Mother Solanus Dies, Former Local Superior

Mother M. Solanus, 65, of the Allegany Franciscan Sisters died Feb. 3, 1964, at St. Elizabeth's Hospital, Utica after a brief illness. The former Delia O'Donnell was born in Waterbury, Conn., and entered the Allegany Sisterhood in 1916. She spent 48 years in religion, most of them as parochial school teacher and administrator. She was a beloved and kindly superior and principal, widely admired for her administrative skills, according to her associates.

MOTHER SOLANUS was principal and superior at Good Counsel School for four terms (1936-44) with an interruption of two years as superior in Buffalo.

Funeral services were held Wednesday, Feb. 6, at St. Elizabeth's Motherhouse, Allegany, N.Y. Burial at St. Bonaventure's Cemetery, Allegany.

Two Priest Sons Join Ammering Golden Jubilee

Mr. and Mrs. John J. Ammering, 839 Woodbine Ave., marked their 50th wedding anniversary at a Mass in St. Monica's Church on Saturday, Feb. 1. Monsignor Gerald Lambert, pastor, was celebrant of the Mass, assisted by the couple's two sons, the Rev. Donald Ammering, O.S.A., currently assigned to a mission band of the Augustinian Fathers, and the Rev. Bruce Ammering, chaplain of the Monroe County Infirmary.

WEDDING VOWS were repeated by the jubilarians before their son Donald.

The Ammerings were married in Corpus Christi Church on Jan. 31, 1914 by the late Rev. James McCarthy.

A reception was held by the couple's six sons and daughters following the Mass at Logan's, Scottsville Road.

Mr. Ammering, a retired Post Office employee, is treasurer of the Postal Employees Credit Union which he founded in 1961. He is also director of the New York State Credit Union League.

Mrs. Ammering at one time studied nursing at Perterson Hospital, Craig Colony, Sonyea, N.Y.

The couple has 13 grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Baked Sale For Shut-ins

St. Josaphat's Lent Schedule

Lent for Byzantine Rite Catholics commences Monday, Feb. 10, instead of Ash Wednesday as observed by Latin Rite Catholics.

Lenten schedule of services at St. Josaphat's, Rochester, includes:

Wednesdays, 7 p.m.—English Stations of the Cross, sermon.

Fridays, 7 p.m.—Ukrainian Stations of the Cross, sermon.

Sundays, 3 p.m.—Rosary, followed by Sorokoust—Memorial services for the dead.

Lenten weekday morning Masses will be at 7, 8 and 8:30 a.m.

Franciscan, Nazareth Grad To Recieve Science Degree

Sister M. Paul Francis, OSF., the former Olivia Mariani of Rochester, will graduate from DePaul University, Chicago, on Sunday, Feb. 9 at the midwinter convocation ceremonies, and will receive a Bachelor of Science degree in medical technology.

Sister M. Paul Francis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mariani, 28 Crookwood Dr., attended Holy Rosary Grammar School and Nazareth Academy. Before entrance into the Springfield Franciscans, as her community is commonly known, she attended Nazareth College for one year.

SHE ENTERED the convent in August of 1957 and, after three years of preparation she pronounced her first vows in September, 1960.

Sister attended DePaul University as a medical technology major and spent her year of internship at St. John's Hospital, Springfield, Ill. (a hospital operated by the Springfield Franciscans). In September of 1963 she graduated from St. John's Hospital School of medical technology and in November of that year she wrote her National Registry Examination.

Presently Sister is working at St. Vincent's Hospital, Green Bay, Wis., a 300-bed hospital.

The Springfield Franciscans, whose motherhouse is located in Springfield, Ill., operate hospitals, homes for the aged, homes for unwed mothers, do catechetical work and have missions in Japan and among the Indians in Lukachukia and Chinle, Ariz.

Prayer Meeting

Madrid —(NC)— Catholics, Protestants and Orthodox took part together in prayer meetings led by Catholic priests and Protestant clergymen in the Catholic Byzantine Chapel here during the octave of prayer for Christian unity.
