Greeting Card Called 'Indecent'

Auburn — Miss Loretta A. Donahue, president of the Ladies Auxiliary of Cayuga County, Order of Hibernians, is the recipient, together with all other Hiberian Auxiliary presidents, of a letter from the order's national vice president, calling attention to a St. Patrick's Day card which has been branded "indecent and anti-Irish."

THE HIBERNIANS have had excellent cooperation from Auburn merchants who removed the card from display upon request of the Auxiliary members. Published by the American Greeting Card Corp. of Cleveland, Ohio, the objectionable card is identified as "Molly" 25 T-2-20.

C.Y.O. Parish Basketball Leagues

By FRED BUTTACCIO

The basketball season is over! For some much joy. For others a little sorrow. Holy Cross won the grammar school white division championship. Immaculate took the grammar green division title. St. Monica's won their second straight high school southern division and St. John's of Greece captured the high school northern division championship in a playoff with St. Charles.

One of the most exciting games over the week saw St. John's of Greece come from ten points behind with under four minutes to play to win 43-42 over St. Charles, last years Diocesan champions.

Other playoff games this weekend found Sacred Heart winning over Blessed Sacrament in a cardiac finish 54-53, moving Sacred Heart into sole possession of second place and a tourney spot in the high school southern league. Our Lady of Lourdes nipped Blessed Sacrament 19-18 to grab second place in the grammar green division.

As this paper will be released Friday, the CYO tournament will get underway tonight with a doubleheader scheduled in three gyms. Holy Cross is considered favorites to win grammar championship with a little trouble from Mother of Sorrows or St. Michael's of Newark.

High school is a take your pick situation. St. Monica's, St. John's of Greece, Sacred Heart, St. Charles, St. Mary's (Canandaigua) could all go the route. Of course everybody knows my sentiments ! ! ! One last word before I bow out with this editorial genius of mine.

How's this for an ALL CYO High School team? Kevin Welling, St. Monica's; John Carey, Blessed Sacrament; John Best, Sacred Heart; Ray Dry, St. Charles; Harry Kelly, Our Lady Mercy. Honorable Mentions: Dick Graham, Jim Gaugle, Jerry Norton, J. Burgmaster, Pete Stahl, Ray Maloleprzy, Nick Vorrasi, Chuck Foran and Tom Nally. This is only my opinion and does not reflect the views of this paper or my employer C.Y.O. ! !
