

LOCAL HAPPENINGS.

Miss Mamie Snyder, of Syracuse, is spending a few days in the city.

St. Patrick's school nine has defeated the Rochester Juniors, 9 to 0. The collection for the Holy Father will be taken up in St. Mary's church to-morrow.

Wm. Purcell and Walter B. Duffy sail for Europe on the Normania June 4th.

C. J. Iven has been elected a director of the Fourteenth Ward Loan Association.

The executive committee of the State Associated Press held a meeting in this city Wednesday.

To-morrow a large class will receive First Communion at the Immaculate Conception church.

Doctors Leonard J. Somers and James H. Finney have been elected members of the Monroe County Medical Society.

Edward McSweeney, of New York, formerly of Rochester, is spending his vacation with his relatives in the Flower City.

The "Catholic Literary" will hold its closing meeting of the season Monday evening in the C. B. L. rooms, Durand block, and will open with quotations on "Man."

The closing meeting of the Cathedral Literary Club was held on the evening of May 21. An interesting programme was rendered, which was supplemented by an entertaining address from Rev. J. J. Hartley.

A very pleasing musicale was given at Nazareth Convent Wednesday evening of last week. Vicar-General O'Hare made a short address, complimenting those who took part in the admirable programme rendered.

Bishop McQuaid conferred the order of exorcist and acolyte on John McMahon, and the order of tonsure on Malachy J. Garvey, both of this diocese, last Saturday at the spring ordinations in St. Joseph's Seminary, Troy.

A JOURNAL representative had the pleasure of a trip through the splendid carriage factory of Sullivan Bros., in Brighton, one day last week. This establishment is a credit to the growing village of Brighton.

A grand musicale was given by the pupils of Mrs. J. L. Vogt, at Odd Fellows' Hall last Wednesday evening. Among the pupils who took part were Ope and Minnie Thompson, Eugene, Amelia and Cora Vogt, Minnie Kane and Julia Siebert.

Wm. Yawman and Miss Bridget Connelly, both of this city, were married at the Immaculate Conception church Monday, May 25, by Rev. Dr. James F. O'Hare, D. D. James Yawman, brother of the groom, and Marie Curran, cousin of the bride, were the attendants at the altar.

Father M. Alban is the guest of Bishop McQuaid. Father Alban is a Trappist Father from Montreal. The rules of this order are very strict. Their life is one of almost perpetual silence, and they eat but one meal a day—at 2 p. m. They rise at 2 o'clock in the morning and hear mass at 4 a. m. They then retire for meditation and partake of their sole meal at the hour above named.

The death list since our last issue includes John C. Kress, aged 77 yrs., of 234 Seio street, whose funeral was held from St. Joseph's church Sunday; Nicholas O'Neill, of Coldwater, aged 37 yrs., funeral from the Cathedral last Tuesday; Mrs. Margaret Beach, of 17 Champlain street, aged 48 yrs., funeral from the Immaculate Conception, last Wednesday; Mary A., wife of Edw. Nolan, of 442 State street, aged 84 years.

A successful May party was given last evening in St. Bridget's school house under the auspices of the Aid Society. The entertainment was three fold in character, and consisted of a concert, supper and social. Among the soloists were Misses Julia O'Connor, Hattie Stone, Julia Madden, Messrs. Doran and Sweeney. Misses J. B. Preston and Aggie Madden gave instrumental solos.

Saturday, May 16th, Miss Grace Emma Mary Robinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Robinson, was baptized in Nazareth Convent Chapel by Rev. John G. Van Ness, spiritual director of the convent. Last Sunday at 7 a. m. Miss Robinson received First Communion at the hands of Rev. J. J. Hanna, D. D. To-morrow afternoon Miss Robinson and Miss Margaret de Kappelle, also a pupil of the Academy, will be confirmed by Bishop McQuaid.

W. C. Barry is one of the most active and level-headed members of the Park Commission. At Monday's meeting he protested against the present unsightly condition of Highland Park and urged the board to take suitable steps to at once place it in proper shape. Mr. Barry is right. Less pains have been taken on Highland park, the only one of the projected system that is within easy access, than on those remaining half a day or more to be completed. It is a shame too.

Among the speakers at the Free Academy commencement exercises, June 25 and 26, are Elizabeth O'Connor, Hugh O'Brien, Michael Casey and Austin Craig.

Gladys T., infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. O'Reilly, died at the family residence in Utica on Monday, aged 19 months. The remains were brought here Tuesday morning for interment. The deceased was a granddaughter of Bernard O'Reilly, of this city.

IN MEMORIAM.

At the regular weekly meeting, held Wednesday in St. Mary's Hospital, the following memorial was recorded on the minutes of the Perpetual Help Society:

The ladies of the Perpetual Help Society feel that in the death of Mrs. Frances Rogers Burroughs, they have lost a most efficient and valuable member. The memory of her beautiful character, and of the earnestness and zeal which she brought to the performance of every good work in which she was engaged will long remain enshrined in their hearts.

They desire to express their sincere sorrow for her early demise, as also to tender their heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved husband and family.

Mrs. K. C. MAHON,
Mrs. J. C. O'BRIEN,
Mrs. JOHN FAHY,
Mrs. JAMES FEE,
Miss JULIA COX

DIOCESAN NEWS.

Auburn.

John F. Marigson, an employee of the Empire Wringer Co., had the fingers of his right hand badly cut one day last week, while at work on a planer. He will enjoy an enforced vacation for a few weeks, but otherwise his injuries are not serious.

Another large meeting was held in the basement of St. Mary's church last Sunday in the interest of the rapidly approaching fair. The amusement committee made a very satisfactory report. They are going to furnish some very fine entertainments every night of the fair. The different booths will be looked after and worked for by Temperance Union, Young Ladies' Society, French people, and the Rosary and Scapular Society. All are striving to come out ahead.

In years gone by the young ladies have always carried away the honors, but this year the temperance boys, with Father McGrath at their head, are determined to outdo them, and present indications point to a very hard struggle between them. But some of the other booths may eclipse both if they are not careful. Mr. Thomas McConnell, the dry goods merchant, will furnish all trimmings for the Temperance table, and Wm. B. Bishop & Co. will furnish decorations and decorate the Genesee Opera house, where the fair is to be held. The fair opens next Thursday, and to get an idea of its magnitude and magnificence one will have to visit it.

Rev. Father Ruby, of the Holy Family church, will take the place of Father Morin, who left for Denver, Col., Tuesday morning.

Genesee.

Martin O'Meara was in Allegheny City, Pa. this week.

Ed. O'Brien and wife are rejoicing over the advent of a little girl, born last week.

While Michael Landers and daughter were driving to church Sunday last, a dog frightened the horse, which began to run. The occupants were thrown out, but not seriously injured.

Livonia.

There is a number of Kickapoo Indians camped in the north part of the village.

Eugene Anness is able to be out again after a severe attack of throat and lung difficulty.

Patk. Gray made his friends a visit last Sunday.

A. Lefever and wife, of Chicago, made his parents a short visit this week.

The Extinguisher company received their new uniforms from New York Thursday.

Clyde.

The Catholic Benevolent Legion have been improving their rooms, and have greatly added to their attractiveness by placing therein a fine set of new furniture.

The death of Wm. Lavancher occurred at his home in this village Wednesday morning, May 20th, after a brief illness. Funeral services were held at St. John's church, Friday morning at 10 o'clock, Rev. Father Gleason officiating.

Jas. Winters, of Syracuse, is spending a few days with his parents.

Mrs. T. C. Kiggins has returned from London, Ont.

DANIEL CURRAN.

Daniel Curran died Tuesday at his residence, 317 Spring street. The deceased was an old and respected resident of Rochester, and the father of Rev. D. J. Curran, of Churchville.

The funeral took place yesterday morning from the Cathedral and was largely attended. Bishop McQuaid occupied his throne. Solemn requiem mass was celebrated by the son of the deceased, Rev. D. J. Curran of Churchville with Revs. J. E. and J. J. Hartley, deacon and sub-deacon. Fathers Stewart, Oberholzer, O'Hanlon, Szadinski, O'Loughlin, Quinn, Murphy, Ege, M. J. Cloney of Honeye Falls, P. F. Dunphy and Frank O'Donoghue, C. M., of Philadelphia, Hendrick of Livonia and many other priests occupied seats in the sanctuary. Solemn and impressive music was furnished by the choir. The bearers were: D. O. Feeley, Owen McCabe, Hugh Devitt, R. H. Quinn, Francis Lyndon and Patrick Egan. R. I. P.

Base Ball.

We are indebted to Mr. C. A. Leimgruber for several of his handy pocket schedules. It is the best and cheapest schedule published. To those interested in base ball it is just the thing; small, neat and compact. Any one wishing a copy can procure one for the nominal sum of ten cents by addressing C. A. Leimgruber, 16 Exchange Place.

The Letter Carriers will picnic at Glen Haven to-day. A game of base ball between Buffalo and Rochester carriers is announced as one of the events. It is expected that a large crowd from Buffalo will accompany the carriers.

This morning the Rochesterers play in Buffalo and this afternoon the Buffaloes play at Culver park. There will probably be a large crowd at the game as the Rochesterers play away from home for about three weeks in June.

MONEY SAVED IS MONEY EARNED

In Buying Coal Remember this Maxim, and You Will Reap the Benefit.

Reader, did you ever reflect upon the amount of money spent by the average housekeeper for coal during the year? Few are the families who buy less than six tons annually, and many, indeed, we may say the majority of families, use a much larger amount. The quantity, too, depends in a great measure upon the quality purchased. If out of every ton, a large portion has to be thrown away as worthless, it takes but a short time to lose several dollars, which might have been saved had the coal been dry and free from dust and dirt. Where to get good coal is the next question that presents itself. Last week we referred to the model coal yard of Gen. Engert & Co. at 306 Exchange street. The arrangements in this yard are so perfect that the coal is always kept clean and dry, and those patronizing this long established firm get 2,000 pounds of COAL, without any waste whatever. The down town office of Engert & Co. is at McSweeney's cigar store, cor. Main and St. Paul streets. Telephone, 257 A. Mail orders promptly attended to.

Bound for Glen Haven. That is the great number of people who seek a quiet, pleasant resort to spend a day's vacation are bound for that place. Special pains have been taken to insure the enjoyment of those visiting the Glen on Memorial Day, ball games, etc., having been arranged for. For those desiring a good day's fishing, Glen Haven has better inducements to offer than any resort in this vicinity. The first and second Saturdays in June have been set apart for the school children, and on that day the fare for the little ones will be but five cents. All excursion parties will be well taken care of, and due precautions taken as to the safety of all visitors. The East Main street cars pass the depot of the Glen Haven R. R. Co. All arrangements for excursions can be made by addressing A. F. Raveret, excursion agent Glen Haven R. R. Co., 18 West Main St. (Powers' Bldg.) Telephone, 673.
