New Head For Hospital Unit

Mrs. Stephen J. Karpinski, right, newly elected president of the Mercy Hospital Auxiliary as she is presented the gavel by Mrs. Thomas D. Stapleton, left, retiring president, at the annual dinner meeting of the organization held at the Auburn Inn Tuesday, Jan. 26. Center is Very Rev. Msgr. Donald M. Cleary, Catholic Chaplain at Cornell University, guest speaker.

Funeral Rites Held For St. Joseph Nuns

First rites for two Sisters of St. Joseph were held at the Nazareth Motherhouse, Pittsford, this week.

Sister M. Marciana O'Hora, first principal of Sacred Heart Cathedral school and 15 years a teacher at Immaculate Conception school, Rochester, Monday following solemn Mass celebrated by Very Rev. Msgr. Richard Quinn.

A cousin, Michael Conboy, student at St. Bernard's Seminary, was subdeacon. Deacon of the Mass was Rev. Robert Egan. Monsignor Jseph Gefell and Rev. Albert Schnacky gave the blessing at the grave in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery.

Sister Marciana entered the order in 1899 and served at old St. Patrick's Cathedral school prior to her assignment to Sacred Heart. Illness forced her retirement in 1937.

Surviving are a brother, William; two sisters, Mrs. Margaret Mason and Mrs. Walter Morey, all of Auburn.

Sister M. Georgina Lannan's funeral was held Tuesday with Father William Shannon offering the Requiem Mass. He was assisted by Rev. Edward Shamon and Rev. John Coonan. Monsignor Joseph Gefell and Father Albert Schnacky gave the blessing at the grave in Holy Sepulchre cemetery.

Sister Georgina entered the convent in 1901. She taught in Rochester, Geneva, Auburn schools and at Nazareth Academy.

She is survived by two sisters, Misses Angelina and Lucy Lannan of Prince Edward Island.

Brownie Rite Held In Auburn

Auburn—Brownies of Troop 93 "flew" to Girl Scouts in a ceremony held at Falcon Hall on Sunday, Jan. 31.

The Rev. Edward Kurdziel addressed the troop and blessed scout pins which later were pinned on the girls by Mrs. Leo Kukiela.

The following leaders were also presented with pins: Miss Mary Pelo, Mrs. Michael Zimmer, Mrs. Walter Dec.

A SHORT dramatization was performed by the troop on incidents in the life of Juliette Low. After the ceremony, parents and scouts were entertained at a reception served by troop committee: Mrs. Joseph Koziol, Mrs. Edward C. Kosowski, assisted by Mrs. Raymond Wilson and Mrs. Mary Sliwa.

St. Hyacinth's School organized their girl scout troops in March 1959. At present there are four troops with a membership of 66 girls.

HOSPITAL AIDES at St. Mary's were honored for service by (from left) Mrs. Frederick C. Moser, chairman of the Women's Board; Dr. Helen Nowlis, speaker; Sister Teresa, administraitor of St. Mary's Hospital; and Mrs. Francis H. McConville, chairman of Volunteer Service Committee.

Reception, Awards Given Volunteers At St. Mary's

The volunteer aides of St. Mary's Hospital were feted at a reception and tea on Saturday, Jan. 30 given in their honor by Sister Teresa, hospital administrator, assisted by members of the Women's Board.

Preceding the tea, Mrs. Frederick C. Moser, chairman of the Board, led the volunteers in a renewal of their pledge of service, following which stars and stripes were awarded by Sister Teresa, assisted by Miss Marie Lanigan, director of volunteer aides, to those completing a required number of hours of service.

Highlighting the afternoon program, at which Mrs. Francis H. McConville, chairman of the Volunteer Service Committee of the Board, presided was an address by Dr. Helen Nowlis, visiting research professor of psychology at the University of Rochester. She spoke on "The Value of the Volunteer to the Hospital."

Pins representing years of service were awarded to Mrs. Walter Knapp for 20 years; Miss Eleanor Gleason and Mrs. William Woodruff for 15 years; and to Miss Margaret Helmdl, Miss Winifred Kelly, Mrs. Frederick C. Moser, Mrs. Timothy Murphy, and Mrs. Lucian Woodruff for ten years.

THE FOLLOWING were cited for having given the highest number of hours in their respective services: Admitting aides, Mrs. Joseph Wanamaker (also for perfect attendance); evening aides, Miss Marie Morgan; flower aides, Mrs. Eugene McCarthy; hostess aides, Mrs. Emmett Brennan; library, Mrs. William Magovern; gift shop, Mrs. Gordon Reitz; mail, Miss Dorothy Haggerty; office, Mrs. Joseph Mahoney; Saturday and Sunday aides, Miss Laura Wehnert; surgical and blood bank, Mrs. Raymond Neary; and the Babies' Alumni service, Miss Marion Hart.

Mrs. Frank P. Toolan, who organized the evening service in 1934 and who has received an award for service each year for 25 years, was given honorable mention and her fifth star.

Presiding at the tea tables were the Mesdames Moser, Toolan, Harry B. Crowley, Joseph M. Murray, Leo F. Simpson Sr., Kendall Castle, Charles Seufert.

5th Column Ideas Hit

Auburn—The Very Rev. Msgr. Donald M. Cleary, moderator of the Newman Club of Cornell University, as guest speaker at the annual dinner meeting of the Mercy Hospital Auxiliary declared that there is a fifth column militating against the American way of life, not a communist fifth column, but rather one of insidious ideas.

Listing three manifestations of this fifth column Msgr. Cleary spoke first of the fifth column in the educational system and prefaced his remarks by emphasizing that he was not making an attack on the public schools of the nation. The speaker deplored the divorcing of religious values from education and then went on to point out that this task has a deteriorating effect on all phases of life.

THE SECOND prong of the fifth column Msgr. Cleary listed as neo-pantheism, the predominating tenet of which seems to be that the 'sum total of life is God; therefore we make God out of humanity and say humanity is God.' This he condemned.

The third danger and the one he termed "dangerous because insidious" is the corruption of the concept of the family. He concluded by stating that, when the historian of the future writes, he must say that the one organization which saved civilization during the 20th Century was the Catholic Church because it upheld the sanctity of the family."

Mrs. Stephen J. Karpinski was elected president to succeed Mrs. Thomas D. Stapleton outgoing president. Other newly elected officers are Mrs. Thomas L. Ditton, first vice president; Mrs. Herbert T. Anderson, second vice president; Mrs. William T. McCarthy, financial secretary; Mrs. W. Parnell Maloney, recording secretary, and Mrs. William F. Foster, treasurer.

Mrs. George A. Snyder was chairman of the nominating committee; Mrs. Ditton, toastmaster; Mrs. Thomas J. Cotter and Mrs. David H. Nangle, dinner co-chairmen.

THE REV. CLARENCE GARDNER, chaplain to the Sisters at Mercy Hospital spoke briefly in appreciation of the work done by the Auxiliary. On behalf of Sister Joan Alice, O.S.F., administrator, Father Gardner presented Mrs. Stapleton with a gift.

Upon her election Mrs. Karpinski was presented a large bouquet of roses by Francis J. Gormley, president of the Board of Mercy Hospital, who spoke in appreciation of the Auxiliary work.

Parish Dance To Benefit Students Of St. Mary's

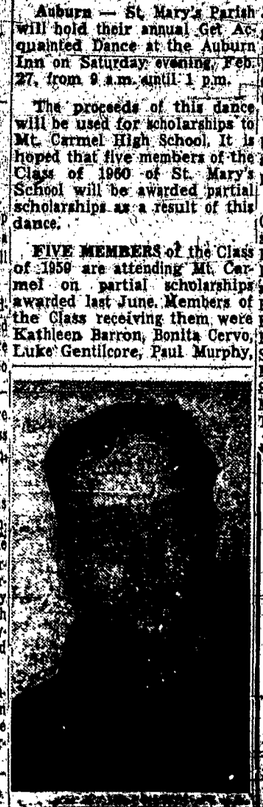
Auburn — St. Mary's Parish will hold their annual Get Acquainted Dance at the Auburn Inn on Saturday evening, Feb. 27, from 9 a.m. until 1 p.m.

The proceeds of this dance will be used for scholarships to Mt. Carmel High School. It is hoped that five members of the Class of 1960 of St. Mary's School will be awarded partial scholarships as a result of this dance.

FIVE MEMBERS of the Class of 1959 are attending Mt. Carmel on partial scholarships awarded last June. Members of the Class receiving them were Kathleen Barron, Bonita Cervo, Luke Gentilcore, Paul Murphy, John Walsh. These boys and girls received a partial scholarship for four years and it is hoped that five members of the Class of 1960 will be awarded the same type of scholarship.

Scholarship Envelopes have been mailed to the parishioners and may be returned anytime prior to Feb. 27.

MEMBERS OF the Dance Committee are: Fred Armstrong, George Ambrose, Martin Byrne, Metro Durvetsky, Frantz Douglas, Anthony Talamo, Michael Giannone, Raymond Clancy, Philip J. Conboy, Mrs. James Kenny, Mrs. Max Newert, Mrs. Robert Rhodes, Mrs. James Suee, Miss Antoinette Zibbon, Mrs. William Lane, Mrs. Charles Stubbs, Mrs. William Cornell, Mrs. Thomas Ditton and Mrs. Thomas Ferguson.



To Lecture

Famed author and lecturer, the Rev. Alan Keenan, O.F.M., will speak at Nazareth College on Thursday, Feb. 11 at 2:15 p.m. His lecture is entitled "Neuroses and Sacraments." The public is invited.
