Notre Dame Five Still Undefeated On Court

By MIKE MORAN

Notre Dame five completed its third and fourth wins of the season and remained the only undefeated team in the city, as they took over Corning West and Seton of Endicott. The Crusaders went from one extreme to the other with scores of 40-39, and a 42 point massacre.

Because of a lack of synchronization on the part of the offensive and poor shooting, the Crusaders could not obtain a safety margin of points over Corning West, thereby ending with the 40-39 score. Gerry Rosplock clinched the winning score with a heroic tap in, which when added to his other buckets, totaled 8 points. Johnston led the scoring with 9 points while Malone and Rosplock had 8 apiece.

THE N.D. BOYS got all fired up against Seton as they continued their relentless attack from the starting jump. Ron Limoncelli spearheaded the Crusaders by pumping in 19 points, and creating havoc with the Seton offensive with his aggressive defense.

Rosplock chalked up 17 points as a result of a superbly played ball game. John Barnoski did a tremendous job under the boards which contributed to his 6 for 9 shooting attempts, tallying 12 points. On rebounding, Mike Malone also proved his worth with 7 points. Bill Knott brought home 12 points, while hustling John McCarthy had 7.

The winning of this game was without a doubt the result of true teamwork as all but one figured in the scoring column.

The J.V.'s triumphed over Corning West 46-22, but were put down by Seton 48-43.

Notre Dame Highlights

An original Christmas script written by John Stillhard, of the English department, supplemented by Christmas carols interpolated by Sister Mary Leo, formed the annual Christmas assembly yesterday.

A gospel narration read by John Bayzk and carols sung by the girls' glee club set the stage for the Golden Mass that followed on Friday.

THE GLEE CLUB recorded a series of carols Saturday, again under the direction of Sister Mary Leo, for the local radio stations, to be played on Christmas Eve. Some of the songs were two Austrian carols, "Shepherds Up!" and "As Lately We Watched." Spain got into the picture with the old Spanish carol "To A Virgin Meek and Mild," and the whole tape ended with a lively arrangement of "Ring Those Christmas Bells."

An offertory procession of gifts and food, together with the water and wine to be used in the Mass opened the annual Golden Mass ceremonies today.

Mary Zoltowski, chairman of the food and clothing drive, has announced that Notre Dame will take care of twenty-five families this year. Prefect Peter Punzo, vice-prefect Catherine Creighton and chairman Mary Zoltowski took part in the procession.

Students and faculty members will distribute the baskets over the weekend.

"Life With Mother," the better half of Clarence Day's "Life With Father" has been chosen for the senior play for the class of 1964, announced Sister Raymond Joseph, drama coach.

WITH A CAST of 16 parts, the tryouts were held this week. All those wishing to take any part in the production, as stage crew, make-up, ushers and so forth had to try out at the scheduled times this week. The cast was to be announced before Christmas recess and rehearsals will begin at the opening of the new school year.
