ND Scores First Win

By MIKE MORAN

The Notre Dame Crusaders consummated their first win of the season Saturday night as they put down the Hornell Raiders 14-7.

THE CRUSADERS gained yardage chiefly through passes, but the outstanding running of Tony Cicotti and Ron Limoncelli was a great asset to the squad.

Rosplock and Knott were the heroes of the evening as they marched down the field on their passing offense.

Bill Knott was also responsible for blocking two Raider punts, one of which placed the Crusaders in a scoring position.

N.D.'s first touch down was credited to Tony Cicotti as he scampered 57 yards on a pass interception. The second TD was scored by Jerry Rosplock as he recovered a fumble and went over the goal line.

Tom Cleri kicked the pigskin for the extra pain for the second time in the evening.

Tommy Moretti of Hornell scored their only TD as he scrambled up the middle of the ND line for a 78 yard run. Dave Tisbulsky booted the extra point for the Raiders.

Next Saturday the Crusaders will meet Athens on Pennsylvania ground at 2 p.m. Now that the Crusaders have tasted their first victory of the season they will fight hard to win another encounter.

Mercy Sisters Slate Institute

Guest speakers at the Sisters of Mercy Community Institute, to be held Oct. 11, include a noted philosopher, a college president, a modern language and linguistics professor, a consultant in the teaching of English, and an expert in test construction. "Excellence in Education" will be the theme of the day, according to Sister Mary Beatrice, institute chairman.

THE REV. ERNAN McMULLIN, assistant professor of philosophy at the University of Notre Dame, editor of the 1963 publication, The Concept of Matter, will deliver the keynote address: "Christian Commitment to Learning." Father McMullin will also serve as a consultant in a panel discussion, "Religious Education in High School."

Sister Helen Daniel, president of Nazareth College, will take up the subject of human relations in her talk entitled "The Nun in the World."

Professor D. Lincoln Canfield, chairman of the foreign language department of the University of Rochester, will share his knowledge of linguistics as he develops the concept: "Culture is Communication."

Miss Catherine Sullivan, consultant in the field of English, University of Rochester, College of Education, will discuss techniques of teaching composition in the elementary grades in her talk entitled, "Off to a Good Start."

Dr. John P. McGuire, New York State Education Department test consultant, will discuss "New Developments in the Regents Examination Program," addressing his remarks to teachers of the elementary grades.

Science lecture demonstrations will be conducted for both elementary and secondary teachers of science, followed by a question period.

The Rochester Rundel Library has provided an exhibit of 200 of the latest children's books. The New York State Education Department has made available over 200 of its publications, together with lists of their available brochures. An exhibit of science material and equipment will likewise be on display for both elementary and secondary levels.

The conference will begin with Mass, celebrated by the Rev. Daniel Brent, Assistant Superintendent of Catholic Schools in the Rochester diocese. Mother Mary Bride, Mother General of the Sisters of Mercy, will welcome the delegates at the initial convocation. The Rev. P. David Finks will conclude the program with benediction.

Parents Meet At Seminary

First meeting for the fall season of the St. Andrew's Seminary Parents' Association will be held at the seminary on Buffalo Rd., on Monday evening, Oct. 7 at 8 p.m.

PARENTS OF new students are extended an invitation to join with the parents of upper classmen in furthering our common objective, the preparation of our sons for the major seminary and the holy priesthood," a spokesman stated.

This first meeting is extremely important, according to Monsignor Richard Quinn, seminary rector, who will discuss how parents and the seminary work together toward the spiritual and intellectual development of the seminarians.

Forty Hours

Devotions of the Forty Hours will be conducted in the following Churches of the Diocese of Rochester:

Sunday, Oct. 6 — Annunciation, Holy Apostles, St. Andrew, St. Anne, St. Charles Borromeo, Rochester; St. Alphonsus, Auburn; Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Brockport; St. Patrick, Macedon.

St. Patrick, Corning; St. Charles Borromeo, Elmira Heights.

Hat Sale Preview

Mrs. Arnold Bentley (in photo) is getting a preview of the hundreds of hats which will be featured at the hat sale sponsored by the St. John the Baptist Rosary Guild, Elmira, on Wednesday evening, Oct. 9 from 7 p.m. until 10 p.m.

THE SALE will include fall and winter hats in a great variety of styles, fabrics and colors at one price, $3.98.

Mrs. Ruth Klebert and Mrs. Adrian Hulsebosch, cochairmen of the affair, have announced that refreshments will be served throughout the evening.

Tickets for the event are available from any Rosary Guild member or may be purchased at the door.

Notre Dame Highlights

Flags are flying over Notre Dame Stadium, Elmira, as paint brushes are put away for the last time.

The class of '64, which has held four paint parties over the past two school years, recently put the finishing touches on the stadium and its 5050 seats.

They have in the process: applied 18 five-gallon cans of flat white and 12 five-gallon cans of blue and gold paint to themselves and the boards. They have used five gallons of turpentine and miles of rags to restore themselves, 15 pairs of burmudas and 12 sweatshirts to a wearable condition.

The painters have consumed 320 bottles, or 16 cases of pop, 40 pounds of hot dogs, 180 bags of chips, dozens of weiner rolls and an undeterminable amount of catsup, mustard, relish and patience.

ND thanks go to the painters' Honor Roll of Betty Amisano, Chris Dooher, Lynn MacNamara, John Bayzk, John Hughes, Ned Mahoney, Tom Murphy, Pete Snyder, Ben D'Aloisio and the many more unsung but painted heroes.

Nazareth Grads Hold Luncheon

Corning — Twenty-five Nazareth College alumnae attended a luncheon at the Country Club Saturday, following the 11 o'clock mass at St. Vincent de Paul's Church.

GUEST SPEAKER was the Rev. William Shannon, chaplain at the college in Rochester. His topic was "The Aims of the Ecumenical Council."

Other guests were the Rev. John Roach of St. Patrick's parish, and the Rev. William Thomas of St. Vincent's, both assistant pastors.

Cochairmen of the luncheon were Mrs. Joseph Reilly and Mrs. Thomas McHenry Jr.

Mass Scheduled For PS Pupils

Ithaca—There will be a special Mass on Saturday morning, Oct. 5, at 11 a.m. in Immaculate Conception Church for public school children who attend the Saturday morning Confraternity School of Religion Classes held in Immaculate Conception School.

Parents are asked to bring their children to the Parochial School at the usual time, 9:30 a.m. on Saturday. They may pick them up at Church at 11:30 a.m.

Communism Classes

Washington—(NC)—The National Education Association has urged that children taught about communism in elementary schools to clear up a "hodgepodge" of ideas children have about communism and its leaders.

Noted Newsman Heard At Bath

Bath — George Cavanaugh, widely known newswriter, parliamentarian and electrochemist of Syracuse was to speak at the meeting of the Rosary and Altar Society, Wednesday.

His topic was "Communism and Mary." All women of the parish were invited.

Cavanaugh is chief chemist of General Electric Company. He is a member of the board of directors of the American Institute of Parliamentarians, a certified professional parliamentarian, author of "Simplified Parliamentary Practice" and numerous magazine articles.

Before going to General Electric, he was a reporter and Sunday feature writer for the Cleveland News.

Training Course Set In Ithaca

Ithaca — A Training Course consisting of three Monday evening sessions was begun in Ithaca on last Monday evening in Room 108 of Immaculate Conception School.

CONDUCTED BY Sister Paula of the Mission Helpers of the Sacred Heart, the Course is being held for Leaders and Co-leaders of the Mothers Circles in the Ithaca area, and also for any persons interested in a short training course for leaders of other groups, such as discussion clubs, etc.

The two remaining sessions, to be held on Monday evenings, in Oct. 7 and 14, will begin at 7:45 p.m. and conclude at 9:30 p.m.

Further information may be obtained by calling the Mission Helpers at AR 3-2313.

New Slate In Livingston
