Rosary Group Sponsors Tea

[illegible]

Rosary Society of St. Francis of Sales Church, [illegible] spritsee tea in honor of the Sales Convent Sisters [illegible] Friday afternoon [illegible] Hibernian Giving.

The Hibernians of [illegible] widely known [illegible] sisters in [illegible] St. Francis of Sales [illegible].

Preceding the program [illegible] bers and [illegible] service in the church, Mrs. Kenneth Farrer and Mrs. George Doell were in charge of arrangements for the shower.

CHARLES MAHON was master of ceremonies for the entertainment program of the Hibernians and Loretta Alice Donahue, the girl mistress of ceremonies. Soloists, led by Jerry Moran, included Jack Fraser, Pat Clancy, Pat Gager, Joe McConnell, Jack Cunningham, Bob Kiernan, Joe and Bill Shaw.

Loretta Donahue's troupe offered a colorful revue of songs and songs of his various models. Of special interest was a sparkling silver McSancerian black gown formerly worn by Sophie Tucker, famous theatrical personage. It was presented to Loretta Donahue by Miss Tucker's sister who lives in Auburn, and was worn during the show.

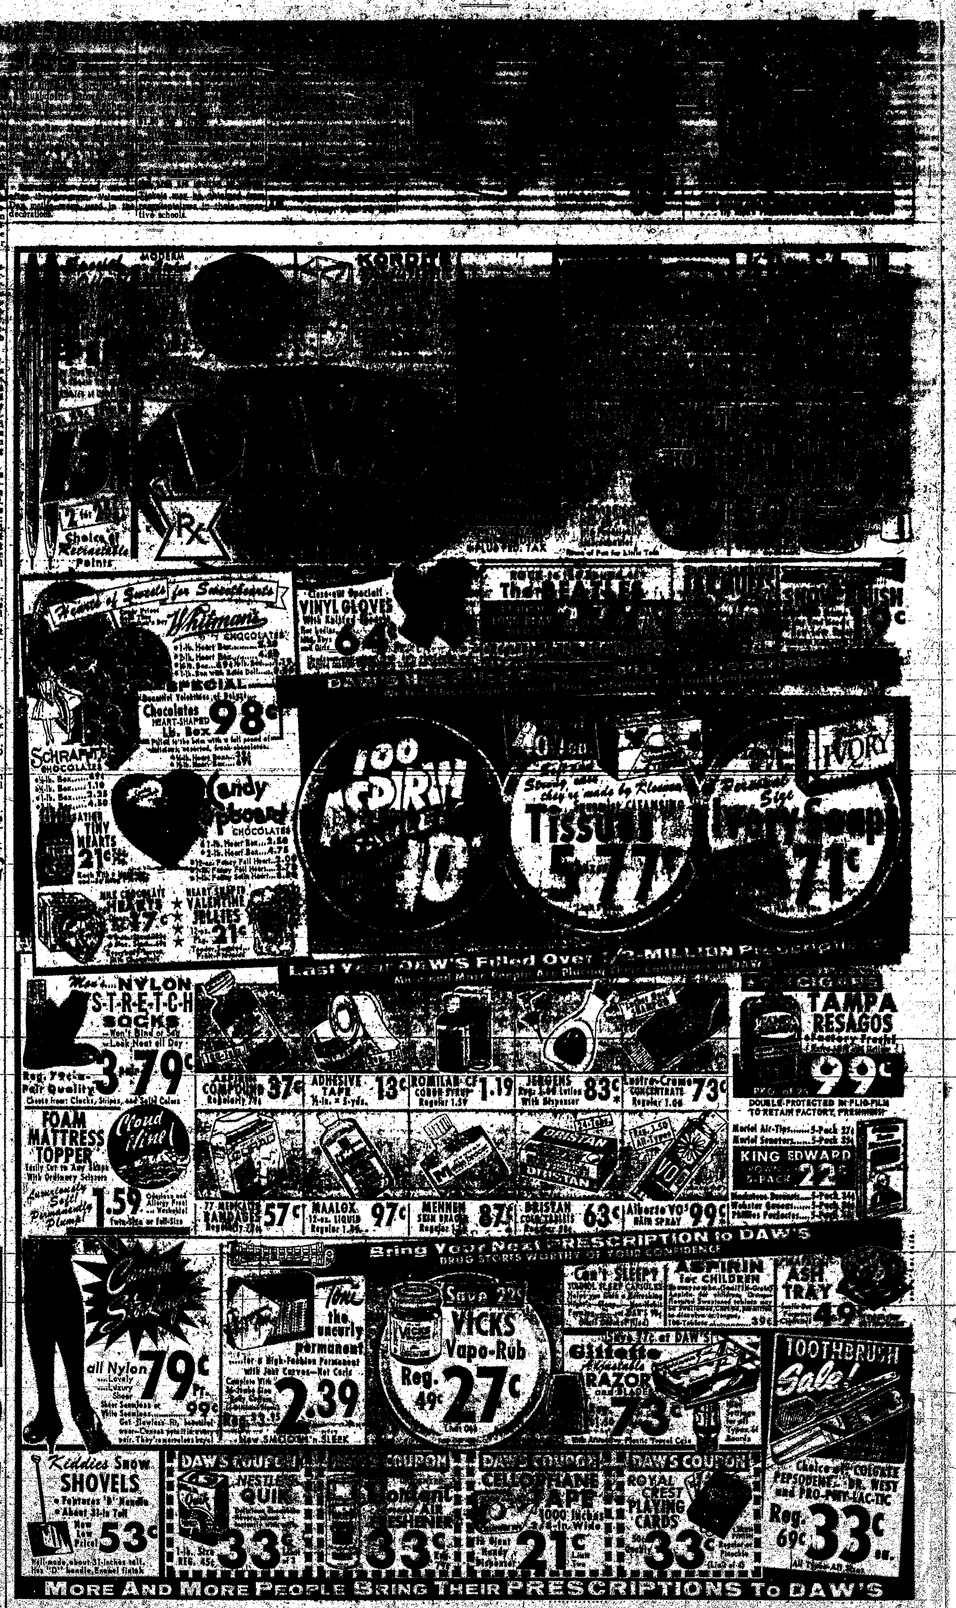
Also on parade were scenes of the Civil War days, the Flapper Girl, Ziegfeld Follies, the Charleston, and other styles. Featured in the revue were Mary Ann Reid and Ann Shaw; Ann Turner, Betty Frunal and Carol Kiernan, Bob Clancy and Terry Kiernan in supporting roles. Piano accompanists were Annabelle Maywell and Bill Snyder.

The Rev. Richard Hart, chaplain of De Sales High School, introduced the Sisters of De Sales Convent individually and explained their teaching duties.

Also present for the event [illegible] decorations [illegible] live school.

Cornell Chaplain Set For Talk

Ithaca—Father Richard Torney will open the Lenten Discussion Club season with a talk in Immaculate Conception Parochial School cafeteria, Wednesday, Feb. 19, at 7:30 p.m.

Father Torney is chaplain to Catholic students at Cornell University.


All parishioners are invited. Organization of clubs will take place immediately following Father Torney's talk.