five dwellings have already been destroyed. Help has been sent from the surrounding towns. It is impossible at this hour to estimate the loss.

HIS LIABILITIES SAID TO BE OVER $2,000,000.

He Has Not Been Seen Around the Board of Trade for Several Days and His Absence Causes Alarm - Some Think He May Have Become Despondent and Committed Spicide—His Son's Opinion.

CHICAGO, April 30.—B. P. Hutchinson. the wheat speculator, has been missing since Tuesday night, when he told a friend he would never be seen again. He has been regarded as insane for some time. He has many open trades, and the market was somewhat disturbed yesterday by rumors connected with his disappearance. Mr. Hutchinson's liabilities are placed at $2,000,000 to $3,000,000, but his friends are satisfied that his assets will more than meet his obligations. A valuable clue to the speculator's whereabouts was ob-Chicago and Eastern Illinois road. According to it Mr. Hutchinson is, it is fair to presume, on his way to Florida. The ticket agent says that Mr. Hutchinson at 11 o'clock Tuesday night inquired of him the price of a ticket to Pensacola. The agent asked, "Round trip!"

"No," replied Mr. Hutchinson, "I don't want to come back." The ticket was $22. Mr. Hutchinson took out a roll of bills. handed the agent $27, took the ticket and didn't wait for the change. The agent said Mr. Hutchinson was slightly under the influence of liquor.

Late yesterday afternoon Isaac Hutchinson, a young son of the veteran speculator, admitted that his father had suspended business, but said he would be able to pay dollar for dollar. He did not think his father would ever resume busi-

"What is the amount of his outstanding accounts?"

"Some two and one-half millions of dollars in open trades alone. I wish to state here that my brother, C. L. Hutchinson, had had no business relations with father for the last five years. The affairs of his bank, the Corn Exchange, will not be affected in the least by my father's downfall. Some time ago we came to the conclusion that father was demented and we thought of taking his business affairs out of his hands and having a conservator appointed, but we were advised to abandon this intention. Father has been on the our atmost to keep the fact from the

"Do you think your father has committed suicide?" "No, I do not. I think that we will hear from him soon." "It is rumored about the board that your father has lost over $5,000,000 during the past two years, and he has made but little money. Is this true?" "Father has lost heavily and won little, but I do not think it is as bad as that. The greater part of his fortune has disappeared, but he will not be entirely penni-

Late yesterday afternoon C. L. Hutchinson went to his father's office and aided in adjusting the business, and when the clerks went home at 7 o'clock everything of importance had been settled. Isaac Hutchinson said that about $50,000 was required in the settlement, and that his father's checks would probably go through the board of trade clearing house. "It's a failure," he said, "but it won't be felt in the market,
