

LOCAL HAPPENINGS.

Miss Mamie Snyder has returned to her home in Syracuse.

John O'Callaghan, of Geneva, spent Sunday at his home in this city.

The will of the late Edward Hanna was admitted to probate Monday.

W. Foster Kelly is engaged in drawing plans for several important ecclesiastical edifices in Kingston, Ont.

Thomas A. Smith has been elected president and a director of the Kellogg Homestead Association.

Bishop McQuaid confirmed a small class at the Sacred Heart convent, Tuesday morning.

The repairs and rebuilding of St. Mary's hospital are being pushed to completion as fast as possible.

The new soldiers' monument will be erected in the center of Washington park, directly opposite St. Mary's church.

Work on the addition to Nazareth convent on Jay street is progressing rapidly. Already the men are laboring on the chapel.

Father Pascual of St. Michaels, who is now in Europe, is expected home soon. He is much recuperated in health.

Bernard O'Reilly was in Saratoga this week attending the annual convention of the State Undertakers' Association.

Very Rev. James F. O'Hare, D. D., has been appointed spiritual advisor of Rochester Council, No. 207, C. B. L., by Bishop McQuaid.

Among the directors of the consolidated Rochester Athenaeum and Mechanics' Institute are Mrs. T. A. O'Hare and Mr. J. T. Cunningham.

At a musicale given by Miss Cowley, at 169 South Fitzhugh street Saturday evening, two numbers were furnished by Misses Anna and Julia Madden.

Rev. Fidelis C. Oberholzer of this city attended the services of rededication of St. Michael's Cathedral, Toronto, Sunday last. He acted as chaplain to Bishop McQuaid.

P. J. O'Reilly, of Utica, son of Bernard O'Reilly, and brother of Miles T. and Benj. O'Reilly, of this city, has been elected president of the New York State Undertakers' Association.

The new chapel at the Sacred Heart convent is rapidly nearing completion. The handsome stained glass windows are now being placed in position. It is expected the dedication will take place in the early part of July.

Rev. T. A. Hendrick of St. Bridget's church has had prepared a large ball ground for the boys and a lawn tennis ground for the young ladies of the parish. Such interest in the young parishioners cannot fail to bring them into close relationship with the church.

St. Bridget's Alumni will have an excursion and basket picnic at Cayuga Lake park, Seneca Falls, on Monday, June 29th. Music will be furnished by the Seneca Falls band. The committee of arrangements are as follows: T. J. Brady, C. T. Mertz, D. T. McCarthy, P. J. Dwyer, Miss Phoebe O'Rourke, Miss Josie Preston.

Soon the Nazareth hall on Lake avenue and its school for boys will be a thing of the past. The property having been bought by the Boulevard Lot association, which has cut it up into building lots, the Sisters will be obliged to remove to other quarters. Accordingly, next month the Sisters will take up their residence on Jay street and next fall their boys' school will be opened in the same place. Of course, the boys will naturally miss the lovely playground they had on Lake avenue, but for many the change will be of great advantage, as they will not have to travel so long a distance to go to school.

The Nazareth Reading Circles will hold their closing meeting for this season on the evening of Wednesday, 17th inst. Rev. Jas. T. Dougherty, of Stanley, N. Y., whose interest in these organizations is duly appreciated by the members, has kindly consented to give, on this occasion, a lecture on "Books and Reading." The intellectual banquet to be thus furnished is, with good reason, eagerly anticipated by the members of the Nazareth Reading Circles. Former pupils of Nazareth, desirous of attending the lecture, will receive admission tickets by calling at the Academy between the hours of 4 and 6 p. m. on Sunday.

From the Boston Pilot: "The Boston friends of the Rev. Edw. Hanna, D. D., of Rochester, N. Y., sympathize with him on the death of his venerable father, Edward Hanna. * * Mr. Hanna was seventy-two years old, and over fifty years a resident of Rochester, where he was held in the highest esteem as a business man of spotless integrity, a public-spirited citizen, and a devout Christian."

Happy Wedded.

A very pretty wedding took place in St. Mary's church, on Tuesday, June 20, when Mary J. Ryan and Dennis H. Ryan were united in marriage by Rev. Felix O'Hanlon. The ceremony commenced at half past five o'clock in the presence of relatives and friends of the contracting parties. The bride is a sister of E. J. Ryan, of the Catholic Journal. She was attended by her sister, Miss Emma J. Ryan, as bridesmaid. The groom is a well known young man. Mr. Jno. W. Dunn acted as best man. Mr. and Mrs. Ryan have many friends in this city who wish them many years of happy wedded life. The Journal begs leave to add its hearty congratulations.

JUBILEE CELEBRATION.

At St. Joseph's Church, Thursday, June 18, to Following Sunday.

Twenty-five years ago last April the wonder-working image known under the title of Our Lady of Perpetual Help was by command of His Holiness, the late and lamented Pope Pius IX, again exposed at Rome for public veneration, with the greatest solemnities, in the church of the Redemptorists dedicated to St. Alphonsus. Ever since this solemn exposition, the wonder-working image has become renowned over the entire world. At Rome about 1,400 copies of this image were painted on wood and sent to various churches, there to be placed on the altars dedicated to the Mother of God; many churches and cathedrals have since then been erected and dedicated to Our Lady of Perpetual Help. There are besides about 400 affiliated confraternities under the title of Our Lady of Perpetual Help. In the year 1876 the Holy See granted to the Redemptorists the privilege of celebrating a special Mass in honor of Our Lady of Perpetual Help. And this being the jubilee year of the renewal of this famous devotion, they are to celebrate it in an especial and extraordinary manner in the form of a Triduum in all their churches. Besides granting the privilege of celebrating the Mass in honor of Our Lady of Perpetual Help on each day of the Triduum, the present Pontiff, our Holy Father Pope Leo XIII, has graciously conceded a plenary indulgence and the remission of all sins to all the faithful, who, after a worthy reception of the sacraments, visit one of the aforesaid churches and there pray for his intention. Furthermore, he has also granted to all the faithful who, with contrite heart, visit one of these churches during the Triduum and there pray for his intention, a partial indulgence of 7 years and 7 times 40 days of penance enjoined upon them or otherwise obligatory. These indulgences may also be offered up for the poor souls of Purgatory.

At St. Joseph's church of this city the Triduum in honor of Our Lady of Perpetual Help will open with solemn services at 7.30 p. m. on Thursday the 18th of June, and will close the following Sunday at 7 p. m.

Auburn.

Sunday, June 7, was the eighteenth anniversary of the elevation to the priesthood of Rev. William Mulhern, pastor of St. Mary's church. The occasion was celebrated in a manner that bespeaks the love and esteem in which he is held by his ever ready congregation. A solemn high mass was celebrated at 11 o'clock, with Rev. Father Mulhern as celebrant; Rev. Father Van Ness, of Rochester, deacon; Rev. Father McGrath, of St. Mary's, sub-deacon, and John C. O'Brien, master of ceremonies. The high altar and the altar of the Sacred Heart were beautifully trimmed and decorated with smilax, cut flowers, potted plants and countless burning candles. Rev. Father McGrath spoke in glowing terms of Father Mulhern's success in life since entering the priesthood, and particularly during his fourteen years of earnest labor in St. Mary's—all due to his trust in God and the Sacred Heart, for whom he possesses a particular devotion, and nothing for the welfare of the church and his congregation does he ever undertake without first putting it under the care and guidance of the Sacred Heart. All his undertakings have proved successful; the purchases and improvements of property, the beautifying of the church inside, the purchase of the new and handsome organ, the building of the new school, etc., all of which have been paid for, aside from paying off each year a large portion of the enormous church debt with which he has had to contend since entering upon his labors at St. Mary's, but which he set about cheerfully to diminish, trusting in God and the Sacred Heart to help him through. How well he has succeeded we all know.

Monday afternoon the children of St. Mary's school gave an entertainment in St. Mary's school in honor of the pastor's anniversary. The hall was handsomely decorated with flowers, potted plants, palms and bunting which presented a very neat and attractive appearance. Facing the stage were seats of honor reserved for the clergy, which were occupied by the pastor, Rev. Father Mulhern, and Fathers McGrath of St. Mary's, Dougherty of Stanley, Van Ness of Rochester, O'Connor of Seneca Falls, Netzel of St. Alphonsus, Clune, Quinn and Rev. Dean Seymour of the Holy Family. The first number on the programme was a "Greet Song to our Pastor," by the Junior class, followed by an Indian club drill by twelve boys, recitations, songs, drills, etc. Each number of the programme was well rendered. After the entertainment John O'Brien presented Father Mulhern, in the name of the altar boys, an elegant collection of the photographs of that society, fifty-one in number, grouped around pictures of Fathers Mulhern and McGrath, inclosed in a handsome frame, which rests upon two large easels. Following this came an address by Miss Agnes Sullivan, in the name of the school, congratulating the pastor on the return of this happy day when, eighteen years ago, he was made a priest. The address contained many good wishes and beautiful sentiments and was delivered in a pleasant manner which spoke the hearts of not one but of the whole of the school. Father Mulhern's reply was full of words of praise and thanks to his congregation, who were ever ready to respond to his calls. He had done only his duty and had prayed God that morning to help him to continue so and correct the errors of his past life that he might be more faithful in the years to come. He knew that the demonstration was not made for him personally but as pastor of the church. He said: "You, the people of this parish, have honored my predecessors as you have me, and the day will come when you will honor in like manner those that may succeed me." But what priest could labor more earnestly, or who could have done more or as much for his congregation as has the present pastor? Taken altogether, this was an anniversary that will remain fresh in the memory of Father Mulhern for years to come, and these we hope will be many and happy.

St. Mary's fair is drawing large crowds to the Genesee Opera house every evening. The various booths are doing a thriving business. Many valuable articles are carried away each evening by fortunate winners and purchasers. The hall is crowded every night with people seeking an evening of solid enjoyment.

Stanley O'Neil, one of the altar boys of St. Mary's church, died at the home of his parents in Seminary Ave., Tuesday. He was a bright little fellow and his death caused much regret among his associates.

Are You Going Away for the Summer? In one half hour in our underwear department you can fit yourself out with splendidly made and beautifully trimmed garments both for yourself and children. During the recent underwear war our trade was greater than ever, a fact due to superlative qualities of fabrics and makes and such prices all around that any judicious buyer could clearly save money. This is more than ever the case to-day and those who want elegant goods in this line, and most assuredly at prices which none can undersell, will naturally come to

The time has come when to dress comfortably straw hats must be provided for the children as well as those of more mature years. We desire to call special attention to a well known reliable house, R. D. Kenyon Hat and Fur Co., 140 East Main street. In stock, both wholesale and retail, they are enabled to show productions from all first-class factories; and as to prices, they are the lowest. Such immense stocks must be reduced quickly, and not so much in profits on any one article must they depend as on the business done. We bespeak for this house the confidence of our patrons and feel that we make no mistake in so doing.

GLEN HAVEN.

ROCHESTER'S GREAT FAMILY RESORT.

Improvements Made within the Last Few Weeks.

Glen Haven now looks its prettiest, and there are few places so attractive as this charming resort, with its shady woods, its cool breezes and magnificent body of water at its feet. What can be more delightful to one leaving the hot, noisy city, than a walk along the quiet paths which wind around those great, mountain-like hills, which make Glen Haven a place of such exquisite beauty? What more pleasant for a party of gay picnicers, or a family out for a day's enjoyment, than a lunch eaten under one of the giant trees of this lovely glen? If the party is a large one and it is desired to set but one table, the large covered pavilions in each of the four groves afford ample advantages for so doing. In fact it would be hard to name a place in this vicinity for which nature and human ingenuity have done so much as has been done for Glen Haven. Even the finny tribe have a partiality for the waters near it, and the fishing cannot be excelled.

Among other attractions, not before spoken of may be mentioned the fine base ball grounds, merry-go-round, and large swings, with a seating capacity of eight to each swing. And now as facilities for reaching Glen Haven: The E. Main street cars take you to the depot of the Glen Haven R. R. which conveys you to the Glen in short order. And here let us say a great improvement has recently been made, in removing the old gate and allowing large crowds to get on and off trains without danger. Societies and large parties will do well to examine the claims of Glen Haven. Excursion arrangements can be made with A. F. Raveret, 18 West Main street, (Powers Block). Telephone 673.

Your Health. By allowing your family to eat crackers or bread made with acids you are doing them a great injury. Use only the purest of baked goods, such as are made by the Culross bakeries. Their celebrated butter crackers have no equal for purity and quality. Try them. Bakeries 30 and 499 State street.

Ingrain Carpets. Our stock of ingrain carpets is constantly being replenished with the latest productions of the looms, and embraces all grades, from the cheapest to the best goods manufactured. Many of the patterns in the better grade of goods are exclusive to our house for Rochester. It is much the best assortment to be found in the state. Prices always at bottom.

MANITOU BEACH. For a beautiful, quiet, cool place to spend a few days fishing, boating and enjoying a magnificent table with an appetite to match, there is not a resort within one hundred miles of Rochester equal to Manitou Beach. The hotel kept by Matthews & Servis is beautifully situated, and the grounds cool and refreshing. The means of reaching this grand resting place from the dust and fatigue of the city, is either by the new electric road, or by the Oglemena steamboat from Charlotte. We predict for Manitou a brilliant future. We have Father Stewart's word for all we say, and therefore it is truth. Everybody congratulates
