Convent Life Drama Listed On TV Sunday

Helen Hayes, Dame Judith Anderson and Siobhan McKenna will star, along with veteran actor Charles Bickford, in "The Cradle Song" in color on the Hallmark Hall of Fame series over the NBC-TV network on Sunday, April 10. It will be seen on WROC-TV, Channel 5 in Rochester from 6:30 to 8 p.m.

"The Cradle Song" was first presented on television by Hallmark in 1956 with Miss Anderson as the prioress of the convent and Miss McKenna as Sister Joanna of the Cross. Miss Hayes was to have played the role of the vicaress but was forced to withdraw from the cast because of the fatal illness of her husband, Charles MacArthur, with the late Evelyn Varden replacing her.

JACK GOULD, TV critic of the New York Times, in reviewing the original production, which was the winner of a Christopher award, called the drama "one of the most beautiful and deeply stirring programs that television has ever offered."

"The Cradle Song" is the story of a baby girl abandoned at the door of a Spanish convent of cloistered Dominican nuns. Sister Joanna of the Cross and other novices plead for the baby's adoption and their superiors finally consent.

The girl, Teresa (Kathy Willard), is carefully reared by the sisters until she reaches the age of 18 when she announces her decision to marry Antonio (Geoffrey Horne) and seek her happiness in the outside world. Her leave-taking, though completely understood by the nuns who love her, nevertheless leaves them with a touching sense of loss.

Loretta Young In Hour Long Special

"The Road," an hour-long Easter television special, starring Loretta Young, will be telecast on "The Loretta Young Show," over NBC-TV at 10 p.m., Sunday, April 10. It will be seen on WROC-TV, Channel 5 in Rochester.

This program, filmed in Europe, was originally shown last October, as the opener for the 1959-60 season of "The Loretta Young Show." After its original run, the company was swamped with letters of praise from people interested in seeing "The Road" again.

"The Road," Loretta Young's first European venture, presents her in a portrayal of a proud and lonely woman who conceals a tragic secret behind a mask of careless gaiety and brittle sophistication. The woman's meeting with a young boy, a hitchhiker on a road on the outskirts of Paris, to whom she gives a ride, changes her life.

It was filmed entirely in France—in Paris and environs and in a heretofore unphotographed locale—the Grotto at Lourdes.

Watching The Screen

Contest Winner

By RAY SMITH

It's all over but the shouting. Hollywood had its night last Monday and now it's our time as all are wondering who is the winner of 40 passes. Who is it? Just wouldn't you like to know? Maybe I'll tell you, if you're nice.

Reviewing the TV show of the Academy Awards we find that the Oscars went to Ben-Hur as the best picture of the year. Best actor is Charlton Heston. Hollywood picked as the best actress of the year Simone Signoret. And the best song. Well, you'll be humming High Hopes. All in all, I think Hollywood should be congratulated for the very fine show. Oh, I forgot something.

Who is the winner? After hours of looking at postcards we found that Mr. J. J. Janczak, 233 Bonesteel St., Rochester 16, N.Y. picked the four winners as did Hollywood. The card was postmarked March 14th at 4:30 p.m. and Uncle Sam will be delivering the 40 passes tomorrow. Sincere congratulations to our winner and many many thanks to all my readers for the tremendous response to this contest. We'll try to have more of the same in the future.

NOW, BACK to the mines. Highoctane in situations and characters we find the Loew's Theatre looking for ADULTS ONLY to see "HOME FROM THE HILL." The plot is somewhat on the complicated side and, may I add, this is NOT for any children. Not only wouldn't they enjoy it but they may ask some unneeded questions.

Robert Mitchum and Eleanor Parker share the starring roles. The former proves he can still act but the latter is once again miscast. Illicit romance in two generations occupy the principals of this 150 minute story. Mitchum's conduct has iced his marriage to Parker since the birth of their now-grown son, George Hamilton. Mitchum has another son born out of wedlock at the same time as Hamilton. Then one child wants to marry but the other son marries the girl to give her child a father the other one couldn't. If you don't understand this too well, don't blame me. That's the story.

AT THIS WRITING the Palace Theatre is bringing back "THE NUN'S STORY" for ADULTS AND ADOLESCENTS. It is very enjoyable. If you didn't see it when it was next-door at the Paramount Theatre, see it now. Keep your eye on the Palace. My spies tell me they're going to have a Disney blockbuster for Easter. Oh boy! In passing, just a note to say that "The Rebel Breed" coming to the Paramount Theatre is a "B" movie.

ELMIRA — The Colonial Theatre invites Alan Ladd to entertain the WHOLE FAMILY in the Technicolor gun-fightin' wood-throwin' good story entitled "GUNS OF THE TIMBERLAND" starting on Sunday. ADULTS ONLY may enjoy the comedy "ONCE MORE WITH FEELING" at the Elmira Theatre on Sunday. A few laughs.

HORNELL — Anthony Quinn and Sophia Loren join talents for ADULTS ONLY in the comedy western "HELLER IN PINK TIGHTS" at the Majestic Theatre. Kindly note — that sneak preview on Sunday is for ADULTS ONLY.

Off The Record

On The Beach

By SUZANNE WIGG

A very popular trend in albums during the past few years is the collection of several famous movie themes. This is a logical trend since some of the best music of our time appears as a background for movies. The newest album along this line is one by Frank Chacksfield on London called "On The Beach."

Conductor - arranger Chacksfield lives up to his already famous reputation as an arranger with such wonderful movie tunes as "Limelight," "Friendly Persuasion," "High Noon," "Love Is A Many Splendored Thing," "Three Coins In The Fountain" and of course his newest hit, "On The Beach." Chacksfield is not afraid of the use of oboes, French horns, bassoons and flutes in his arrangements so that the selections have a semi-classical sound presented in the modern manner.

The arrangements are lush, yet sparkle with brightness, they are conservative, yet interesting with many new orchestral ideas. Chacksfield who was born in Sussex, England is one of the outstanding conductor-arrangers of our time and equally popular in America as he is in England.

He is one of the few artists of a serious nature to have a hit song. As a matter of fact he has had three, "Ebb Tide," "Limelight" and now "On The Beach." It is artists such as Chacksfield who may save the future of popular music.

A REFRESHING album in Latin mood is one called "Tabasco" on RCA Victor. It consists of the mellow voice of Rosemary Clooney backed up by rollicking Latin rhythms of Perez Prado. Prado is the king of the mambo, the tango, the cha-cha, the rhumba and for that matter all Latin-American and Afro-Cuban music.

The tangy orchestra sounds of Perez Prado combined with the smoothness of Clooney's voice makes for an exciting effect. But it is easy excitement, devoid of stunts and freak effects. The comfortable blend of these two opposites probably is the reason for the fascinating title of the album, "A Touch Of Tabasco." Rosie and Prez combine on such wonderful Latin tunes as "Adios," "In A Little Spanish Town," "Corazon de Melon," "Cu-Cu-Rru-Cu-Cu Paloma" and others.

POPULAR MUSIC from Europe has always played somewhat of a part in the American musical scene. Lately, however, European tunes are flying across the Atlantic to America almost as fast as American tunes are flying over to Europe. Richard Wolfe, arranger and conductor, decided to put the latest batch of new hits from across the sea together in one album.

The album is called "European Hits In America" and is recorded on Kapp label. Among the many familiar tunes in the album are "Petite Fleur," "Volia," "Come Prima," "Guaglione" and "Fascination." Richard Wolfe uses mostly saxophones in the arrangements backed up by guitars, piano, bass and drums. The affect is a dance band beat with a European flavor. This album would be at home in the bistros of Paris, the trattoria of Rome or the juke boxes in America.

TONY WILLIAMS, the lead singer of the "Platters" vocal group has set out on his own for one album. It is "A Girl Is A Girl" on Mercury. The idea of making an album consisting of song titles which contain a girl's name, is not a new one but is nevertheless a charming one.

So, Tony sings "Peg O' My Heart," "Ramona," "Ida," "Laura," "Mona Lisa," "Peggy O'Neil" and all of the others in a sort of cross between Nat King Cole and Johnny Mathis style. David Carroll's orchestra and arrangements do a great deal to help the sound and Tony has an excellent voice to boot.

AN ALBUM which should enjoy universal success is one called "Deep Purple" by Tutti Camara's on Everest label. The album contains the music of Peter DeRose, one of the foremost composers of tin pan alley during the 30's and 40's. Camarata's orchestra with arrangements by Leo Addeo and Frank Hunter combine for some of the easiest listening in album form that has hit the record counters in many a day.

Here are some new, fresh arrangements of some fine old tunes. The songs are listenable, singable, hummable, whistleable and just downright pleasant. Some of the goodies contained on the album are "Deep Purple," "Wagon Wheels," "When Your Hair Has Turned To Silver," "Somebody Loves You," "Have You Ever Been Lonely," "Let's Dream Together" and many others.
