New Rector At Shrub Oak

Rome — (RNS) — The Rev. Thomas E. Henneberry, S.J., has been appointed rector of Loyola Seminary at Shrub Oak, N.Y., the Very Rev. John B. Janssens, S.J., superior general of the Society of Jesus, announced here.

Father Henneberry, 51, a native of New York, was provincial of the New York Province of the Society of Jesus from 1954 until July of this year. He had previously been assistant provincial of the province and rector of the Jesuit House of Studies at Plattsburgh, N.Y.

Court Voids Film Control

Harrisburg — (RNS) — Pennsylvania's 1959 movie censorship law was declared unconstitutional in Dauphin County Court.

State Attorney General Anne X. Alpern announced immediately she would fight the decision in the Commonwealth's appelate courts and the U.S. Supreme Court, if necessary.

Judge Walter B. Sohn, who said it took him three months to write his decision throwing out the movie censorship law, found the act defective throughout, including its title. The ruling was handed down on action brought by movie house operators and film firms.

In a 100-page opinion, Judge Sohn declared the law "so vague and indefinite as to be inoperable and therefore invalid.

He said it violated state and federal guarantees of freedom of expression and due process of law.

Under the law a 3-member Motion Picture Control Board had the right to rule whether a film was obscene or unsuitable for children. The latter category applied both to obscene films and those which incite to crime.

The law defined obscenity as that which, if "to the average person, applying contemporary community standards, its dominant theme, taken as a whole, appeals to prurient interest."

Judge Sohn cited a series of federal court opinions that the question of obscenity is one for judicial proceedings, not the action of an administrative board.

He questioned whether three members on a censorship board could determine "contemporary community standards" throughout the state, or what would be a sympathetic presentation of crime in a child's mind.

'False Unity' Spoils Worship

Milwaukee — (RNS) — A Lutheran theologian and authority on church music has charged that the quality of Protestant worship in America has deteriorated "because of a demand for a false unity among the Churches."

Dr. Walter E. Buszin, a teacher of liturgy and hymnology at Concordia Theological seminary, St. Louis, told a conference of conservative theologians at Wisconsin Lutheran seminary, Thiensville, that demands for union without unity had a direct reflection in the worship life of Protestants.

"Not only do we find Protestant musicians of the choice outstanding services of worship with Jews and other who do not believe in Christ, but not a few Protestant musicians do not hesitate to serve as organists, choirmasters, soloists and choir members in Jewish temples and Christian Science churches," Prof. said. He added:

"The result is that worship is debased and becomes nothing more than an act which is performed to fill one's coffers."
