Mercy Elects Sodality Slate

The first newly-elected officers at Our Lady of Mercy High School are the Sodality heads for the next school year, 1960-61.

Junior Roberta Conway of St. James parish has been elected prefect of the Sodality at the school and sophomores Mary Ellen Mount of St. James and Sharon Beckman of St. Andrew's have been elected vice-prefect and co-vice prefect, respectively.

SELECTED by their classmates in the election, May 4 these girls have received the highest offices that can be obtained in the school.

Bishop Kearney will preside at Mercy's Sodality Reception ceremony, today, Friday, May 13, at 2 p.m. in the school auditorium, according to Sister Mary Maureen, Sodality moderator.

At the ceremony sixteen sodalists will consecrate their actions "to Jesus through Mary" in a permanent Act of Consecration, while 101 will make a temporary Act of Consecration. The temporary act bends for one year.

RECEPTION DAY will begin with Mass in the auditorium. Prior to the day, all those contemplating consecration took part in a triduum Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday of this week, conducted by the Rev. Richard Tonner, school chaplain.

Cenacle Lists Father Hawas

Discussion groups with the Religious will begin the evening, which is open to business women of all creeds.

FOLLOWING A short meeting of Our Lady of the Cenacle Guild, a special feature of the evening will be the Procession in honor of the Blessed Virgin and the enrollment of this year's new members in the Association of the Cenacle.

Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament in the newly completed Retreat Chapel will precede Father Hawas' talk. For further details, telephone the Retreat House, B. Rowning 14755.

Canandaiguans To Hear Star Johnny Unitas

Canandaigua—Johnny Unitas, quarterback of the Baltimore Colts, national professional football champions, will be guest speaker at St. Mary's Canandaigua, Third Annual Sports Dinner on Tuesday, May 24.

About 400 persons are expected to attend the banquet at which trophies will be awarded to varsity players and cheer leaders in football, basketball and baseball. Banquet tickets are $125.

A booklet will be given each of those attending the dinner explaining in pictorial fashion the extensive program of physical education in St. Mary's Parish.

GUEST SPEAKER, Unitas, is one of the top professional football players in the country. His story is one of the all-time greats of the sporting world. He joined the Baltimore Colts as the man nobody wanted and remained to become the league's most valuable player in 1958 and 1959.

JOHNNY UNITAS

The sensational Colts star was graduated from St. Justin's Catholic High School, was turned down at Notre Dame University, struggled to get into another college, struggled to make the pros and struggled to get in the line-up. His rise to fame story is said to be one all will want to hear.

Poles Queried On Missing Nun

Vienna—(NC)—The Austrian government has asked the Polish embassy here for help in finding out what happened to a nun from Vienna who disappeared while on her way to Warsaw to visit relatives.

Church officials here said that Sister Gundharda, 37, left Vienna by train for Warsaw on May 3, but was met on the train when it arrived there. She was reported missing by her brother, who had gone to the Warsaw station to meet her. Sister Gundharda was known in civil life as Maria Roepka.

Publication Editors Named At Nazareth College

Editors for the three Nazareth College publications, GLEANER, VERITY, and SIGILLUM have been selected for the academic year 1960-61, and will assume their new duties at the opening of the college in September.

Miss Patricia O'Hara will become editor of GLEANER, the college newspaper, Miss Ann Gilbert will direct the publication of VERITY, the literary quarterly, and Miss Mary Ann Lanahan will assume the responsibility for SIGILLUM, the college yearbook.

GLEANER is traditionally headed by a junior at Nazareth, and Miss O'Hara, a resident student at the college, will bring to her task the experience which she gained as a member of the staff which put on the sophomore edition of the paper this year, and as editor of the staff of her school newspaper. Miss O'Hara, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. O'Hara of Hyde Park, N.Y., is a graduate of Mount St. Mary Academy in Newburgh, N.Y.

Miss Ann Gilbert who will be editor of VERITY also brings a wide experience in scholastic publications to her new assignment. She was editor of "Tatler" the school newspaper at Ithaca High School, as well as president of the Literary Club there. Miss Gilbert's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Perry W. Gilbert, reside at 315 The Parkway, in Ithaca. At Nazareth she served as a sophomore editor for the class issue of GLEANER, and as junior editor for their issue of VERITY.

MISS MARY ANN LANAHAN, in accepting the editorship of SIGILLUM, is repeating an experience of her senior year at Corning Free Academy, where she was editor of her class yearbook. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Lanahan of 107 High Road, Corning.

Priests Mark Release From Dachau Prison

Nottingham, England — (NC) — Nine Polish priests who survived imprisonment at the nazi concentration camp of Dachau officiated at a special Mass to celebrate the 15th anniversary of their liberation.

One, Father Marian Majewski, was taken 27 times to a gas chamber for execution. He escaped each time. Father Majewski is now stationed at Bedford, England.

Another, Father John Przybyla, lost 125 pounds when prison doctors used him as a human guinea pig to find out ways to treat malaria.

A THIRD, Father Joseph Golab, lost all his teeth through brutal beatings at the camp.

The Mass commemorating their liberation was celebrated in Nottingham's cathedral.
