Clyde Workshop Draws Wayne Unit Members

More than 80 women attended the workshop conducted under sponsorship of Wayne Deanery at St. John's Hall, Clyde, Wednesday, Oct. 25. General chairmen for the affair were Mrs. George Ketchum and Mrs. Leon Stanziana.

THE WORKSHOP was presented to acquaint women with the available information being channeled from the National Council of Catholic Women through the Rochester Diocesan Council to the Deanery and through the Deanery to parish affiliates. It also provided a medium for exchange of ideas among thirteen parish and shared societies of the Deanery.

The group was addressed by Mrs. C. Fay Zimmerhanzer, Red Creek, president, and Mrs. Ketchum then described the procedure for the individual workshops. Mrs. Bruce T. Lynch, Wolcott, chairman of the organization and [illegible] presided for the morning session.
