15th Annual Breakfast Set By Eucharistic Unit

More than 300 women are expected to attend the Fifteenth Annual Communion-Breakfast of The Women's Eucharistic League that will take place in St. Francis of Assisi Church at 8:15 a.m. by Father Joseph Cirrincione, Spiritual Director.

The Women's Eucharistic League, counterpart or auxiliary of the Men's Noctural Adoration Society, was formed in 1948 as a parochial branch of the People's Eucharistic League. It soon began to attract members from outside St. Francis Parish and in the fifteen years of its existence, over 1,200 women have been received into the organization. Today it numbers over 800 active members from almost every city and suburban parish.

MEMBERS PROMISE to make one Holy Hour a month in St. Francis of Assisi Church on a Saturday evening of their choice. There is a Holy Hour in St. Francis Church every Saturday night at 8. When impeded, members may make their Holy Hour elsewhere at their own convenience.

The Holy Hour consists of the recitation of a portion of the Office of the Blessed Sacrament, the Rosary, a sermon, silent adoration and Benediction.

There has been remarkable growth in devotion to the Blessed Sacrament on the part of members as evidenced from the fact that although members promise to make one Holy Hour a month, many of them make more than one; some even make one daily. During the past year, 13,416 extra Holy Hours were made by members which, added to the 7,140 made at St. Francis, brought the total to 20,556. During the last fifteen years over 120,000 Holy Hours have been recorded.

Reception of new members is held approximately every three months, on the fifth Sunday of any month. The reception ceremony is conducted according to the program of The Blessed Sacrament Fathers who chartered the local chapter of the Eucharistic League.

Medalist Award

In the recent ratings made by Columbia Scholastic Press Association, Nazareth Academy's literary magazine Spectrum received the Medalist award. Medalist rank is given "for outstanding qualities" to not more than ten per cent of First Place magazines.

Critical comment accompanying the award stated that the magazine's contributions are "mature, timely, refreshingly up-to-date in approach." The handling of religious and moral themes "in a sophisticated, mature manner" was especially commended.

The editors of the award-winning magazine were Marcia Raine and Ann Muldowney, both of whom are now attending D'Youville College.

Spectrum is currently in its third year of publication, under the co-editorship of Marilyn Heh and Joanne Rearo. Manuscripts are submitted by students independently or through English classes. Contests are during the year by the Writers Pool, a description of which appears in the April CSSPA magazine, entitled "They Run A Writers Pool." The article was written by Sister M. Christina of the Nazareth faculty.

Three Nazareth students have poems appearing in The Student Writer: Marilyn Heh, "Last Night"; Linda Bloom, "Aftermath"; and Kathleen Crowley, "Storehouse."

Africa Debate

Rochester Association for the United Nations will sponsor a model meeting of the Political Committee of the General Assembly under the auspices of its Junior Council on April 25 from 4 to 6 p.m. at Columbia School.

Area high schools will send delegates representing member nations of the UN to discuss the question of apartheid in South Africa. St. Agnes High School representatives, Elvira Vilkas and Susan Stanwix, will present Canada's viewpoint on the question.

Following the debate, students will attend dinner and hear as guest speaker Robert O. Blake, the advisor on Political and Security Affairs at the United States Mission to the UN.

About forty Mercians are expected to attend a model UN Special Political Committee meeting at the Columbia School April 25.

Two seniors, Donna Klingler, Mercy's senior delegate to the Junior Council of the Rochester Association for the United Nations, and Kathy Ashenburg, will be representatives. Sister Mary Beatrice, international issues teacher, is assisting Mercy participants in their preparations.

The discussion will be followed by a dinner and a speaker from the UN, Robert Blake.
