Weekly Church Calendar. Sept. 13—Seventeenth Sunday after Pentecost.

CATHOLIC SCHOOLS. Last week's Michigan Catholic contained a very sensible article on "Higher Catholic Schools."

But there is one point in the article we wish our contemporary would explain. It intimated that pupils of the parochial schools are not admitted to the higher schools conducted by the state.

ST. BERNARD'S SEMINARY. Sunday last the annual report of the ecclesiastical seminaries was distributed and the Rt. Rev. Bishop's letter relative to the same was read in all the churches in the diocese.

PURIFY POLITICS. Last week's JOURNAL had an editorial on abuses in the present political system that we thought might be corrected.

PROBABLY A BIGOT. Wanted—Bright, ambitious Protestant boy, 16 years old, for nurseryman's office.

The above appeared in Monday's Post-Express. The italics are ours. The man who inserted the advertisement is probably as rank a bigot as lives in the Flower City.

We disapprove of boycotts and hate to bring religion into business, but if we knew "Nurseryman's" name we would give him the benefit of an "ad."

Such an advertisement as we have quoted is an insult to every Catholic in Rochester. If a person can fill a position it should not matter what his creed be.

It would seem that Rochester, with its large population and great importance as a postal station should have, at least, half-way adequate facilities for handling mail promptly.

Letters have been inexcusably delayed, as well. Not many days since a friend of ours dropped a letter with an immediate delivery stamp affixed into the post office at 8:30 p. m.

The San Francisco Monitor will still be edited by a McCormick. The dead editor's son has succeeded to his father's position.

Who came out second best in the Common-Council Board-of-Health squabble? We are inclined to think the "ring" got a black eye.

Why have we said this much? Simply this: It is now high time to have a change of political methods and leaders.

Catholics are not always careful to walk as circumspectly as they might. True, they affect to despise the verdict of the world, but it behooves Catholics to conduct themselves so their example may not have a bad effect on those with whom they come in contact.

While the world may be as bad, and worse, as those it judges, Catholics should strive to so comport themselves that the world will have scant room for condemnation.

The Catholic Review charges Conde B. Pallen, editor of the Church Progress with being "a young man." Humph! If all Catholic editors could be born old and trained newspaper men, we suppose the Review would still grumble.

The Jewish Tidings thinks John A. Davis, Rochester's defaulting city treasurer, now in Auburn, should not be pardoned.

On the other hand, the Democrats are divided in their allegiance. At the shrine of ex-President Cleveland are many worshippers.

DIOCESAN NEWS.

Dr. John Stapleton was in town Sunday. Miss Della Edwards of Buffalo has returned after a short visit in this village.

Cornelius J. Cronan has returned to St. Joseph's Seminary, at Troy. Agnes O'Gorman of Brooklyn is the guest of Miss Georgiana Browne.

Dr. Hanna, of Rochester, officiated at St. Mary's church on Sunday last. Mrs. John Toole, who has been quite sick, is convalescent.

Miss Margaret Long, who has been visiting in this vicinity for the past month leaves for her home in Philadelphia, today (Saturday).

Mr. John Coffey, who has been connected with one of the leading law firms for the past two years is home on a short vacation.

Miss Rogers has returned to the Normal school from Massachusetts. Mrs. John Smith, Mrs. H. A. Metcalf, Mrs. M. J. Thompson, Misses Sara Smith and Lizzie Martin have returned from Chautauqua.

Wm. J. Mackin left, Tuesday, for Pittsburg, Pa., where he has secured a lucrative position in the glass work.

Miss Bridget Flanagan returned to her old position in the dress-making department of Dry Bros. Sprauces Tuesday last, after spending her vacation here with her parents.

Very Rev. Dean McDonald, of Geneva, entertained his church choir at Cayuga Lake Park, Thursday of last week. A number from here joined them and a pleasant time was enjoyed by all.

Catholic Societies.

SOCIETIES MEET NEXT WEEK. Monday—Branch 58. Tuesday—Branch 51. Wednesday—Branch 88. Friday—Branch 87.

Branch 134 received one application for membership and initiated one new member at Tuesday evening's meeting.

Branch 78, L. C. B. A., Danville, has adopted the following: Whereas—The Almighty, with His wisdom and judgment, has seen fit to take from our sister, Augusta M. Schoonhart, her beloved husband, who has been our Medical Examiner, Branch 81's handsome quarters were filled, Wednesday evening, with representatives of the various city branches. The occasion was a reception tendered to Grand President John J. Hynes, who was in the city as a delegate to the Republican state convention.

Mr. Ernst, in a neat speech, explained the reason for the meeting and spoke in high terms of the grand president's faithful work for the advancement of the C. M. B. A.

Our organization is one of remarkable growth. It is one of great benefit, not only to the widows and orphans left in dependent condition by the death of the natural protector, but a benefit to us in a social way while living.

Full of thought Lyng-lun wandered to the land of Si-jang, where the bamboo grow. Having taken one of them he cut it off between two of the knots, and pushing out the pith blew into the hollow.

Even the dignity which hedges round the judicial bench is not always safe protection from conscious or unconscious sarcasm of too blunt witnesses.

Of course there was a laugh, and the judge's wit was rewarded with looks of admiration. But the witness, to show that he had every faith in its being a sure hope for human baldness at least, replied very innocently that, "If I didn't know it was necessary for your lordship to always wear a wig in this court, I should have declared that you had experimented with my hair restorer on Wednesday, I mean, the 11th."
