Oratorical Contest Set By Legion

The American Legion's 24th annual oratorical contest, among the high school students of the State of New York, on the subject of the American Constitution and the Bill of Rights, is now being planned according to Theodore A. Busch of Auburn, 7th district chairman. The 7th District comprises the counties of Cayuga, Livingston, Monroe, Ontario, Seneca, Steuben, Wayne and Yates.

Busch also announced that advance information and copies of brochures giving complete details and necessary data for participation in the contest are now in the hands of the principals of all central, public and parochial high schools in the eight counties mentioned.

The oratorical contests for the entire State of New York conducted on the basis of successful eliminations: first by schools, second by counties, third by district and fourth by zones. The winners of the school elimination contests will be eligible to compete for additional prizes in the various county contests to be held during the month of January, 1961.

The winner of each County Contest will be eligible to compete for additional prizes at the District contest to be held during the month of February, 1961, at a time and place to be announced later. The winners of the first and second places in the District Contest will compete for additional prizes in a zone contest to be held also during the month of February.

The winners from each of the five zones in the state will compete for State honors for which the Department of New York will offer winners competing in the finals scholarships.

Any eligible student who desires to participate in the contest should immediately contact the Principal of his or her respective school.

Parishioners Fete School Sisters

Parishioners of St. Mary's church, Horseheads, at a celebration showed their appreciation to the Sisters of St. Joseph who staff their school.

The Sisters are grateful for the many gifts of food that were presented to them over the week end.

McQuaid Cagers Beat Xavier In New York

An upset victory over previously unbeaten Xavier High School highlighted last weekend's New York City excursion by McQuaid's basketball squad. The Knights, despite the loss of 3 regulars on fouls, took their Manhattan hosts by a 70-66 score on Saturday night after blowing to Fordham Prep, 59-49, on Friday.

Junior Frank Jona and seniors Tom Tisa and Richie Ide gave McQuaid coach George Monagan double-figure scoring jobs in the nip-and-tuck Xavier game. Jona scored the bulk of his 17 points as the Knights gained a 35-29 halftime lead.

AGAINST Fordham Prep, it was Tony Criscuolo and Dennis Williams who paced the Knights. A tight zone defense held the taller Bronx squad to a 42-all tie for three periods but finally yielded to a rush of fast-break baskets in the last four minutes.

Throughout their 3-day stay in New York, the McQuaid players enjoyed the hospitality of the families of Fordham Prep's squad. This arrangement was initiated last year when the Fordham team visited Rochester.

'Guest' Listed At Mercy High

Santa will make a guest appearance and Christmas carols will fill the cafeteria at Our Lady of Mercy High School, Thursday, Dec. 22, during the lunch periods.

The event will be the annual Christmas party sponsored by the Student Government Association, states JoAnn Madigan, SGA president.

Senior Betty Crump is the general chairman and senior Susan Kennedy heads the entertainment committee. "Santa" will distribute presents to deserving Mercians. The S.G.A. representatives will act as hostesses.

TV Warning Given Irish

Dublin — (RNS) — Parents must take steps to ensure that Irish-produced television programs, which will begin next year, are representative of the spirit, culture and history of their country, the Very Rev. T. G. Butler, S.M., president of the Catholic University School, cautioned here.

Addressing a group of graduates of the school, Father Butler said that with the coming of television to Ireland young people were being drawn into the orbit of a very powerful influence." It is the duty of parents, he emphasized, to make sure that "the heritage and principles handed down to them are not nullified for their children by any medium, new or old."

Sports With Jack Fink

St. Bonaventure Prospects Bright

The Brown Indians won 21 of 26 last year including one string of eighteen straight. They ranked in the top ten nationally and again ended their season by playing in the NIT. The outlook looks fine again this season.

Bona has a spectacular offense and features the "press" as taught superbly by coach Eddie Donovan on defense. The fabulous 6'5" Tom Smith, an All-America last year, is the main scoring cog (he ranked 2nd nationally last season with a 31.5 average.) Junior Bob McCully, 6'3", has taken over the center slot thereby releasing Stith to a forward position where he may be even more effective. McCully, relatively untested, could improve an already bright picture by using his height to good advantage.

Whitey Martin (12.5), a 6'2" senior, is a ballhawk who excels on steals and is a great passer. Joining Martin at the other guard is Orrie Jirele, a 5'11" junior. The fifth man is 6'4" soph Fred Crawford who broke all Frosh scoring records a year ago. He has been rated on a par with Stith by some observers. Ed Petrovik and Tom Hannon, both juniors, saw lots of action last season and are the top reserves. The rest of the bench, that appears shallow, includes soph Mike Joyce and a pair of 6'5" operatives, Tom Fitzmaurice and Tom McHugh.

December 17
Bonaventure vs Morch'd State
Canisius vs Providence

January 7
Bonaventure vs Duquesne
Canisius vs Seton Hall

January 21
Bonaventure vs Canisius

February 18
Bonaventure vs Depaul
Canisius vs Xavier

March 4
Canisius vs Bonaventure

Lack of experience and strong rebounding will hinder the Syracuse Orangemen's drive for another good season. 6'4" Pete Chudy who averaged 15.5 points a game to lead the team in scoring at kick and figures on the main scoring punch. Joining Chudy in the line-up are guard Sandy Sak (7.9) and 6'3" forward Steve Berkenfield, both veterans. Leading candidates for the remaining positions are 6'2" junior Fred Machemer and Loren James, a sophomore with good potential.

The Philadelphia Eagles, Eastern Division champs, certainly made a great comeback this year. Not endowed with the best overall team material, the Eagles have made the most of their alertness and by brilliant individual performances by Norm Van Brocklin, a masterful quarterback and lineman Chuck Bednarik. Pass patterns, skillfully executed by the likes of Tommy McDonald and rookie Ted Dean, have paid off in large dividends. . . . Navy's bowl-bound Middies lose 9 of its first 10 backs (including Joe Bellino) next season and only 2 starters on its line, John Hewitt and Steve Hoy, return. The plebe team, considered good, won two of four.

29 At McQuaid Take Honors

Twenty-nine students at McQuaid Jesuit High School attained first honors during the second marking period. The students, each of whom had marks of at least 90 per cent in every subject, received gold honor pins from Rev. Cornelius J. Carr, S.J., principal of McQuaid.

In addition to the above, second honors went to 70 students and 73 received honorable mention. All boys in these two categories attained averages of 85 or over.
