Punch and Judy

The traditional puppet show, Punch and Judy, will be presented by Blackfriars at Memorial Art Gallery on July 25, 30, 31 and Aug. 1. Photos show Mrs. W. Wallace Comfort sewing one of the puppets for the show as daughter, Martha, looks on. The stars of the show, Punch and Judy, are shown in the center. John H. Horton, who will be the voice of Punch, looks over the finished puppet.

Final Programs In TV Series

The final programs in the "Exploring the Universe" series seen Wednesdays at 8:30 p.m. on Channel 10, will be shown Aug. 7 and 14. The series which features Dave Garroway as moderator is sponsored by Rochester Institute of Technology.

"The Challenge of the Space Age" gives Garroway the opportunity to ask Dr. Robert Jastrow and Dr. Philip Abelson if we are in danger of overreaching ourselves in our explorations of space. This discussion is scheduled for Aug. 7.

On Aug. 14 the "Values and Limitations of Science" will be discussed by Dr. I. I. Rabi of Columbia University, the winner of the 1944 Nobel Prize in physics, and Dr. Robert Oppenheimer, director of the Institute for Advanced Studies at Princeton and former director at Los Alamos.

Pope of Many Languages

Vatican City—(RNS)—Pope Paul's command of languages was quickly illustrated in the first days of his pontificate.

In his talk on peace and the Vatican's relations with the nations of the world, made before diplomats of 50 nations, the pontiff used the diplomatic language: French.

In addressing 1,000 American pilgrims from Philadelphia, he spoke in English.

According to Cardinal Wyszynski, Primate of Poland, Pope Paul conversed with him in Polish at an audience.

'Carnival' Opening Set At Town and Country

All the color and magic of a continental circus will be on stage at Town and Country Musicals in East Rochester, July 31-Aug. 4, when Broadway's recent smash hit, Carnival, will be presented.

Based on the memorable movie, Lili, the story is tenderly romantic and unashamedly heartwarming, set in the tinselly world of a smalltime traveling circus in France. A beguiling French waif wanders onto the show's lot as its shabby tents are being set up, and, in her eyes, the midway becomes a world of magical make-believe.

LILI BECOMES especially enchanted with the show's suave magician, while a surly puppeteer loses his heart to her. One of the show's most endearing elements is that the puppeteer can speak to Lili with warmth and gentleness, only through his puppets. In the end, the winsomeness of the puppets enables her to prefer the imaginative man who animates them to the slick magician whose magic is only trickery.

Playing the part of Lili will be Susan Lehman, whose wide variety of stock roles ranges from Carrie Pipperidge in Carrousel to Annie in Annie Get Your Gun. In the Broadway production of I Can Get It For You Wholesale, she understudied and went on for both Barbara Streisand and Bambi Linn.

Tom Ulrich, who played Dr. Giaus and has sung for the lead in the national company of Carnival, will be paul the puppeteer. As Jacquot, the puppeteer's assistant, Dick Latessa will have one of the show's outstanding musical numbers, "Grand Imperial Cirque de Paris," in which he day-dreams of making the big time in Paris. Richard Kinter will be Schlegel, the cynical circus owner. In addition to others in the cast, there will be a whole carnival-full of circus performers.

Rodgers' and Hart's great musical, The Boys From Syracuse, will be at Town and Country Musicals, in the air-conditioned East Rochester High School Theatre, through July 21. Tickets for all shows may be purchased at the theatre box office; for phone reservations, the number to call is DUdley 1-1001.

Vision, Hearing Clinics Listed

A free vision and hearing screening clinic sponsored by the Monroe County Department of Health in cooperation with the Health Association of Rochester and Monroe County will be held July 22, 23, 24, 25, at the Brockport Central School, Allen St., Brockport; July 22, 23, 24 at No. 14 School, 200 University Ave.; July 25, at Adams Basin Nursing Office, 216 Washington St., Adams Basin; July 26, at St. John's Lutheran Church, West Lake Road, Hamlin. From 10-11:30 a.m. and from 1-3 p.m.

The clinic is held for 3, 4 and 5 year olds and parents are urged to take this opportunity to have their pre-school children's ears and eyes examined.

Married Dutch Cleric To Be Priest

Groningen — (RNS) — Pope John XXIII granted permission for a married Dutch Reformed clergyman to be ordained a Roman Catholic priest, it was reported here by two news agencies.

The Netherlands Catholic News Agency and the Netherlands News Agency said the late pontiff authorized ordination of the Rev. J. Loos, 55, who became a Dutch Reformed Church clergyman in 1933 and converted to Catholicism in 1955.

Ordination will take place in "due courses," the agencies said.

The report recalled the authorization granted in 1951 by Pope Pius XII for the ordination of a former Lutheran pastor in Germany, the Rev. Rudolf Goethe. At that time, German Catholic sources reported that several converted married Protestant pastors were ordained following World War II and assigned to teaching and welfare work.

Nourishment In Noodles

Washington, —(NC)— Famed "Noodle Priest" Msgr. John Romaniello, M.M., of Hong Kong got FPC (fish protein concentrate) in noodles, bread and cookies served at a luncheon given in his honor by Secretary of the Interior Stewart Udall.

FPC, a flour-like powder made from fish, contains nearly all the essential amino acids necessary for human health. Secretary Udall believes it can be used to fill the hungar gap for millions throughout the world.

Msgr. Romaniello is director in Hong Kong of Catholic Relief Services-National Catholic Welfare Conference, worldwide relief agency of U.S. Catholics. The Maryknoll priest has helped feed thousands of Chinese refugees by setting up noodle-making centers in Hong Kong at which he converts U.S government-donated food into noodles.

Priests Join Protest March

Chicago —(RNS)—A sizeable contingent of Roman Catholics, mostly young white priests, stood out among more than 20,000 marchers who staged an hour-long civil rights demonstration through the downtown Loop area here

The march along State Street culminated in a mass rally in Grant Park, held in conjunction with the 54th annual convention of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

The Catholic marchers joined other demonstrators in the chanting of "Freedom Now!" and "Down with Segregation!"

Michigan Proposes Pre-Marriage Counsel

Detroit—(NC)—Circuit Court Judge Alfonse A. Magnotta has proposed a bill which would make marriage counseling mandatory for engaged couples and those seeking divorce.

The bill, which is to be introduced in the Michigan State Legislature shortly, reportedly has the favor of Gov. George Romney and many legislators.

The measure would provide that at least six hours of marital counseling be taken by couples contemplating marriage before issuance of a license. The counseling must be received within one year before applying for a license to wed.

It also would provide that divorces not be granted to couples with children under 18 years of age unless they have taken six hours of counseling in domestic relations with a view toward reconciliation.

The jurist said he is not against divorce since in some cases there is no other choice. "But I don't think we are doing enough to preserve marriages."

Dave Brubeck Quartet

Dave Brubeck, internationally acclaimed as one of the world's foremost jazz personalities, will bring the Dave Brubeck Quartet to the stage of the Eastman Theatre on Aug. 1, as soloists with the Arangers' Holiday Orchestra, Ray Wright, conductor.
