Charity Ladies Slate Meetings

Meetings scheduled for next week by the Ladies of Charity have been announced by Mrs. Vincent Link, publicity chairman, as follows:

EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

The Executive Council of the Ladies of Charity will be held Wednesday, Dec. 3, at 312 Lake St. at 8 p.m., conducted by Mrs. James B. Walsh, president.

The chairmen of the committee of the Ladies of Charity will announce their individual committees Christmas projects pertaining to "Putting Christ Back Into Christmas."

The executive officers attending will be Miss Mary FitzGerald, executive director; Mrs. Geraldine Moran, vice president; Miss Eleanor Collins, secretary; Mrs. Thomas R. Sullivan, assistant secretary; Mrs. Francis D. Preston, executive treasurer; Miss Lauretta Bisky, assistant treasurer, and Rev. Eubert A. Bisky, moderator.

GUARDIAN ANGEL

The Guardian Angel Committee of the Ladies of Charity will meet Dec. 3, at 7:30 p.m. at the residence of Mrs. Lee R. McLane.

The members will spend the evening repairing toys for Christmas. The needy children receiving them are selected by Catholic Family Service. Used-like-new toys will be welcomed by the committee. Donations will be accepted by calling Miss Genevieve Mezur, RE 2-6776.

ST. LOUISE DE MARILLAC

The St. Louise de Marillac Committee of the Ladies of Charity will hold their Christmas dinner and meeting at 6:30 p.m., Thursday, Dec. 3 at Mustico's Restaurant.

Each member is bringing a gift for a teen-ager and a delicacy for the Dominican nuns.

The chairman is Mrs. Ross F. Quatrano and Miss Joan Arnold is in charge of decorations.

Their Christmas project is bringing a week's supply of groceries for a family recommended by Catholic Family Service. Mrs. John M. Di Stefano and Mrs. Joseph S. Manzari are chairmen.

The committee is selling Kathryn Beich candy and homemade candy. The proceeds will aid the committee in their yearly project of sending teen-age girls on spiritual retreats to the Sacred Heart Convent in Rochester.

The girls are recommended by local parish priests and Catholic schools based on their achievements as an outstanding Catholic girl. Thirty girls were sent last June. Orders for the candy can be taken by calling Mrs. Timothey J. Reidy, RE 2-9632.

Mothers Club Plans Party

Auburn — The Mothers Club of St. Mary's Parish will hold its December Meeting Wednesday, Dec. 2 at 8:00 p.m. in Lyceum Hall. At this meeting the Christmas Party will be held. The Priests and Nuns of the Parish will be guests and Santa Claus will be present to distribute the gifts.

Mrs. Edward Burkhardt assisted by the third and fourth grade mothers is in charge of the arrangements. Each member is asked to bring a gift costing fifty cents for exchange. Refreshments will be served.

The Mothers Club is also sponsoring the Christmas Party for the School children of the Parish and this will take place on Friday, Dec. 18th.

Pastor Presented Check By Group In Seneca Falls

Seneca Falls — Rev. John P. O'Beirne, pastor of St. Patrick's Church was presented with a check for $725 by Mrs. Anthony Barbieri, president of the St. Patrick's Guild and Altar Society at their annual banquet at the Gould Hotel.

Mrs. Thomas Bevins, toastmistress, presented Mrs. Barbieri a gift of a necklace and missal in appreciation for her leadership in the past year. Mrs. Barbieri is now serving her second year as president.

Invocation was given by Rev. John P. O'Beirne who thanked the members for their work in the past year and wished the new officers the same good fortune they had before.

REV. JOHN B. Kleintjes, assistant pastor of St. Patrick's Church announced a Communion and Breakfast for the students at the Mynderse Academy High School.

Mrs. Bevins introduced the guests and turned program over to Sister M. Aloysius and Sister M. Zita of the Medical Missionaries of Mary. Sister Aloysius explained how their Order was started and then showed a film on their work in the dark of Africa. Mrs. Bevins presented the Sisters with a check for $100 from the Guild and Altar Society to help them carry out their work. They were also presented with a bouquet of red roses from a member, Mrs. Dorginic Nicholucci.

New K. of C. Alaska Council

Anchorage — (NC) — A new Knights of Columbus Council has been organized here.

At the council's first rite the first degree was exemplified for 125 candidates. Participating in the ceremonies were 60 members who will be transferred to the new council. The council has selected the name Our Lady of the Snow.

Memorial Mass Offered For H.R. Knights

The Annual Memorial Mass and Corporate Communion of Knights of St. John Commandery 106 and Ladies Auxiliary 262 was celebrated in Holy Rosary Church, Sunday, Nov. 22 at 9 a.m.

Uniformed and non-uniformed members of the Commandery and Auxiliary marched to the church and occupied the center aisle at the Mass. Servers at the altar were Commandery President A. D. C. Vernon Hart and Patrick O'Connor. Present in the sanctuary was the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Charles F. Shay, permanent Commandery chaplain. Preceeding the Mass, a nine day vigil light was lighted at a memento to the deceased members of both organizations for whom the Mass was offered.

Following Mass a Communion breakfast was held in the school where brief remarks were heard from Reverend Fathers James Doyle and Leo Mans, Commandery and Auxiliary presidents Vernon Hart and Margaret Hull and A.D.C. Charles Keller. Seated at the speakers table were members of the families of deceased members.

Committees included Assistant Chief of Staff R. Albert Scranton as chairman assisted by Commander Clarence Weist, Sir Knights Casey Nowak and Lawrence DeLong, Helen Weist, Betty Ernst, Agnes Nowak, Anne Scranton, Ruth Hayes and Mae Bell Keller.

Parish 'Of Brave Traditions' Cited

the rite included the now Auxiliary Bishop Lawrence B. Casey, Monsignor George Eckl of Rochester, Monsignor William Byrne of Ithaca and Franciscan Father Jerome Holubowicz of Auburn.

Father Frederick L. Walz, present pastor, counts 108 families in his Ludlowville parish, an estimated 20 per cent of the area's total population. These families represent at least 14 nationalities, he said.

Parish records date from the opening of the first permanent chapel in 1913 and list a total of 397 Baptisms, 444 First Communions, 399 Confirmations, 126 Marriages and 65 Deaths.

The parish has an active Rosary Society and Holy Name Society and a well organized catechetical program for children attending public schools.

Although Father Walz is also pastor of Our Lady of the Lake Church at King Ferry, where the rectory is located, he provides a "full parish program" at Ludlowville. Both groups "work well together when the need arises," Father Walz said, "but they have their own ideas and like to work independently too."

Recent years have seen new industries move into the area and "suburban Ithaca" is inching its way toward once little Ludlowville. This trend indicates the parish has a bright future as well as a heroic past.

Jesuit Advises Avoid Political Pressure In Birth Control Issue

Providence — (RNS) — Catholics should exert no political pressure regarding birth control legislation, a noted Jesuit theologian said here.

Father Gustave Weigel, S.J., professor of ecclesiology at Woodstock (Md.) College, expressed this as his personal view at an informal discussion of "Catholic and Protestant Relations Now" at Brown University.

THE REAL FRICTION between Catholics and Protestants over the birth control question, he said, comes from social and civic pressures Catholics bring on legislation. He said that "trying to make their version of things the norm for the whole community" is a "political error" of the Catholic group.

If a Catholic "wants to be a good Catholic" and live up to the Church's teachings on birth control, Father Weigel said, "let him do so, and let him allow his neighbor to practice chastity as he thinks it should be."

Pontiff Boosts Unity Octave

Garrison — (RNS) — The Very Rev. Angelus F. Delahunt, S.A. (center), Superior General of the Franciscan Friars of the Atonement, shows Father Edward Hanahoe, S.A. (left) a letter received from Pope John XXIII urging that the Chair of Unity Octave be observed as widely as possible. Looking on is Father Jerome Gallagher, S.A. During the Octave, which is observed annually by Catholics throughout the world from Jan. 18-25, prayers are offered for religious unity.

Bachelor's Million Aids Nuns

Hanford, Calif. — (NC) — Most of the $1,300,000 estate of a wealthy bachelor who died last month has been left to the Dominican Sisters for the construction of a wing on Sacred Heart Hospital here.

William L. Scally, of Lemoore, Calif., died September 15 at the age of 79. He did not have any known relatives.

With the exception of several bequests totaling about $50,000, Mr. Scally left his estate to the Sisters. About half of the estate is in cash and the rest is real estate.

Mr. Scally, a University of Santa Clara alumnus, operated a store in Lemoore until 1937, when he retired to manage his land holdings. His last known relative was a nephew who was killed in an automobile accident in 1951.

Sacred Heart Hospital has planned for a new wing to be added to its present hospital, but lacked the funds to acquire the property necessary. Plans to build a completely new hospital at another site were dropped last year.

Book-Tea Attracts 100 To Owego Parish Hall

Owego — More than a hundred parishioners, and their guests, attended the Book-tea, sponsored by the Rosary and Altar Society of St. Patrick's parish, Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Homer Rutherford and Miss Genevieve Heffron were in charge with Mrs. Carlton Oliver acting as chairman of the committee in charge of refreshments, Mrs. Harold Newcomb and Mrs. Marie Gorman poured.

An outstanding display of books, both religious and secular was exhibited, with special emphasis being on children's books. Many of the boys were sold and scores of orders were taken for future delivery.

A candy booth, under the supervision of Mrs. Frank McGovern, Mrs. Emery Mullen and Miss Mary Cannon, was another attraction. St. Patrick's Glee Club, which was organized last year by the Rev. Michael L. Reagan, assistant pastor, sang several selections. The glee club is directed by John Davye, director of vocal music in the senior high school of the Owego-Apalachin School district.

NEW YOUTH CLUB

Owego — A new club was formed in St. Patrick's School, according to the latest edition of "The Shomrock," the official school paper.

The new club to be known as the Knights and Handmaids of the Blessed Sacrament" has for its main objective, to encourage weekly reception of Holy Communion.

Peter Gillette is the president and Diane Dwyer is vice-president. Arlene Denijs is secretary.

Shrine Director Visits Newark

The director of the world famous Shrine of St. Anne de Beaupre visited Newark where 145 prospective pilgrims heard him describe the Quebec devotional center.

Rev. Eugene Lefebvre, C.SS.R., also showed latest pictures of the shrine.

Attending the dinner-program were people from nearby towns as well as Newark, according to Mrs. Cyrille DeRycke, organizer for the past eight years of trips to St. Anne's.

Corning Weddings

Corning—St. Mary's Church was the scene at 10 a.m. last Saturday for the wedding of Miss Theresa Ann Palmieri and Darrell L. VanEtten. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Palmieri and her husband the son of Mr. and Mrs. Maynard VanEtten of Gorton Road.

The Rev. James Malley, assistant pastor of St. Mary's, performed the double ring ceremony.

Traditional wedding music was played by Mrs. Joseph Clancy. Miss Rosalie DeMember of Elmira, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor.

The bridesmaids were: Miss Jacqueline Colacecchi, Miss Diane Bavisotto, Miss Mae Van Etten and Diane Looms, all of Corning. Miss Jo-Ellen Pilla of Elmira, cousin of the bride, and Miss Kathleen Van Etten, sister of the bridegroom, were junior bridesmaids. They carried bouquets of bronze mums.

The bridegroom was attended by Gerald Fish, a cousin. Seating guests at the church were: Donald Van Etten, Larry Formar, William Woodruff and Douglas Van Etten, all of Corning.
