Niagara Squad Faces Cornell

Prior to opening the season at home on December 3 against Assumption University, Niagara University basketball squad will invade Ithaca, where they will tangle with the "Big Red" of Cornell in two scrimmage sessions. The skirmishes will take place in Barton Hall on the Cornell Campus Nov. 25 and 26.

AL BUTLER, co-captain, from East Rochester, and Jim Albano from Rochester, will be in the line-up.

Area students listed on the freshmen basketball squad at Niagara are: Thomas F. McCarthy, Auburn, who attended Mt. Carmel High and Stephen A. Shulz, Rochester, who attended McQuaid Jesuit High.

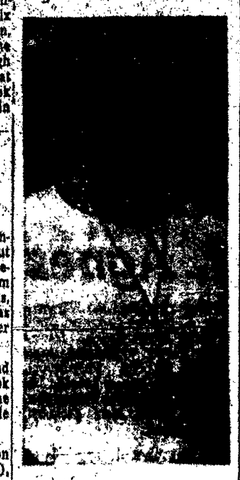
Aquinas Plays Thanksgiving Day

The Little Irish of Aquinas Institute, reeling from the effects of a 21-12 defeat dealt by North Catholic of Pittsburgh last Sunday, licked their wounds determined not to taste defeat again this season.

Mont Pleasant of Schenectady, New York, will meet Aquinas at Memorial Stadium here Thanksgiving Day morning in the season windup for both teams.

THE LITTLE IRISH, who until last Sunday had won six straight games this season, opened up the scoring in the second period of the Pittsburgh game. The Trojans scored at the end of the period and took a 7-6 edge at halftime. Again Aquinas surged ahead, 12-7, but with the lack of substitutions Aquinas tired noticeably and gave up two touchdowns in the last period. The rugged Pennsylvanians, with a two platoon system, will battle Boys Town of Nebraska Saturday afternoon in Pittsburgh.

The more than 9,000 spectators who witnessed the ramble-dazzle football spectacle, were glad they came. They saw a real show and went away satisfied even though the home side lost.



COACH REPKO

After the game Pittsburgh Coach Bob Sturm admitted that Aquinas presented the toughest opposition his team has met all season. "Aquinas is the best and hardest hitting team we've faced," he said.

There was good news in the Aquinas camp today, however. Halfback Pete Casartelli who played an outstanding game on defense until he received a head injury in the third quarter of Sunday's game, reported for drills this week and will start against Schenectady Thanksgiving morning.

LeMoyne Wins Cross Country

St. John Fisher's cross country team fought a valiant, but losing battle against the LeMoyne College freshmen team at the St. John Fisher campus, on Wed., November 9. It was the last meet of the Fisher harriers' first season.

The final score was 27-30, and Bob Wilson of LeMoyne took first place with a record time of 17:07 over the three mile course.

THE WEEKLY NOTE FROM MR. PEPSI:

At the dedication of a battlefield ninety-seven years ago, an American president addressed a war-weary crowd at battle with their brothers.

"There is no glory for a nation at war with itself. The reason for the Civil War is a cause which has not yet been won. It will never be won until man learns to accept and live in peace with his fellow man.

Today, the words of Lincoln are echoed from Gettysburg across the entire globe: ". . . that government of the people, by the people' . . . and "for the people should not perish from the earth."

McQuaid Runners Take Canisius At Buffalo Meet

McQuaid Jesuit High School closed its cross-country season on a high note Friday, Nov. 11 by sweeping to a 15-50 dual meet victory over arch-rival Canisius High School at Delaware Park, Buffalo.

THE KNIGHTS, who have run each of their 10 races this campaign on a different course, found the muddy but largely flat layout at Delaware Park much to their liking.

Eight McQuaid men, led by Dave McBride and Brian McCarthy, were home before the Little Griffins could break the monopoly. The summaries:

1. Dave McBride, McQuaid 15:09.8
2. Brian McCarthy, McQuaid 15:16
3. Mike Connor, McQuaid 15:18
4. Jim Corcoran, McQuaid 15:24.6
5. Ted Chadwick, McQuaid 15:30
6. Dave Stanley, McQuaid 15:30
7. Dave Baldwin, McQuaid 15:39
8. James Finnigan, McQuaid 15:41
9. Al Vertine, Canisius 15:42
10. George Lavid, Canisius 15:44

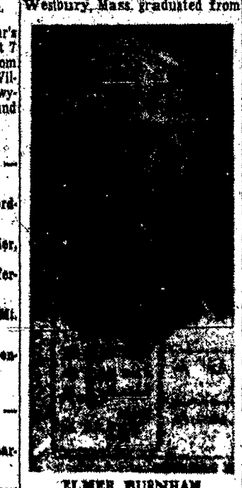
Burnham Ends Coach Career

Elmer H. Burnham is completing his 17th season as head football coach of the University of Rochester. He announced his retirement from the coaching ranks effective at the completion of the UR season Saturday. Since the native of Westbury, Mass. graduated from Springfield College in 1916, he has coached 42 seasons.



ELMER BURNHAM

His start was at Central High in South Bend, Indiana where he won 113, lost 27, and tied 13 in 16 years. Burnham's teams at one time won 24 straight games.

In 1935 he became frosh football coach at Purdue and seven years later became their varsity coach. In his second season with the Boilermakers, he won nine straight games and the Big Ten title.

The next season he came to Rochester. Burnham did not like the pressures of big time football. He considered the UR's football program ideal. Through 1959, his UR teams had won 76, lost 46, and tied 6 in sixteen campaigns. In the last ten years, Burnham's teams have gone undefeated twice — 1952 and 1958. Last year his team won seven, lost one.

Louis A. Alexander, Director of Athletics, said, "Elmer has been a credit to the University, to football, and to the Dept. of Physical Education. It has been a real privilege to work with him for 17 years. We, his colleagues, consider him one of the best football coaches in the country."

The offensive Rochester stars have been Craig Briggs and Joe Way, a fullback. Briggs has averaged a 100 yards a game rushing while Way, a product of Oil City, Pa., has averaged 4.9 yards per carry. Sophs who have shown well include quarterback Renee Houston, halfback Wayne Manning and Vin Caravaglio, a 150 pounder.

In the line, co-captains Al Bater and Dick Crowell have led the charge. Stalwart guard Vince Russo of Rankin, Pa. and center Tom McGuire are other meritorious linemen. End positions are anchored by veteran Fran Caravaglio, Vin's older brother, and Tony Stranges (185). Soph Mike Boland (200), a former Aquinas star, has performed well despite an ankle injury.

A leading candidate for post season honors is battering fullback Bob Ferguson (Ohio State). A native of Troy, Ohio he is a 5'11", 220 pound junior. Ferguson is currently the No. 1 rusher in the Big Ten and third leading rusher nationally. He has been carrying the ball 40% of the time for Ohio State for 6 yard average and displayed speed in the Michigan State game with a 67 yard burst up the middle.

Football stars on losing teams usually get left out when it's All-American time. This could be true of E. J. Holub (Texas Tech.) and Rip Hawkins of North Carolina this season. Holub, a 225-pounder received some All-America mention last season and deservedly so. Reports say he is better than ever this year. North Carolina coach, Jim Hickey, says Hawkins is definitely All-American timber. Hawkins has been a standout every week as a blocker and linebacker. He is 228 pounds and likes it when the going is rough.

DeSales High of Geneva (0-5-1) suffering through a disappointing season, is pointing towards rival Mt. Carmel in their November 13th encounter to regain some glory. Halfback Ron Mattle has shown breakaway ability including a 70-yard scoring play against Clyde and a 64-yard run against Batavia. The J. V. has posted a 2-3 record to date with wins over Penn Yan and Waterloo J. V.'s.
