Win 40 Passes

By RAY SMITH

Yes, you've read it right. We're having another contest and this time it's for everyone. No box tops and no coupons. The only thing needed is a postcard or letter and a good guess.

Through the kindness of four downtown Theatres—The Palace, Paramount, Loews, and Regent we have 10 passes from each giving us a grand prize of 40. (I always did well in arithmetic). Only one winner—so it's an ill or nothing contest. Now, how do you win?

On Monday, April 4, all eyes will be on Hollywood as it is the fabulous Academy Award night. So here is where you guess. The winner will have to have four correct answers—1. the best picture; 2. best actor; 3. best actress; 4. best song. Everyone will KNOW the answers to these questions on April 4 when the Academy Awards are given for these categories as well as for many others. But, "Watching the Screen" wants to have this information by March 31.

HERE IS your chance to win all these passes and, by the way, they are good until the first of July. We want to give you enough time to use all of them. Remember, this contest is for EVERYONE, adults and children.

All letters or postcards should be addressed to RAY SMITH "WATCHING THE SCREEN," 35 SCIO STREET, ROCHESTER, N. Y. Any letters received after March 31st will not be considered. There will be only one winner who must be correct in the above categories. Several entries may be sent by the same person as long as they are on separate pieces of mail. In case of a tie, the letter bearing the earliest postmark will be judged the winner. The decision of the judges will be final and no entries will be returned. The winner will be named in this column and will receive the grand prize by mail.

So before the big day on April 4 (no, I'm not talking about my sister's birthday which is that day), send me your four guesses. Who knows, the winner might be YOU. It only takes a postcard and a trip to Uncle Sam's mailbox. Let's hear from you.

THE CIRCUS is still in town at the Palace Theatre with "TOBY TYLER" giving the WHOLE FAMILY wonderful entertainment which is thoroughly enjoyable for adults and kids. Let's show what we think about such wholesome movies and be sure to see this Disney film.

NEEDLESS TO say, "Suddenly, Last Summer" should have been shown in that season when we were all away on vacation. It's coming to the Loew's Theatre. Too bad it had to stop here. Enough said?

ELMIRA — Detroit hoodlumism is the theme for ADULTS ONLY at the Elmira Theatre in "THE PURPLE GANG." The much - talked - about pushed - wrong-bomb-button movie "ON THE BEACH" is at the Colonial Theatre for ADULTS ONLY. It could happen here—or could it?

HORNELL — As the Majestic has a "B" movie starting Sunday (28), wait until Thursday when the Whole Family can see Mr. Magoo in "1001 ARBIAN NIGHTS."

'Miracle' Set In Auburn

"The Miracle" will be shown at Schine's Auburn Theatre starting Sunday, Feb. 28 as a benefit for the Mt. Carmel Ladies Club. Tickets are available from club members until Feb. 27.

Fatima Play Set March 4, 6

The school play at Our Lady of Mercy High School, "Our Lady of Fatima," has been postponed until Friday, March 4, and Sunday March 6 at 2:30 p.m. in the school auditorium.

The two-act drama by Dominican Father Urban Nagle, was originally scheduled for this weekend, Friday and Saturday, Feb. 26 and 27.

The Rev. Richard Tormey, chaplain at Mercy, will be the commentator for the play which is under the direction of Sister Mary Pius.

MALE TALENT from Aquinas and St. John Fisher College; grade schoolers from St. Joseph's, Penfield, St. James and St. Rita's, West Webster; and a cast of over 25 Mercy students will be seen in numerous settings.

These frequent scene shifts include settings for the churchyard at Fatima, the "sun" miracle, the Portuguese homes of the children, a jail scene and others.

Off The Record

The Bowery

By SUZANNE WIGG

Situated on the site of the infamous McGuirk's Suicide Hill at 207 Bowery, New York City, is one of the most unusual and entertaining spots in the country. It is called "Sammy's Bowery Follies." Here, the Bowery is the Bowery again. T-shirted waiters take orders and thoughtfully empty ash-trays on the bare wooden floor.

THE FOLLIES is a unique cabaret, the only one on the Bowery, featuring entertainment and entertainers who are "Real Gone." Their heyday was another day, around the turn of the century during the era of World War I and the rip-roaring twenties.

They've brought all the gusto of their time with them to the stage of Sammy's place and attract a most diverse crowd of nightclubbers. This is no gag. The folks in the show belt out a song he is rarely heard any more.

These are the Ziegfeld gals who live as original as they are legend. These are BOX Bowery characters, they are the entertainers of yesteryear who have kept going and have never lost the ability to put a song across.

THE GALS sing that they are only birds in gilded cages—and from chorus girls who are 60 or 70 years old this is different. The members of the cast, with their career histories, tell the story of show business for over fifty years. Veterans of stage, vaudevilles, silent films, the first talkies, radio and vaudeville. These people toured with the great stars of another day—Fannie Brice, W. C. Fields, Sophie Tucker, Eva Tanguay, Bert Wheeler and many others.

To the accompaniment of honky-tonk piano, banjo and drums these famous entertainers of yesteryear sing such songs as "The Bowery," "I've Got Rings On My Fingers," "I Want A Girl Just Like The Girl That married Dear Old Dad," "MacNamara's Band," "Good-bye My Lady Love" and many, many others.

This is a place one should visit in order to appreciate the complete nostalgic atmosphere of the smoked-filled cabaret. But if getting to New York is a bit of an inconvenience, one can still enjoy this evening of entertainment for $4.95 on Coral records.

Coral recorded a complete evening's show with all the wise-crack, crowd noise and "great" performances in this very unique gathering. One can almost smell the atmosphere while listening to the record. Here is a real collector's item—one which can be enjoyed for years to come.

EVERY ONCE in a while a movie sound track brings forth a theme or song which completely captivates the American audience. One of the most famous of these was "Picnic." It had an easyness, a nostalgic quality which was different, placid but exciting.

In the same vein Warner Brothers production of "A Summer Place" with score by Max Steiner has captured this same haunting essence. There has been no less than ten recordings of this lovely tune recorded in the past four months.

The popular version which is riding high on the charts is Columbia's recording by Percy Faith. This week, however, Dot label released an album by Billy Vaughn called "A Summer Place" which should stand up and be counted among the better recordings of today.

In this album Billy Vaughn has collected some of the most appealing themes from motion pictures, TV and Broadway and given them an entirely different Vaughn touch. There is a full complement of strings, woodwinds and brass to give these themes the "big treatment" they deserve.

Some of the famous themes collected together in the album are "A Summer Place," "Tammy," "Tracy's Theme," "Sayonara," "Climb Every Mountain," "Some Enchanted Evening" "The Three Penny Opera" and "Limelight."

MOMMY! . . . MOMMY! . . . MOMMY!
To mothers, that cry means that there's another cut, scratch, scrape, or burn. It also means she should get iodine—but she often doesn't, because iodine burns and stings, upsets youngsters. Here's good news. Science has discovered a new kind of iodine that stops infection but yet doesn't burn or sting. It's polyvinylpyrrolidone-iodine*, found only in BODINE'S ANTISEPTIC. Where other types of antiseptics may kill only 1, 2, or 3 types of germs, BODINE'S kills all types—even virus and fungus. And up to 40 times faster. Get painless ISODINE ANTISEPTIC.
