Weider & McMahon, the contractors, have made an assignment.

Mrs. Katherine J. Dowling instituted a branch of the L. C. B. A. at Seneca Falls last Monday.

High Martin, aged 24 years died Wednesday at 24 Scranton street. The funeral took place yesterday at 9 a. m. from St. Bridget's church.

The street car waiting room at the four corners has been abandoned and will soon be occupied as a cigar store.

A lawn party will be held on the grounds of Corpus Christi church Wednesday eve. Keller's orchestra will furnish the music. Admission 10 cents.

William Manley who two years ago murdered Officer O'Neil and was sent to the Buffalo insane asylum is a mental wreck, and fast breaking down.

Mrs. Catherine Walls an aged lady who was struck by an electric car at the corner of Monroe avenue and Chestnut street, died Wednesday evening from the effect of her injuries.

The Mayor has vetoed the Board of Education's action in awarding the contract for school desks to the Andrews manufacturing company of Buffalo. John C. King of this city presented a lower bid.

John McDermott, aged 72 years died Wednesday at 28 Ward street. He left one son, John McDermott, a well-known member of the city fire department, and two daughters, Mrs. Henry Smith and Mrs. W. Clark.

Patrick Foley, living at 480 North avenue, was switching cars in the East Rochester yards Tuesday night when one of his feet was run over by an engine. He was removed to St. Mary's Hospital.

Joseph L. Tice stabbed his wife to death last Saturday afternoon. Tice had just been released from the Monroe county penitentiary, where he served a thirty days' sentence, for drunk and disorderly conduct, on charges preferred by his wife. Directly he was released he proceeded to get drunk; then looked for his wife, on finding her, he killed her.

A man named King, who has served a number of years in Auburn State prison on a life sentence, was released recently, a pardon having been signed by Governor Hill. King was noted while in prison for his good behavior. Rev. T. A. Hendrick, pastor of St. Bridget's church, this city, became interested in King's case some time ago, and by his efforts the pardon was granted. The released man came to Rochester expressly to thank his benefactor.

Dennis Flood, the scenic artist, has received word of the death of his brother, John Flood, aged 54 years, at Silver City, N. M. Mr. John Flood was a native of Rochester and well-known as a contractor and builder, but has been absent from this city for the past twenty years. He leaves besides his brother, Dennis Flood, one sister, Mrs. E. A. Maher. The remains will be brought to Rochester for interment.

One evening of last week John Cullen, who has for many years been coachman at the Nazareth convent, was walking in the annex which is in process of construction when he fell a long distance through several stories. He escaped with less serious injury than could have been expected as, although his bruises are many and severe, no bones were broken. He was taken to his brother's home on Cliff street, where he is recovering.

Shortly before midnight Tuesday, the high gasometer of the Municipal Gas Company on canal street exploded. Large pieces of iron flew in all directions and the huge top of the tank was carried several hundred feet and landed on the canalboat, F. C. Lauer & Son. The captain Philip Peterson, was crushed beneath the mass of iron and so seriously injured that he died in a few moments. Wednesday morning, night watchman Michael Stapleton's body was found in the pit which formed the base of the pit and which was filled with water. The body was badly bruised, the head being cut considerably. Mr. Stapleton was a man about 70 years old and has been for many years foreman of the Rochester Gas Company, and in recent years had been watchman of the Municipal Company. Besides his wife he leaves one son, Dr. John Stapleton house physician at the City Hospital, and three daughters, Mrs. T. C. Costello of Genesee, and Misses Louise and Louise Stapleton of this city.

He was a gentleman highly respected by all who knew him and the many friends of the bereaved family extend their heartfelt sympathy in this dire affliction which deprives them of a loving husband and tender father. The funeral took place at 9 a. m. Friday from the church of the Immaculate Conception.

Members desiring to purchase badges for themselves or friends will do well to call at an establishment where a good variety and the latest designs can be obtained. Those who patronize such a house will always be satisfied with their purchase. Luckily such a firm exists in Rochester. The Flower City Watch Company has in stock at all times a large assortment of society emblems ranging in price from the cheapest to the most expensive. Branches desiring to offer badges as prizes will find this firm ready to supply very handsome ones specially designed for such use.

The Flower City Watch Company also deal extensively in Watches, Diamonds, Rings, and in fact everything usually kept by an extensive jewelry house. All of these goods if so desired, can be bought on the installment plan. Superb watches of the most modern patterns can be secured on payments of $1.00 per week. Surely, no person should be without a watch when one can be gotten on such easy terms.

The Flower City Watch Company has handsome quarters in the Ellwanger & Barry building, (first floor) over 39 State street, just a short distance from the four corners. All will find it to their advantage to inspect the stock even if they do not wish to purchase at present.
