Msgr. Bernardos, Known Here, Dies in Lancaster

Solemn Pontifical Requiem Mass was offered in Our Lady of Pompeii Church, Lancaster for Rt. Rev. Msgr. Alfonso J. Bernardo, by Bishop Eustace Smith, Vicar Apostolic of Beirut, Lebanon, Saturday, May 21.

Monsignor Bernardo, 69, pastor of the Lancaster church for the past 24 years died May 18, 1966 in St. Joseph Intercommunity Hospital, Cheektowaga. He was widely known in the Diocese of Rochester as well as Buffalo with many relatives in this area.

He made his home with two brothers here, the late Daniel and incent Bernardo, after leaving the Army in World War 1

A native of Campobasso, Italy, Monsignor Bernardo started his studies for the priesthood in Rochester after attending college in Naples, Italy. He concluded his studies for the priesthood at Our Lady of the Angels Seminary, Niagara University.

HE WAS ordained, March 7, 1925 by the late Bishop William Turner and observed his 40th anniversary of ordination in 1965.

Father Bernardo served as assistant pastor St. Joseph's, Niagara Falls and later became pastor. He was pastor at Our Lady of Loretto, Falconer, and became pastor of Our Lady of Pompeii, June 11, 1942.

He was elevated to the rank of Domestic Prelate with the title of Right Reverend Monsignor in 1959.

Monsignor Bernardo was instrumental in the realization and completion of St. Mary's High School in Lancaster. He received the Knights of St. John Noble Degree and was a Fourth Degree, Knight of Columbus.

Surviving are two brothers, Valerio Bernardo of Campobasso, Italy and Sisto Bernardo of Sao Paulo, Brazil and 11 nieces and nephews mostly from the Rochester area. Included are two nuns in Rochester, Sister Marie Pacelli, S.S.J. and Sister Mary Malachy, R.S.M.

A first cousin is Very Rev. Valerio Bernardo, V.F., dean of Northern Chautauqua County and pastor of Holy Trinity Church, Dunkirk.

Burial was on the Church property next to the Shrine of the Blessed Mother.

Press Awards

Two publications of Our Lady of Mercy High School received first place trophies at the High School Press Day at St. Bonaventure University on May 19. In the individual writing competition, students from Mercy won a first place award, two second places, and a third place honor.

'Mercedes," literary magazine, received the first place plaque as the Outstanding publication entered in the magazine competition. The "Quill," newspaper, received the Times-Union trophy as outstanding paper in the Greater Rochester area.

"Mercedes," editors are Mimi Kennedy and Cecelia Viggo; Sister Jean Marie is the advisor. The Quill is edited by Sherry DeYaeger, Monica Reeves, and Judy Plante; its advisor is Sister Mary Christine.

In the art division, Mercy senior Monica Callan won the first place Award of Excellence, and another senior, Martha Conners, won the second place Special Citation. Both girls are students of Sister Mary Lisette.

A second place award also went to Mercy sophomore Camy Sorbello in the fiction division for her short story, "La Strada." Mercy sophomore Elaine Bromka received a third place Certificate of Achievement for poetry.

Honorable mention Certificates of Merit were also awarded to 16 students of the Catholic high schools in the Rochester area.

Close to 250 publications were entered this year in the Bonaventure competition; more than 3,000 individual entries from students were processed.

Nazareth Academy received the following awards:

First Place — Kathleen Bauman for her poem, "If Love Must Go," published in the "Spectrum," literary magazine.

Special Award to "Spectrum" in the literary magazine classification.

Certificates of Merit—Mary Anne Mercier, fiction; Rita Liotta, feature writing; Mary Patricia Quinn, poetry; Jeanette Sawnor, art.

Certificate of Merit to the "Gabriel," school newspaper.

Don T. Carmody, son of Mr. and Mrs. James R. Carmody of 1225 West First Street, Elmira, has received an oppointment to the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis.

Carmody, a senior at Notre Dame High School, is president of the senior class, a member of the varsity club and varsity football team, and participated recently in the Rotary Club luncheon panel and Youth in Government Day. He was also chosen as the outstanding boy in the senior class by vote of his classmates.

Mission Day

Cardinal Mooney's first Mission Day began with a Mass of concelebration offered by Archbishop John K. Amissah of Ghana; Rev. Charles G. Erb, S.V.D. of Yendi, Ghana; Rev. Thomas M. Reddington, Pastor of Holy Name Parish; and Rev. Denis Sughrue and Rev. Donald Haycock, Cardinal Mooney's two chaplains.

Booster buttons were sold throughout the day. These buttons displayed pictures of Brother Michael Keegan, C.S.C., now in Uganda, and Sister Mary Janet, R.S.M., newly appointed to Chili. A baked foods sale at noon added to the profits.

A Mission Day Dance this evening will climax the day's events. Publicity chairmen are Ron Lynch and Pat Miller; decorations, Steve Guilfoos and Koreen Noble; refreshments, Cathy DeConiock; checking, Sue Bauman and Dick Caruso; and clean-up, Jim Wallace.

The proceeds will help finance the trip to the National Convention of the Catholic Students' Mission Crusade at Notre Dame University from August 25 to 28.
