No Compromise

Religious Unity 'Coming Home'

Garrison — (RNS) — The director of the Catholic Unity Octave movement declared that religious unity did not mean "confusion or compromise," but rather "a coming home to the One Fold of Christ of all who are separated from her."

In a statement entitled "The Challenge of the Unity Octave," the Rev. Titus Cranny, S.A., commented on the forthcoming observance of the Chair of Unity Octave in the Catholic Church from Jan. 18-25. During the eight days Catholics offer special prayers for Christian Unity.

"Reunion does not mean that the Church attains a fullness which may be lacking," Father Cranny said, "rather the Church communicates of her fullness to those who do return, complementing the portion of truth and of spiritual values which our separated brethren have preserved in varying degrees."

Describing Christian unity as "the burning question in the world today," Father Cranny declared: "Its solution will probably not come quickly or easily, but it must come, for such is the will of Christ — 'that all may be one.'"

Father Cranny's statement was issued here at the motherhouse of the Franciscan Friars of the Atonement (Graymoor Friars), a religious order that has promoted the Unity Octave observance for the past 50 years.

Short Street, One House

New Providence, N.J.—(NC) — When looking for Mee Lane here in New Providence, don't give up too soon. It's about the shortest street in town, with only one home on it.

There is a road sign which is a reminder that Father John F. Mee served eight years in Our Lady of Peace parish here before volunteering to serve for five years in the Latin American missions.

Texaco Gives To Aid Center

New York—(RNS)—Miami's Spanish Catholic Center (Centro Hispano Catolico) received one-half of a $100,000 grant made by Texaco, Inc., here for the relief of Cuban refugees in Florida and other parts of this country.

The remainder of the donation went to the International Rescue Committee, which got $25,000, and other religious, civic and social agencies doing relief work.

Students Pray For Peace

Paris — (NC) — Six thousand students of the University of Paris spent an evening of prayer in Notre Dame Cathedral for the peace of the world.

Novelist Francois Mauriac, Minister of Justice Edmond Michelet and other prominent Catholics read prayers for peace in behalf of the students. Some of those leading the prayers are on opposite sides in the bitter controversy over the future of Algeria's ties with France.

Tito Regime, Church

'First Step' To Accord

Belgrade — (RNS) — Reports that an agreement had been reached between the Communist government and the Catholic Church in Yugoslavia were denied here by informed Church sources. They said that "only the first step has been taken so far toward such an agreement."

The reports appeared after the return of Archbishop Josip Ujcic of Belgrade who spent four weeks in Rome and had at least one audience with Pope John XXIII and four meetings with Domenico Cardinal Tardini, Vatican Secretary of State, with whom he discussed Church-State problems in his country.

The sources warned that any agreement would be a long and gradual process, because the Church must first be assured that the government is prepared to live up to its professed desire for friendly Church-State relations.

Archbishop Ujcic, 80-year-old chairman of the Bishops' Conference, brought to Rome the government's answer to a memorandum in which the hierarchy outlined demands aimed at terminating the state of tension that has existed between the Church and the Tito regime since the war.

Neither the text of the memorandum nor of the government's answer were made public here, but Church sources said the bishops set forth 18 concrete proposals for the government's consideration. They said the government had shown a favorable attitude toward most of the proposals.

It was not known here what the Vatican's attitude had been toward the government's answer. But the Catholic sources said that Archbishop Ujcic and the four other bishops who accompanied him to Rome had received a warm official reception from the Yugoslav ambassador there, and this was interpreted as indicating the favorable climate in which the archbishop's consultations with the Holy See took place.

The sources said the Vatican seemed agreeable to what was set forth in the hierarchy's memorandum as the basic condition for future negotiations—"greater freedom" for the Church's religious activities in Yugoslavia in return for greater loyalty on the part of the Catholics toward the state and stronger support of certain of its political and economic policies.
