Contest Winner

Miss Francine A. Romer, a student at Nazareth Academy, has been declared winner of a 1,000 word writing contest sponsored by the Ladies Auxiliary to the Veterans of Foreign Wars, locally by the James H. Lundgren Auxiliary.

"The Foreign Student in America—An Opportunity for Friendship" was the title of the 29th annual national contest accepted in St. Agnes, Nazareth and Our Lady of Mercy High Schools during the 1963-64 school year.

Miss Romer's theme is now eligible for the state contest where first prize will be $100. Winners of state contests will then be eligible for $2000 in cash awards on the national level, including $1,000 cash and a gold medal for first place award.

Judges on the local level were: Mrs. Marjorie Reif, teacher; Rev. William Schifferli, pastor of Church of Christ the King; and Joseph Geraci, M.D. Contest chairman was Mrs. Leonard Byrd.

Slate Elected

Junior Maureen Cotterill has been elected president of the Health Careers Club at Mercy, and Mary O'Connell, another junior, has been elected vice-president.

The club admits students interested in nursing and related careers. Its moderator is Sister Mary Claude, school nurse.

Science Series

In the second semester of the Catholic High Schools Science-Math Seminar, held at Mercy High every Tuesday night, the fourth cycle of lectures, April 14-May 12, will be concerned with chemistry, according to Sister Mary Edward, seminar moderator.

During this period, also, a series on paleontology will include talks on fossil identification and stratigraphic paleontology of Western New York, both lectures to be given by Mr. Fred Amos.

At the final meeting of the year on May 19 Dr. George Berg of the Department of Radiation Biology of the University of Rochester will speak on biochemistry. At this meeting awards for leadership and scholarship will be announced along with next year's officers.

During March Mr. Jack Hamilton of Eastman Kodak Company spoke at one meeting on electron microscopy. Following his talk seminar members attended demonstrations on the same subject, conducted at three stations by the following people: Bausch and Lomb—Miss Marie Vetter; University of Rochester—Dr. Lewis J. Cassrett; Eastman Kodak Company—Mr. Jack Hamilton.

Hospital Tours

Mercy's science department buzzed with activity as eager scientists planned trips to Strong Memorial Hospital and Cornell University.

During the week of March 30-April 1, 18 Mercy students a day toured the labs at Strong Memorial Hospital.

During that week also science enthusiasts attended the annual High School Natural Science Program on the campus of Cornell University, according to Sister Mary Edward, science department head.

The program, designed for sophomores, juniors and seniors who are particularly interested in the natural sciences, consisted of a series of lectures and demonstrations by skilled people in various fields of science.

Book Drive

The "Barrel o' Books," stationed on the first floor at Mercy, serves as a reminder to all Mercians of the CSMC Book Drive, which begins April 10, according to Mary Walsh, CSMC president.

Storybooks, text books, religious books, paperbacks, and magazines will be sent to Nigeria, and the following mission groups: Father Charles Erb, S.V.D., in Africa, Father Damian, O.S.B., in Tanganyika, and Sister Isaac Jogues, Marist, in the Pacific Islands.

Grads Banquet

St. Agnes High School Alumnae Association will sponsor its annual banquet Thursday, April 16, in the school cafeteria at 6 p.m.

Anniversary classes '44, '49, '54 and '59, and the First Anniversary Class of '63 will be especially honored. Numbered in these classes are 11 nuns who will be present.

Co-Chairmen working on arrangements are Kathleen Lynd and Carol De Kramer. Marie Finks is chairman of the invitations committee; Sally Gervais, finances; Beverly Clark and Margaret O'Leary arrangements; Diane Salamone, programs.

Reservations may be made with any one of the following: Margaret Gervase Rowe (BE 5-0690), Ann Fay Ambrose (OL 4-9789), Carol Hart De Kramer (FA 8-9015), Joanne Savino Tuccio (FI 2-8262), Diane Houch Salamone (BE 5-1044), Constance Farrel Hudson (OL 4-0604), Marilou Johnson Donovan (GL 8-0511).

Win At Fordham

Two Aquinas Institute juniors argued their way to a first place tie and an undefeated record in the annual Fordham University High School Debate Tournament held during Easter week in New York City.

Thomas Farrell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Farrell Sr. of Sacred Heart parish and James Hendrick, son of Mrs. Muriel Hendrick, of Our Lady of Perpetual Help parish defeated major debate opponents of the Eastern Seaboard to remain undefeated over six rounds and thereby tie with St. Peter's Prep. of N.J. for first place honors in the negative team division. Over 44 secondary schools from the eastern portion of the U.S. participated in the two day affair, April 2 and 3.

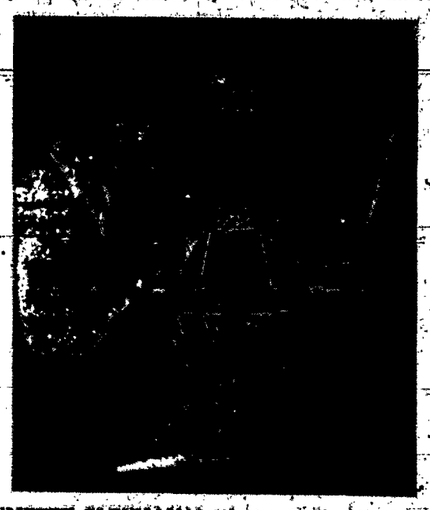
The Fordham Tourney was the second attended by the Aquinas Varsity Squad on an Easter Week trip that included a stop at Boston College earlier in the week where seniors Vladimar Rudy and Richard Campbell scored a record of four wins and two losses among a field of 56 schools from all over the U.S.

Friday and Saturday, April 10 and 11, Aquinas Varsity and Junior-Varsity debaters will attend the state finals in debate at Albany State College. Robert Craig, a junior at Aquinas will also compete in the state finals in oral interpretation. This nine member delegation represents the largest contingent attending the Albany finals from any high school in Western New York.

Guild Cards

St. Elizabeth Guild will hold its regular monthly card party on Monday, April 13 at 12:30 p.m. at the Guild House, 1475 East Ave.

Chairmen are Mrs. Roy Leary and Mrs. James Lynch assisted by Mesdames William Heindle, George Thorne, James Rush, A. Croft, George Zeller, A. Winterroth.



ANNETTE SLEYMAN, freshman at St. Agnes High School, explains to Sister Theodore her scale model of a Tiros-weather satellite which she made as General Science project.

Science Fair

The general science classes of St. Agnes High School under the direction of Sister M. Theodore displayed the results of individual research efforts in a miniature science fair climaxing the work of their third quarter.

Topics included in these projects were oceanography, topology, astronomy, origins of earth and life, planets, moon, weather, erosion, mountains and volcanoes. Each girl chose her individual preference from among course listings.

The "fair" was displayed in the chemistry laboratory at St. Agnes High School for visitors from the rest of the classes.

Home Ec. Meet

Sister Teresa Edward and Mrs. Isabel Barnett, co-chairmen of the hospitality committee for the New York State Home Economics Convention to be held at the Manger Hotel in Rochester on Friday and Saturday, April 17-18, are nearing completion of their preparations.

With other home economists in the educational, business and homemaking fields, they have been planning for months to make this convention a success.

General chairman is Miss Ruth Kimpland, coordinator of home economics in the Rochester Public School System, and Mrs. Jean Donnelly, teacher of home economics at Webster Junior High School.

Sister Teresa Edward is head of the home economics department at St. Agnes High School and Mrs. Isabel Barnett, of East High School.

Drama Group Lists Offering By Colleges

"Dumb Shows and Noise" has been announced by the Nazareth and St. John Fisher Drama Club at their spring production. It is a truly different show with an extravagant and colorful panorama of medieval theater.

Times for performances are set for: Friday, April 24 at 8 p.m., Saturday, April 25 at 6:45 p.m., and Sunday, April 26 at 3 p.m. Tickets are $1. Write Nazareth College Drama Department.

Included on the program are: two Heywood farces, Morris dancing on the lawn, Hell's Mouth, the Chester Noah, the Seven Deadly Sins, the Dance of Death, and Everyman, which will be done on a knoll at St. John Fisher at twilight on Saturday (weather permitting). Other parts of the performance will be staged indoors.

Costumes and sets have been designed by the art department with the additional cooperation of the music, English, and chemistry departments of the college, for special effects and arrangements.

Last Call For Breakfast

Rochester Catholic Interracial Council officials said reservations for this Sunday's breakfast at the Manger Hotel may still be made.

The breakfast will follow a Mass and sermon by Bishop Kearney at Immaculate Conception Church at 8:30 a.m.

Speaker at the breakfast will be Franciscan Father Roy M. Gasnick of St. Bonaventure University.

Reservations at $3 (students $2) may be made by phoning Mrs. Henry Hickey, GL 4-0448; Miss Margaret Byrne, GL 5-9053, or Mrs. Francis Weber, GL 3-0582.

Medical Scouts At Hospital

The medical staff of Highland Hospital, Rochester, has organized Monroe County's first Medical Explorer Post, a group of senior Boy Scouts who will learn medical career opportunities and perform public service projects for the hospital.

It is the medical staff's contribution to the hospital's Diamond Jubilee—a seven-day celebration marking Highland's 75th Anniversary—April 4 through April 10.

Peace Corps Wants 5,000 Teachers

Washington—The U.S. Peace Corps has announced that it will need more than 5,000 teachers to fill its overseas teaching posts during 1964. Requests have come from 48 countries throughout Latin America, Africa and Asia. 3,000 are wanted for secondary schools, 1,000 for elementary and 500 for colleges and universities. An additional 500 are wanted for the fields of physical, vocational and adult education.
