MISSION AT LYONS.

Many Non-Catholics in Attendance-Conversions Reported.

Special to the Catholic Journal The mission which has been in proress at St. Michael's church for the past week, under the direction of Revs. Smith and Cullinan, two Paulist Fathers from New York City, closed Sunday evening jast. The services throughout have been well attended by the members of the congregations and a large number approached the sacraments. Several conversions are reported Many non-Catholics attended, attracted by the eloquence of the missionary lathers and the desire to see the interior of the handsome new church, which, its altars decked faithful of the parish, appeared to the York music teachers' association.
