Fashions At Five

By LOUISE WILSON

(Louise Wilson, Women's Editor of WHAM is heard daily, Monday through Friday, at 9:10 and 10:05 a.m.)

New York City, Jan. 13: You can't have your cake and eat it, too. Nor can you be in two places at once. With these two cliches out of the way, it is still regrettable that in an effort to see nearly 100 fashion showings in New York City this week, I must miss the fashion spectacular in Rochester.

This very day I'm winding up the week seeing the Spring and Summer collections of Mollie Parnis (favorite designer of Mrs. Dwight D. Eisenhower), Ben Reig, Christian Dior, Suzy Perette and Oleg Cassini (who's designed most of Mrs. John Kennedy's inaugural wardrobe). Today, at five, many of you will be seeing "Fashions at Five" presented by Jewett, Incorporated and Ryan, Limited, at the Genesee Valley Club in the interests of the March of Dimes.

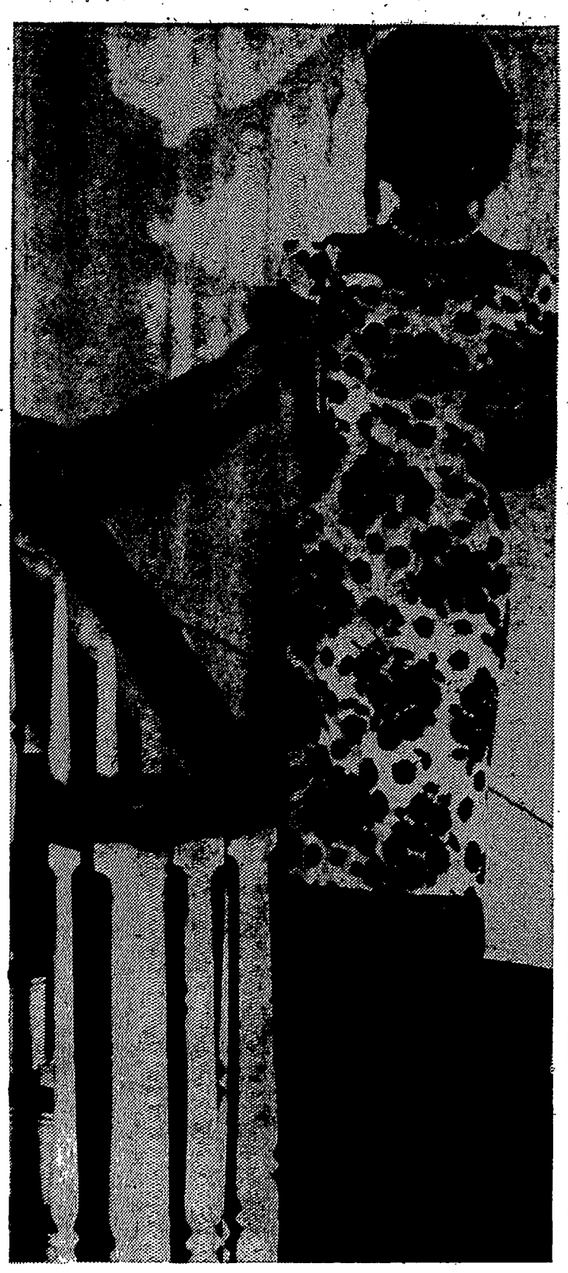
Mrs. Alfred G. Boylan, chairman of the fashion show, phoned before I left to tell me about it. Mrs. Daniel G. Kennedy, one of the models, who is shown here, dropped in to show me one of the Helga gowns she'll be wearing at the show. It's a blue and white print of imported cotton and is perfect for resort now, Upstate summer later. The gown wraps dramatically in the back punctuated with a big bow at the waist.

OTHER GOWNS, suits and coats from Jewett's to be seen in "Fashions at Five" today include a Jane Derby costume of navy Italian silk, trimmed in scallops, lined with pink linen. Edith Small of California designed several of the two piece suits in black and white as well as navy and white pin checks.

Tina Leser, famous for fabulous fashions, is represented in some colorful playclothes that are sure to cause quite a commotion at the club. Coats in bright colored imported tweeds from Ben Zuckerman will also be modeled today at five. (I saw Ben Zuckerman's collection early yesterday morning. It's magnificient, as always.) Other outstanding fashions are silk print dresses and companion cashmere sweaters from such well known designers as Vera Stewart and David Goldstein.

TO COMPLETE such stunning costumes for day, cocktail and evening wear, David Jewett will show hats from such collections as those of Irene of New York and Hattie Carnegie.

The men will not be overshadowed by the lovely ladies. For they, too, will be nattily garbed in fashions from Ryan, Limited. Bill Clune, top male model from New York and Scottsville will lead the fashion parade for the men. (His beautiful wife, professional model Lesslie will star with the women, just to keep the score even). For the first time in Rochester's long history of fashion shows, the traditional woman commentator will be replaced by two men: David Jewett and William Dwyer III.



ALL IN ALL, "Fashions at Five" to be presented today at five at the Genesee Valley Club, benefit of the March of Dimes, sounds like the smartest idea in a very long time.

Meanwhile, it's been a long, lovely hectic week covering all the fashion shows here in New York. I've seen so many fashions and so many people that my eyes are acting like yo-yo's. I'm not even sure they're mates any more. When they start focussing again, I'll write our next THROUGH THE LOOKING GLASS COLUMN for Jan. 27 on the new Spring and Summer fashions which have a new New Look: subtle enough to be accepted without hesitation by even the most cautious. For instance, skirts are rising and necklines are going down.

A RETURN TO THE CHURCH

by one who has strayed is occasion not only for heavenly rejoicing but also for jubilation here on earth. Multiple cause for celebration was given recently by the return of a number of Jacobites (dissident Christians of the Syrian Rite of our holy Church). Just a few weeks ago a well-known Jacobite priest in KADAMMANNITA, INDIA, together with six hundred of his parishioners, acknowledged the Primacy of the Pope and made public profession of their belief in the One, Holy, Catholic, and Apostolic Church. Their return greates the need for a new church and a residence for the priest. We would like to show our joy over their action and our interest in their welfare by building the church and rectory for them. They are too poor to contribute anything but their labor. The cost of the two buildings will be $2,500. Can you help us to gather this amount of money? A donation of any size will be most welcome.

Near East Missions
The Holy Father's Mission Aid for the Oriental Church

A GIFT NOT DESIGNATED FOR SPECIAL USE is a gift "without strings." Such donations are used for urgent needs which arise from time to time. No matter how small a gift may seem to a donor, it helps to do big things when it is added to other small gifts. Will you send us a "stringless gift"?

"DID YOU NOT KNOW that I must be about my Father's business"? When Mary and Joseph thought that they had lost the Boy Jesus, and then found Him teaching in the Temple, Mary said to Him, "Son, why hast thou done so to us? Behold in sorrow thy father and I have been seeking Thee." Christ's answer, put to them gently in the form of a counter question, was not understood by them. In this they are the prototypes of all parents whose children God calls to His special service, of parents whose child has a "vocation." When a child tells a mother and father he or she wishes to become a priest, a brother, or a sister, all parents wonder, for different reasons, "why, my child?"—the wonderment of the devout is prayerful and thankful, that of others is a wonderment of rebellion. Boys and girls themselves who have a vocation wonder why God chose them when there seem to be others better qualified. God's ways, however, are not our ways. In His mysterious Providence His choice falls on those to whom He has given special graces and talents. Devout parents and the children "called" accept even though they do not understand.

The youth of India have been particularly generous in answering God's call to serve Him in the Priesthood and the Religious Life. JOSEPH MANNOOR and CYRIAC MAPRAYIL are now students for the Priesthood at SAINT JOSEPH'S SEMINARY in INDIA; SISTER NINA and SISTER DORIS are novices of the MEDICAL SISTERS OF SAINT JOSEPH, also in INDIA. All four of them come from poverty stricken homes. It will cost $600 to educate each of these seminarians and $300 to train each of the novices. These two boys and girls, like many others, are offering their lives to God. Could you offer the money to pay for their years of preparation?

The MONICA GUILD is, in a manner of speaking, the Altar Society of the CATHOLIC NEAR EAST WELFARE ASSOCIATION. Members of this Guild pay dues of $1.00 a month and with the money thus collected Altar furnishings are supplied for the Mission churches of the Near and Middle East.

PLEASE REMEMBER GOD AND HIS MISSIONS IN YOUR LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT.
