Whalen To Have Display, Sale

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Whalen of East Ave. will have a special display and sale of Mexican and European imports at the annual bazaar and Christmas sale sponsored by the Women's Society of Christian Service of Genesee Methodist Church at the Village Building on Friday and Saturday, Nov. 8 and 9.

The Whalens will leave early in December for Monterrey, Mexico where they hope to establish another clinic. This one is to be for expectant mothers and infants. A few years ago in cooperation with a local priest and doctor they established the Blessed Martin de Porres dispensary.

Here medical supplies and foods are furnished to the needy Mexicans. During their stay of four months last year more than 2,000 persons participated in the program. Supplies for the project are provided through their friends in the states.

There will be special booths for handmade articles, baked foods, miscellaneous items, new to your clothing, and many Christmas decorations and gift articles.

Irish Edge Kingston Meet Bp. Walsh Next

By WHIT JOHNSON

In Pennsylvania, they call it the Aquinas curse. For three straight years, Aquinas had spoiled Kingston Catholic the first touchdown, then sailed back to win. And in the last two years, Kingston has led up to the last minute of play only to be dogged by the Little Irish.

This year it was going to be different. Kingston, rolling a five game win streak, boasted a team of 11 steady players, one of their best in recent years. They remembered their 20-19 defeat at the hands of the Irish last year; this year they would get revenge.

Following the formula of past years, Kingston jumped out in an early advantage and pounced off the field at half time leading 6-0. It was the Queenmen's tremendous team speed, especially in getting five blockers ahead of the ball carrier on wide sweeps, that accounted for Kingston's edge.

AQUINAS CAME back strong in the second half, and played 23 minutes of catch up against superlative defensive work of Kingston. An interception by Jim Catone, with just over a minute to play put new life into the Irish. A series of short, deadly passes by Mike Piehler moved Aquinas to scoring position and, with seconds left, Piehler connected with Kevin Barrett to tie the score. Lou Spiotti's extra point kick gave Aquinas the win.

All in all, it was a tight well played ball game that moved Aquinas over another hard-hitter on its imposing schedule.

On Sunday, Nov. 3, Aquinas plays host to Bishop Walsh High School of Olean at Aquinas Memorial Stadium. Game time is 2 p.m.

Walsh's record is identical with Aquinas', 3 wins and 3 losses. Last year Bishop Walsh humiliated the Little Irish with a 19-7 drubbing at Olean.

MIKE CROWLEY

More than a passing interest will be shown in the results of the Aquinas-Walsh fray. Walsh fell victim to McQuaid Jesuit High School in Olean earlier in the season. Walsh and Jamestown, the only common foes of the Irish and the Knights, will provide ample conversation material for arm chair strategists.

Bishop Walsh will be without the service of starting center David Nupp who injured his leg last week-end.

Aquinas hopes to regain the services of Mike Crowley, starting guard, who has been sidelined under doctor's orders for three weeks.

Mooney Hands McQuaid J.V.'s First Defeat 12-6

The Cardinal Mooney J.V. football team extended its winning streak to six games by handing a stubborn McQuaid J.V. team their first defeat, 12-6, last Saturday, Oct. 26 at the Aquinas Stadium. The outcome of the game was not decided until the final minutes of the game when Jim Butler broke away for 63 yards to set up the final score. Both teams exhibited strong defensive units throughout the game.

The Cardinals scored the first time they had possession, gaining 80 yards in 9 plays, highlighted by runs of 31, 1-4 and 22 yards by halfback Jim Butler who ended the drive with a two yard plunge. The kick for the extra point was wide.

McQuaid entered the scoring column during the second quarter when a recovered Mooney fumble placed them on the Cardinal's 32 yard line. Taking advantage of penalties against the Cardinals, the Knights moved the ball with a series of line plunges until Bob Miller carried the ball into pay dirt. The first half ended with the game tied 6-6.

THE THIRD period found Cardinal Mooney controlling the ball but never able to penetrate deeply into McQuaid territory. Craig Smith, and Mark Schiller were responsible for much of the defensive play for the Knights.

With five minutes remaining in the game, the Cardinals were thrown for losses and were deep in their own territory. On third down, however, Butler broke the game open by sweeping left end and reversing his field to put his team in scoring position. He had good blocking from teammates Jerry Briatt and John Merkel. Line plunges by fullback Dan Bojara and a quarterback sneak by Ken Harrington placed the ball on the three yard line where Bojara carried the ball on the final score. The attempted kick for the extra point failed.

The Cardinal's defensive unit, led by Bob Hendl, Dan McBride, Dave Slekes, Ted Ferrari, Ken Khuns, Mike Callahan and Tim Lanpher, deserve credit for their fine play of the afternoon. Jim Butler was the leading rusher, gaining 175 yards in 14 carries.

Cardinal Mooney will play Batavia High School J.V. on Saturday, Nov. 2 at Batavia, beginning at 2 p.m.

In a freshman football contest, the McQuaid frosh defeated the Mooney frosh 18-12.

Vatican Council Talk Given By Fr. Atwell

Seneca Falls — How the different religions are being brought to a better understanding of each other by the Vatican Council was told by Rev. Henry A. Atwell, editor of the Catholic Courier Journal at St. Patrick's Guild and Altar Society, banquet here Monday evening.

The 24th annual dinner held at Gould Hotel also had Rev. John B. Kleinjes, pastor of Guardian Angels Church, Henrietta, as guest. He issued an invitation to all to visit his new parish.

FATHER ATWELL, recently returned from Rome, explained how a Pope was elected. To learn more of the Vatican Council, he asked all to read magazine articles on the Council to become "informed and reformed."

Mrs. Nicholas Gentile was toastmistress. Mrs. Carmen Martello, new president extended the welcome and presented her new officers.

A check for $421.88 was presented to Rev. John P. O'Beirne, pastor to use for needed sanctuary items by Mrs. Leona Baert, retiring president. Father O'Beirne expressed his thanks, congratulated the new officers and asked cooperation for the coming year.

Other guests were Rev. James Malley, assistant pastor; Thomas D'Eudala and John Shaffer heard in instrumental numbers accompanied by Mrs. John Fraser.

Mrs. Baert was presented with a Rosary in appreciation for her leadership of the past year.

Runners Post Oswego Victory

McQuaid Jesuit High's cross-country runners posted another impressive performance in the Palladium-Times Invitational at Oswego last Saturday as they pointed towards this week's diocesan championships and next week's Jesuit championships in New York City.

The Knights, with Eric Kendrick capturing first place, finished second behind North Syracuse High, 76-80, in the 17-school field. Dick Lenhard (12), Greg Sloan (14), Mike Shaughnessy (25), and Mike Connors (28) completed the scoring for the Knights, who now have a 5-4 won-lost mark for their last 4 meets.

At the freshman level, where McQuaid will also seek championships in the next 2 meets, another victory was added to the record when the Knights crammed 4 men into the top 11 of a 162-man field and scored a decisive win over 12 schools. Henry Enders (3), Mike Jacquith (4), Don Yeager (7), Paul Jones (11), and Bob Anzenberger (19) made up the winning team.

In the J.V race at Oswego, Brian Dougherty (22) and John Curran (33) were the first two Knights home in a race won by Bishop Kearney's Dick Brown. Kearney was fourth in the race, topping Aquinas and McQuaid entries. Aquinas had 2 individual standouts in the frosh race, with Bob Testa taking second and Dan Holden taking fifth.

McQuaid Takes Sixth Straight

By JESS HEWITT

A key goal-line stand, a defensive umbrella that snared six enemy passes, and an attack that scored through the air for the first time this season: add them up and you have McQuaid Jesuit High's sixth straight football victory, a 26-14 thriller over previously unbeaten Watertown High at Watertown last Saturday.

The Knights, faced with their stiffest challenge of the season, responded with their best all-around performance, coming up with the big play all afternoon. Watertown had won 9 in a row, had lost only once in 3 years, and were every bit as tough as expected. Now, with big number six behind them, the Knights go south to Bradford, Pa. this Saturday night to take on Central Christian High School. Little is known about the Southern Tier school, save for the interesting item that it holds a 14-7 win over Bishop Walsh of Olean, a team that McQuaid topped by 21-19. Comparative scores don't always mean too much, but these two should keep the Knights from letting down.

CLOSEST THING to a letdown at Watertown was in the second period, after McQuaid had taken a 13-0 lead. The Golden Cyclones got back into the game at 13-7 on a 70-yard drive, and came right back in a bid to go ahead by grabbing a McQuaid fumble deep in Knight territory. With a fourth and 2 situation on McQuaid's 5, the homesters cracked the line — and missed by inches.

The Knights moved out of danger and, seconds before half-time, stunned the Cyclones with a third touchdown. Halfback Dan Wegman picked off a Watertown pass with 43 seconds to go, and Dick Deloguardia promptly uncorked a long pass that Joe Miller carried for a 55-yard gain to Watertown's 8. A penalty set the Knights back to the 13, but Deloguardia threaded the needle to Miller on the next play for a 20-7 lead at intermission.

All 3 of those first-half scores came with 6-5 tackle Tony Binsack lined up at end position in a move designed to cross up the Watertown defense. The first score was on a short pass over the line to Binsack in the game's early minutes. The second time, Binsack was a decoy and the call was to fullback Tom Brennan, who sliced over tackle for 6 yards and a TD. Then, with Binsack sent in to keep the Cyclones guessing, Miller shook loose on the opposite side to take the third TD.

Watertown was down, 28-7, at that point, but the Cyclones threw a scare before the game was over. They picked off a Deloguardia aerial and drove for a TD early in the fourth quarter, and then unleashed a passing barrage that netted an apparent third touchdown with 3 minutes to go. But a back-in-motion penalty cancelled that play, and a running interception by Mike Spiegel halted the loser's final bid minutes later.

Outstanding for the Knights were two-way men Dave Coiro, Brennan, Miller, and Wegman, with center Steve Mayka and the entire offensive line sharing laurels with defensive platooners Binsack, George Vito, Vince Rosso and Mike Greco.

WHEN THERE'S EXTRA DEMAND FOR HOT WATER
depend on A O Smith gas water heater

Your A. O. Smith Permaglas Gas Water Heater keeps you in hot water — over and above the average needs. You'll always have a supply of hot water for those "extra demands."

It's clean, rust-free hot water, too! That's because of A. O. Smith's Hydrasteel construction. Hydrasteel is a process that perfectly fuses the glass lining to its steel casing. It's guaranteed by your RG&E for a full 10 years.

For the kind of hot water service you can depend on — insist on A. O. Smith Permaglas Gas Water Heater.
