FASSETT IS NOMINATED THE ELMIRA MAN CHOSEN ON THE FIRST BALLOT.

His Name to Head the New York Republican State Ticket-The Names of Carr, Wadsworth, Becker and Woodford Before the Convention for the Same Honors-Names of the Other Candidates Nominated for State Offices.

ROCHESTER, Sept. 10.—After the reading of a letter from Andrew D. White of Syracuse in the Republican convention here yesterday afternoon, in which he declined to be a candidate for the nomination of governor and expressed his gratitude to his friends for the interest they had manifested in his behalf, the chairman declared nominations in order.

State Senator Edmund O'Connor of Binizhamton was the first delegate on his feet with a nominating speech. He had been selected to place the name of

Mr. J. Sloat Fassett before the convention. In doing so he said that the name he was about to place in nomination would, he believed, be approved by the convention today and ratified by the voters of the State next November. It was sufficient to say that in a body containing such able and effective Republicans as Senator Sloan of Oswego, Senator Hendricks of Onondaga, and that able representative and handsome man from St. Lawrence (meaning State Senator Erwin) it would not be necessary to introduce the man he proposed to nominate because they all knew and would recognize him. Loyal to his country, loyal to his party, loyal to his family, the convention would recexpress and telegraph offices and a num- who never skulks, who is always ready to face the responsibility and is an uncompromising Republican and a believer in the reciprocity policy of the eminent secretary of state. [Great

> THINKS FASSETT WILL WIN. A man who for three years led the senate of this state with unparalleled brilliancy, he stands today without a scar upon his name or record. No honest Republican can urge a reason for a vote against him, we want him because he is an aggressive Republican and with such a leader as J. Sloat Fassett victory in November is assured. He has two qualities which come alone from providence, brains and conscience. He is as incorruptible as everlasting hills. Not a man in the state dare utter a word against his brilliancy or the integrity of his record. His name means victory and I believe his nomination will mean his election in November and the success of the whole ticket. I nominate J. Sloat Fassett of Chemung. Seymour Dexter of Chemung, in a brilliant speech, and amid applause, seconded the nomination of Mr. Fassett.

KINGS COUNTY'S CANDIDATE. William S. Williams of Kings county was then recognized and spoke as follows: Mr. Chairman — The delegates from the county of Kings are united upon a candidate for the office of governor of this state, whose nomination by this convention would, in their judgment, be synonymous with victory on Nov. 3. In presenting his name to you, I shall not attempt any of the arts by which a practiced convention orator would, stimulate your curiosity and harrow up your feelings. Our candidate is known to all of you, and to the people who sent you here, personally and by reputation, and without further preface I will tell you that he is Stewart L. Woodford of ENTHUSIASTIC FOR WOODFORD. Honored and respected from Montauk to Niagara, words of mine can add nothing to the estimation in which he is held by the people of this commonwealth. Twice they have passed upon his qualifications for exalted position and both times the verdict of the people was in his favor. In 1866 he received the certificate of the secretary of state for the office of lieutenant governor and served for two years in that capacity with brilliant credit to himself and with honor to the state. In 1870 the people elected him to the office for which we now place him in nomination, but the successful nomination of his unscrupulous opponents defrauded the people of their choice and he was shamelessly "counted out. Tweed, the patron saint of Democracy, confessed a few months before he died that General Woodford was actually elected governor of this state in 1870, but the exigencies of the desperate Democratic situation demanded that John T. Hoffman should receive the certificate of election and he got it.

WANTED TO TRY IT AGAIN. We believe that if the people were given an opportunity to reaffirm their choice of 1870 they would do it in a manner that would make a repetition of Tweed's fraud an absolute impossibility, even were the machinery of elections as debauched as it was twenty-one years ago. As a personal friend of General Woodford and a resident of Brooklyn, where he has lived as a type of the highest citizenship for a quarter of a century, I am proud to present his name to this convention; while, as a Republican who cherishes the traditions of his party and reveres the names and characters of its great leaders, the privilege accorded me today is especially gratifying, for in the annals of the Republican party of the Empire state there is no name that outshines that of Stewart L. Woodford. His eloquent voice pleading for Republican principles and Republican candidates has been heard in every canvass, from that which resulted in the election of the immortal Lincoln, to that which placed in the presidential chair our present honored chief magistrate, Benjamin Harrison. Therefore, in behalf of the delegates to this convention from the county of Kings, I respectfully nominate for governor the Hon. Stewart L. Woodford.

CARR'S NAME PRESENTED. James H. Potts of Renssalear rose in his place to present the name of General James B. Carr. His name was received with cheers. Mr. Potts spoke of General Carr's war record from the time he became colonel of the first regiment actually raised in New York state to the time he was appointed commander of the boys in blue of the state of New York by the commander-in-chief of all the boys in blue, Ulysses S. Grant. He then reviewed the political record of General Carr and spoke of the large majorities he received as a candidate for secretary of state. ExState Senator McArthur seconded the numination of General Carr. WADSWORTH'S NAME PRESENTED. General D. B. Butterfield rose to nomnext General Wadsworth. He said: The very agreeable duty is assigned me by ed delegation, not only of the county jorities are always assured for the Republican ticket, to represent our choice for the nomination of governor. Without disparagement to the gentleman who has been and will be pre-served for the nomination, and whose merits and claims are and will be so ably presented, we claim for our choice a record of private life and of public and patriotic service unsur-passed, if equalled. His character and record make an unexceptional candidate, free from trammels or embarrassment. We promise you his triumphant election if you make him our standard bearer at the head of our ticket; and in any event, like all true and earnest Republicans, his and our earnest and hearty support to sound Republican candidates and principles. I need hardly mention his name to you; it has been a Republican watchword for two generations: James W. Wadsworth of

The nomination of General Wadsworth was greeted with prolonged applause and cheers from the galleries and floor. LAUGHLIN FOR BECKER.

When it had subsided State Senator John Laughlin of Erie claimed the floor to nominate Philip Becker. He had to pause while the convention, on the suggestion of an enthusiast, gave three cheers and a tiger for General Wadsworth. Mr. Laughlin said:

Mr. Chairman and Gentlemen of the Convention—This convention of Republicans of the Empire state is one of the most important that has ever assembled. Our action today will determine whether or not the sceptre of power which has been so unjustly and arbitrarily wielded in the executive branch of our state government for the past nine years shall be wrested from the Democracy. The great county of Erie anxiously desiring to march in the Republican column and to preserve to our party the Queen City of the Lakes, our third municipality, and the largest city in this state to which Republicans can now turn with any hope of success, bids me counsel with you in your deliberations. We glory with you in the patriotic administration of President Harrison and particularly in the grand statesmanship with which our foreign relations are upheld by Secretary Blaine. We congratulate you upon the good feeling which prevails in our party ranks throughout the state and upon the splendid prospects of success which are before us if we make no mistakes here.

BUFFALO'S CANDIDATE. The city of Buffalo represents the candidate who meets every condition of the present want. We present him because we are proud of his loyal Republicanis n and his grand record as mayor of our city, has proven executive ability, his honesty and sterling integrity. We present him because we know that the hundreds of thousands who are burdened and ground down by municipal extravagance in our cities have read his ringing vetoes in defense of taxpayers of Buffalo and in favor of retrenchment and reform in municipal affairs and will gladly vote for him because of his record already made.

We name the best mayor our city has ever had-Hon. Phillip Becker of Buffalo. We do not urge that our candidate is better equipped in every way to serve our state as governor names have been canvassed in connection with that important office; but we do say that he is the peer of any of them in experience, executive ability and all that goes to make a good governor, and in addition to all this we are resolute in the belief that every consideration which should weigh in the selection of a candidate at this time, proves him to be the most available, the most certain of election.

Nominate him, and Erie county will give from 7,000 to 10,000 majority to the state ticket headed by her popular candidate, her honored citizen, and her tried and true public servant. Mr. O'Connor moved to proceed to ballotting. The motion was carried by an overwhelming majority and the clerk (6:25 p. m.) began to call the roll. VOTE OF THE CONVENTION.

pointed the chairman announced the re- shall be compactly grouped, rendering the Payne chairman of the committee, took the platform and read the committee report, as follows:

THE PLATFORM. The Republicans of the state of New York, by their chosen representatives, appeal to the electors and declare:

First-They adhere to the principles on which the national victory was won in 1888, by the decisive electoral votes of this state and they approve the legislation of the Fifty-first congress in the embodyment of these principles. Second—They commend the wisdom, patriotism and purity of the administration of President Harrison, who has brought himself near to the hearts of the people by his ability and idelity in the enforcement of the laws and the performance of his duties, and also by the admirable presentation of American principles which he made in his addresses to the people.

COMMENDERG THE ADMINISTRATION.

Third—The administration commands the confidence and respect of the American people by its intelligent, efficient and sagacious conduct of the public business in all the departments; especially by the ability and energy displayed by the distinguished citizens of this state in building a navy to become adequate to the national defenses; by the thorough and successful management of the vast transactions of the treasury under the present secretary and his lamented predecessor; and by the brilliant and conservative treatment of our foreign relations by the secretary of state which has raised the American name to the highest position over attacked sensing the ma-tions of the globs.

Proofs - The version has belon of the Pitty-intentive act is a just and proper application of the policy of protection to American labor, and the control of home markets for the industry of our own people; and the fruits of this legislation are increasing daily in the establishment of new factories, in steadier em-ployment to wage earners, in better prices to the farmer for the products of the soil, and in the assurance of financial independence for our country in the face of monetary distress throughout Europe and South America.

Fifth-By more adjusted treaties of reciprocity, the administration is opening the markets of the western world to our surplus farm products and manufacturers, by admitting free of duty such articles as we do not and can not produce in adequate quantity and securing in exchange the exemption from duties of such articles as it is profitable for farms and factories to export. The joint operation of such reciprocity and of the protective system and the restoration of the American fing to the ocean carrying trade, promises to develop our foreign commerce on a beautiful basis, advantageous to all industries.

THE SILVER QUESTION. Sixth-The act of July 14, 1890, provides for the purchase of the silver product of American mines and issuing of the new treasury notes protected by a reserve of one hundred cents worth of silver for every $1 issued. We commend this policy of maintaing gold and silver at a parily, the treasury rates paid for silver to be kept at par with gold. The voice of New York is emphatic against any degradation of the currency and demands with President Harrison that every dollar issued by the government, whether paper or coin, shall be as good as every other dollar.

Seventh The Republican party, not for getting the critical days when the needs of the republic counted neither blood nor treasure while mindful of the dictates of economy and avoiding reaction invited by excess of appropriations, favors the fulfillment of the pledges given to the soldiers of the Union that the nation which they saved would not fail in just treatment of surviving veterans, and of widows and orphans of those who sacrificed their lives that the nation might live.

THE NICARAUGUA CANAL. Eighth-That we approve the speedy construction of the Nicaraugua canal under American charter, by American enterprise and with American capital, as essential to national defense and to interests of interstate commerce and the trade of the continent. Ninth-We recognize the dignity of labor and the necessity of proper legislation to protect its interests. We deprecate any attempt to lessen the fruits of toil or to place honest workmen in competition with paupers and convicts, domestic or foreign. We indorse the provisions of the act known as the Fassett law and we condemn the erasure of the provisions of that act by the present state administration. The rigid enforcement of the alien labor contract law is commended. We indorse the laws enacted by the late Republican congress to protect our people against the influx of the vicious pauper and criminal classes of foreign nations; and we emphatically approve the rigid enforcement of these laws.

THE RIGHTS OF FRANCHISE. Tenth-We reassert the expressed determination of the Republican party to maintain to give all citizens the amplest protection to

Eleventh-We favor such legislation as will prevent all illegal combinations and unjust exactions by aggregated capital and corporate powers. We insist upon the suppression of all trusts, combines and schemes designed artificially to increase the price of the necessaries

Twelfth The cruelties and persecutions practiced upon the Jews in Russia are abhorrent to the sense of justice of this people; and the intervention of our government by all proper means to secure to the oppressed of all foreign nations equal rights under their laws is commended. CIVIL SERVICE REFORM.

Thirteenth-We reaffirm the Republican party's favor to genuine reform in the civil ervice and commend the national administration for giving effect thereto under existing law, and the frequent and persistent abuses in the state civil service by the Democratic administration are held up to condemnation. Fourteenth-Appeal is taken to the people of this state to redeem its government from discredit brought upon it by Democratic maladministration, the result of a personal despotism in the executive office, which has tolerated and fostered corruption and debauchery of the state departments, prostituted the canals, state prisons and public institutions. and all avenues to legislation to the ambition of an audacious and selfish executive. Thanks are given faithful Republican legislators who have combatted these conditions and so far as was in their power, rendered them incorra-

· LOCAL OPTION BY COUNTIES. Fifteenth-Issue has been joined by Republican legislatures and the Democratic governor on the limitation and restriction of the liquor traffic, and we reiterate our declaration for comprehensive and efficient legislation for giving local option by counties, towns and cities, and restriction by taxation in such localities as do not by option exclude the Sixteenth-That there is this year no state tax for "general purposes," and a consequent reduction of the tax levy which fixes the lowest rate of state tax in thirty-six years, is the result of wise and far-seeing Republican legislation, under which already direct taxation has been lessened more than $20,000,000 directly benefiting real estate and personal property, and at the same time establishing the state and municipal credit at the highest level. This work of equalizing and relieving the burdens of taxation should be continued to completion on the same lines.

Seventeenth-The refusal of the Democratic assembly to allow investigation of the state canals and the large expenditures annually made thereon, was confession the jobbery and dishonest perversion of the public property to base uses. The effort of the Republican party of the late legislature to enforce economy on the public works, thwarted by Democratic opposition, is heartily commended. Eighteenth—The denial by a Democratic speaker of the legislature of the right of petition, in the instance of the memorial of clergymen of all denominations, and many other citizens, was a flagrant and inexcusable violation of the rights of the people and has our reprobation. Nineteenth-We favor the amendment of the ballot law by the substitution for the unofficial paster ballot of the blanket, official As soon as the committee had been ap- ballot upon which the names of candidates equal justice, lessening opportunities for fraud, bribery and corruption and largely reducing the expense of election. Twentieth-We approve the principle that the government of citizens is previously a matter of business administration and the enactment of laws to secure for all the cities of the state genuine home rule, the enactment of a law to require a general and uniform system of municipal accounting and the adoption of an amendment to the constitution requiring the passage of a general bill for the government of citizens. Twenty-first—The passage of the direct tax refunding bill by a Republican congress and its approval by the Republican president, returned to this state $2,213,000, which would have been distributed to the several counties as their just due, but for Democratic opposition in the legislature.

FAVOR A WORLD'S PAIR EXHIBIT. Twenty-second—We denounce the unpatriotic effort of David B. Hill through the last Democratic assembly to place this state in an unfriendly attitude towards the World's Col-umbian exposition to be held in Chicago in 1892; that we recognize the necessity for an exhibition by the state in keeping with its com-mercial and industrial supremacy in the na-tion; and that we favor early action by the next legislature providing for a proper exhibit for the state. Twenty-third-It is a fundamental principle of Republican policy to reduce taxation and

The platform was adopted without dis-sent. At this point in the proceedings the committee excerted Mr. Fassett to the Sixtures Pictures Candlesticks platform amid tumultous applause. The band played "Hail to the Chief."

MR. FASSETT'S REMARKS. After quiet had been restored Mr. Fassett spoke as follows: Mr. Chairman, Republicans of the State of New York—What you want from me is work not words. Were I. however, not to express to you how deeply I am touched to my inmost heart by this exhibition of confidence I should be above human nature or beneath it. [Applause.] I have been a Republican all my life. [Applause.] The fundamental principles of Republicanism I learned in my mother's lap and at my father's knee. [Applause.] With the passing years, with ripening experience and a deeper knowledge of human life I have come year by year to esteem higher the party of Fremont and Lincoln, of Chase and Seward, of Harrison and

I regard your call as a command to undertake this fight against the Democratic party and all that it implies of Hillism and Tammanyism. To that I propose to devote all my strength and skill. But that is not success. We can win, but you must do it. [Cries of "We will."]

ONE THING AT A TIME. My acceptance means my immediate retirement from a place of honor and pre-ferment, bestowed by your choice of 1888.

One thing at a time. There are two pictures for the grand Builders' Hardware jury of New York to pass on in this campaign—the legislative record of the Republican party for nine years and the record of the Democracy for the same time. I challenge the Democratic picture in vain for one feature that makes for righteousness. Audacious resistance to the voice of the people and of the co-ordinate branch of the government, I see all through the picture. I see in that record the epitome of Democratic existence. The principles of Democracy are represented in two centers of the state—two cyclone centers-New York and Albany. What is triumphant Democracy? It is the perpetual, persistent effort to prostitute to political individual and party purposes the great powers of public office.

ALWAYS GREETED.

The Republican party has always been greatest and never defeated when its eyes were fixed on principles. It was not the commanded success. The Democratic party is always quarreling about the leadership. It has written over its halls "no farmer need apply." It has written over its halls "no workingman need apply," and sundry other legends. When I find myself in such a happy family as this it appears that I am a mo-

When order was restored Mr. Sloan of Oswego took the floor and in a brief speech nominated John W. Vrooman for lieutenant governor. He asked that the nomination be made by acclamation. A vote was taken and Mr. Vrooman was declared nominated. Mr. Burtis of Kings placed in nomination for secretary of state ex-State Senator E. F. O'Connor. The nomination was made by acclamation. Mr. Vedder of Cattaraugus nominated for comptroller Arthur C. Wade of Chautaugua. He asked his nomination "in the sacred name of reciprocity." [Laughter] and applause.] As Mr. Vedder proceeded there were cries of "name him" and other evidences of levity. Mr. Vedder kept on though until he was quite through. Mr. Wade was nominated by acclamation. Clarence Sexton of Rockland nominated Ira B. Hedges of Rockland for treasurer. His nomination was also made unani

Mr. Werner of Monroe, in a long speech nominated William A. Sutherland of Monroe for attorney general. The nomination was made by acclamation.

Andrew S. Draper moved and the convention adopted the motion making the nomination of Verplanck Colvin for state engineer and surveyor by acciamation. The customary resolutions of thanks and the resolution authorizing the state committee to fill vacancies were passed.

SOME CONFUSION. The convention hall was in great confusion, delegates leaving, and on motion of Mr. Husted the state committee was authorized to appoint an additional member-at-large in order that colored brothers might be represented. The convention then, at 7:54, on motion of some person, or persons, unidentified, adjourned without delay. A mass meeting was held in front of the Powers' hotel last night and a number of representative Republicans addressed a
