
NAZARETH COLLEGE opens its senior art exhibit today through May 26. Preparing the exhibits are from left Elaine Opitz, Terri Cupolo, Elaine Klingler and Frances Rinaldi.

Art Exhibit Scheduled At Nazareth College

Examples of the best work of nine Nazareth College senior art students will be on display at the college May 17 through May 26. The art exhibit, an annual event at the college, will open with a public reception for this Friday from 7-9 p.m.

THE EXHIBIT will be open to the public daily from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Paintings, graphics, sculpture, drawings and a wide variety of crafts will be on display in the exhibit which takes the place of a comprehensive examination for the art department seniors.

Four Rochester girls are included in the group of exhibitors. They are: Teresa Cupolo, 35 Irondequoit Boulevard; Elaine Klingler, 302 Pine Crest Drive, Frances Rinaldi, 199 Spruce Lane; and Elaine Opitz, 455 Driving Park Avenue.

Other exhibitors will be: Katherine Brett, Watertown; Jill Case, Windham; Charlotte Eastham, Flushing; Colleen Lynch, Saratoga Springs; and Christine Nelson, Utica.

Sister M. Magdalen, S.S.J. is chairman of the art department. Other faculty members are Miss Patricia Walsh; On Mi Shu, Sister Marie Angela and Tom Wilson, who is also Design Consultant at Eastman House.

The four year program in art leads to a B.S. degree with a major in art or art education. Offered are courses in drawing, painting, design, ceramics, graphic arts, sculpture, art history and advanced design problems in a wide variety of materials. A program in art teaching methods and experience in cadet teaching is also provided for all students desiring to teach on either the elementary or secondary level.

Graduates of the program are fully qualified to teach at the elementary or secondary level in New York State schools.

Outdoor Mass In Coldwater

In addition to the regular Sunday Masses at Holy Ghost Church on Coldwater Road (7, 8:15, 9:30, 11 and 12:15 a.m.), a Mass will be celebrated at 4 p.m. on Sunday, May 19 at the Lourdes Shrine on the terrace of the church, especially for the handicapped and shut-ins.

Opportunity for the reception of Penance and Holy Communion in the cars will be given by the priests in attendance. There will be ample parking facilities for all who come.

THE MASS will be offered by the pastor, the Rev. Albert J. Geiger in honor of the Blessed Mother for Marita Bernadette Entress in whose memory the shrine was erected in 1958. Lourdes water from the shrine in France is made available at all times by the Joseph Entress family.

A May procession of the first Communicants will feature the crowning of the statue of the Blessed Virgin and the school band of forty instruments will make its second public appearance, under the direction of Mr. Melville.

Home-School Unit To Meet In Clyde

Clyde — The May meeting of the Home School Association of St. John's School will be held on Tuesday, May 21, at 8 p.m. in the school hall.

THE AGENDA will consist mainly of a report on the facilities that are available to St. John's students at McAuley College in Rochester. A group of parents will tour the college on May 18, and give a full report on the Reading Laboratory, the Speech Clinic and the Testing and Guidance Center.

They will observe actual classes in session at the special observation room which is equipped with mirropane glass.

The Reading Laboratory is for students from 2nd grade through college, regardless of religious affiliation. Personality analysis, achievement and diagnostic tests, psychological tests, speech evaluation, manual dexterity and vocational aptitude tests are part of the services available. Summer sessions are held at St. Michael's School, Newark.

Also on the program will be the voting for next year's officers. Mrs. Luella Dehm, chairman of the nominating committee, has prepared a list of nominees.

Sodality Lists May Crowning

Mt. Morris — The Children of Mary Sodality of St. Patrick's parish will hold its annual reception on Sunday May 19.

The Sodalists will receive Communion in a body at the 10:15 a.m. Mass which is being said in honor of the Blessed Virgin Mary by the Rev. John L. Coonan, assistant pastor.

THE RECEPTION will open at 3 p.m. at the church with fifty members in a procession singing the Litany of the Blessed Virgin Mary. The Rev. Dominic J. Grasso, pastor, will receive the new members into the sodality.

A shrine placed on the side altar will be adorned with white and blue flowers.

Miss Mary Ann Nasca, a sophomore at St. Agnes High School, Rochester, chosen to reign over the May Day ceremonies, will crown the Blessed Virgin, Queen of May, while sodalists sing the crowning hymn.

The attendants will be Miss Ann Marie Randazzo, also a sophomore at St. Agnes High School and Miss Mary Ann Tripp, a junior at Mt. Morris Central School. Miss Rose Marie Bozzette will carry the crown.

Ceremonies will close after which Sodalists will play hostess to their mothers.

Scholarship Dance Set

PARENTS CLUB of Most Precious Blood School will hold its 5th annual scholarship dance May 18 in the parish auditorium starting at 9:30 p.m. with music by the Souvenirs. Shown above are Mrs. Joseph Vetromile, chairman, and Sam Stendardo, cochairman.

One Pin Lead Maintained In HN Tourney

Only one day remains, with Joe's Barber Shop 3089 handicap series still high for the top spot in the 28th annual Holy Name bowling championship tourney, with the J. B. Bombers just one pin behind.

In the final week of kegling action, the Mt. Morris Lanes crew moved into third place with a 3077 handicap score and also took over both the high team single scratch and handicap game honors with its 1099 and 1161 totals. Sarge Santini hit 648 and Len Vasile 602 to lead the team.

The Kimaid and Mattar quintet from Buffalo posted 2783-291 for a total of 3074 to gain fourth position. Otto Orf fired a hot 700 series to lead the team with his games of 227, 289 and 204. This gave Orf high individual three game scratch and third high individual scratch. Izydor Bloom (Medina) forged into second for high individual three game scratch with his 687, dropping Carmen Griffo (Geneseo) into third spot with his 691.

Matthews and Field Lumber five of Rochester edged into fifth place with a 3059 handicap score and also tied Car-Lea Restaurant for second high team three game scratch with its 2909 count. Three members of the team shot over 600. Randy Foggett posted a 659, Jim Simonelli added 649 and Roger Raymond 606.

The 1963 tournament, the second largest in the association's history, with 1314 team entries from New York and Pennsylvania, opened on April 20 and concludes this Sunday, May 19, at the Fairview Lanes, 1407 Fairport Road, Fairport, New York.

Joseph Gagner is president of the Catholic Men's Bowling Ass'n., sponsors of the annual championship event, with Fred Enders, secretary and tournamment manager. Other officers are Gerald Buckert and James McKeon, first and second vice presidents and John McDermott, treasurer. Rev. Francis J. Pognam, pastor of St. Thomas More Church in Brighton, is the spiritual director of the group.
