New language laboratory at Nazareth

Parents' Weekend Planned

Parents of Nazareth College students will gain first-hand experience of all phases of college life, religious, educational, and social, when they meet at the college on November 4, 5, and 6, for the second annual Parents' Weekend.

An interesting and varied program has been planned by the committee to acquaint the parents of the college students with the everyday activities of their daughters on the campus.

A "GET-ACQUAINTED mixer, to be held on Friday evening, November 4, at the Irondequoit Country Club, will introduce the parents to one another. From nine to twelve an orchestra will play for dancing or good listening, and at midnight breakfast will be served.

Saturday afternoon from one to five will bring the parents back to the halls of learning. Divided into four areas designated as "In the Laboratory," "In the Library," "In Council," and "In the Classroom," the sessions will cover a great deal of educational territory. Parents may take a lesson in French, Spanish, German or Russian "off the record" in the new language laboratory, under the direction of Sister Agnes Patricia and Dr. Virginia Otto.

In the Speech Center, Mrs. Carl Chamberlain and students from the Speech Department will illustrate modern techniques in speech therapy. Chemistry majors will give demonstrations in Physical Chemistry; and the ancient art of enameling will be shown by Sister Magdalen and students from the art department.

A BOOK exhibit entitled "A Guide to Good Reading" has been prepared by Sister Dominic and the library staff and includes the best from the 1959-60 press in theology, government, literature and sociology. They have also prepared a reading list especially designed for parents.

At the business meeting of the Association "In Council," election of officers will take place, and a film "Education is Everybody's Business" will be shown.

Back "In the Classroom," parents may choose between English and drama, history, or art to finish their scholastic afternoon. Scenes and reading from modern comic dramas; a modern insight into the causes of the Civil War in its centenary year, and an illustrated lecture on religious art by Sister Magdalen, are their "electives" for this session.

A Mother - Faculty buffet in Lourdes Hall dining room, and a Father - Daughter banquet in the college cafeteria are planned for Saturday evening.

BISHOP KEARNEY will celebrate Mass for the parents' intentions on Sunday, Nov. 6, at 11 a.m. in Alma Mater Chapel. Breakfast at noon in the college cafeteria for the parents and their daughters will bring the weekend to a close.

Corning Nurses Assemble For Breakfast Program

Corning — Members of the Corning Council of Catholic Nurses received Holy Communion in a body at St. Vincent de Paul's Church on Sunday morning, Oct. 16, and then adjourned to the Baron Steuben Hotel for breakfast.

A HIGHLIGHT of the breakfast program was a talk on aims of the organization given by the society moderator, the Rev. William Thomas.

Vocal selections were sung by Mrs. Frank Sprague, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Charles Stanger.

Mrs. Thomas McHenry and Mrs. William McCarthy are co-chairmen of a sale being conducted for the benefit of the scholarship fund of the Council.

Officers of the Council who made arrangements for the breakfast are Mrs. Curtis Hooey, president; Mrs. Norman Schwartzman, vice president; Miss Lucille O'Neill, secretary and Mrs. Alfred Connaughton, treasurer.
