McQuaid Debaters Score At Georgetown

McQuaid Jesuit High School debaters fared well in a pre-season debating tournament held at Georgetown University, Washington, D.C., July 21-23.

In the varsity division, Kevin Hennessy, 63 Mayfield St., Rochester, and George Northrup, 5 Clark St., Mt. Morris, took 5th place out of 72 teams. Northrup was named the second best speaker at the tournament.

Chris Scharf, also of Rochester, with a partner from Los Alamas, N. Mexico, won second place in the beginners' division. He also received an award for being the 8th best speaker in that division.

The tournament was the climax of a three week Institute for High School Debaters, sponsored by the University. The Institute was in preparation for next year's debate topic on the subject of Compulsory Arbitration. Over 200 students attended.
