Disc Notes

from Fred Cunningham

[illegible]

The record covers actual events and voices as reported from the time President Kennedy arrived in Texas to his burial at Arlington National Cemetery. More than 86 hours of tape were considered in the eventual choice of the final record. The choice was excellent.

Events included are the assassination of the late President described by a reporter in the Presidential motorcade in Dallas; the swearing in of Lyndon B. Johnson aboard Air Force 1, the official Presidential jet; an eyewitness commentary of events inside the plane as Jacqueline Kennedy returned to Washington; the actual voice of Lee Oswald denying his guilt and the on-the-spot report of Lee Oswald's murder by Jack Ruby as covered by Ike Pappas of WNEW Radio.

With the album is a ten-page eye-witness report, "The Murder of the Young President", written by Merriman Smith of UPI.

The record is already in world-wide distribution and several overseas companies have commented that the LP offers descriptions and information not covered in detail by news media in their own countries. Even here, with continuous listening to radio and television during the period from Nov. 22 to 25,

TV Classroom In TV Guide

The Feb. 8 issue of TV Guide features the Sisters and priests of the Boston Archdiocese blending into a new type surrounding . . . and very well at that.

"I had to ad-lib for the last 10 minutes."

"It will have to be a package deal."

Quoted from a Hollywood soundstage? Behind the cameras in the NBC newsroom? Not necessarily. This is the kind of language that is being bandied about the workshop of the Boston Catholic Television Center these days, as the nuns and priests of the Boston Archdiocese prepare for the opening of their new TV station.

The FCC has given authorization for a UHF station, WHSH-TV, Channel 38, to be operated in Boston starting this summer. Educational TV will be the primary goal with some programming in public affairs.

Sixteen nuns of various orders in the archdiocese will be "on the air" teachers and producers and, as they say in their new-found jargon, they are "busy learning the ropes."

Auditions Set By Blackfriars

Auditions for Blackfriars production of "The Taming of the Shrew" will be held today and tomorrow, Feb. 6 and 7, in the group's studio, 249 Court St., at 8 p.m. Production is set for April under the direction of Wilford Scott.

Aquinas Band Featured At 'Soundoff 64'

The state champion Aquinas marching band has been secured as a special feature of "Soundoff 64," drum and bugle corps spectacular variety show at the Rochester Community War Memorial Saturday, Feb. 29, at 8 p.m.

"Soundoff 64" is sponsored by the Emerald Cadets and Rice-Hallick Post, VFW. Five polished junior drum and bugle corps will be contesting for honors and prizes in drill and music routines, colorfully arranged to the confines of the War Memorial floor.

Competing corps are Selden Cadets of Long Island; Syracuse Brigadiers Juniors of Syracuse; Pittsfield Cavaliers of Pittsfield, Mass.; Ohio state champion Marion Cadets of Marion; and the Starlighters from Frankfort. All are top-flight aggregations in all drum corps categories.

Reilly Raiders will present the feature exhibition, led by equally famous Bill Hogten, and the Emerald Cadets will give an exhibition to round out the evening.

Tickets are available at the Rochester Community War Memorial or may be secured from members of the Emerald Cadets.

Theatre Guide

(Catholics are reminded of a recent Legion of Decency advisory to avoid "not Rated" films. Such films are usually the products of firms which fail to submit their films for Legion of Decency reviews. All major U.S. producers do cooperate with the Legion so it is a mark of loyalty to them as well as to one's pledge to see only those films rated acceptable by the Legion of Decency. Such action would also be an effective remedy for much of the current turmoil in the Rochester area about how best to outlaw objectionable shows at drive-in theaters. — Editor's Note.)
