Speak Up, Newsman Tells Mooney Honor Students

Speak up and give yourselves "class," Cardinal Mooney members of the National Honor Society were advised at an induction ceremony.

DICK BURT

Dick Burt, WOKR's television news commentator and former high school teacher, listed character, leadership, academics and service as the basis of honor society membership. He pointed out that the initial letters of these words would spell "class," with the addition of another capital "S", and he chose "speaking up" to finish the acronym. To project their superior qualities, the students must make themselves heard, he said.

Eleven new members received pins and certificates from the principal, Holy Cross Brother Daniel Redmond. They are Patricia Bloom, Philip Bonacci, Nancy Cox, Margaret Graham, Daniel Geniton, Lynn Harnishfeger, Margaret Roach, Mary Ellen Rockwell, Gloria Schmidt, Doreen Smith, and Sandra Webber.

Nazareth Slates Musical

The Perosian Choir of Nazareth Academy will present Sandy Wilson's Broadway musical comedy, "The Boyfriend," Feb. 22, 23 and 24 in the school auditorium. Curtain time is 8:15 p.m.

This spoof of the "Tittering Twenties," the name that the English gave to an era Americans knew as the "Roaring Twenties," had a successful run in New York with Julie Andrews.

Leading roles will be played by Irene Wowk, as "Polly Browne," and Dick St. Pierre, and Aquinas senior, as her wealthy English beau.

Principals include Marie Villone, David Palma, Sharlene Caiazza, Dick Hommel, Jean Camelio, Patrice Pallone, and Gail Wumkes.

Others in the cast: Larry Davis, Bob Lazewski, Tom Olivieri, Margaret DiPonzio, Peter Battisti, Lawrence Davis, James Thompson, Donald Maltese and Mary Frances Camelio.

Choruses will include all members of the Perosian Choir and young men from Monroe Community College, St. John Fisher College and Aquinas.

William Andia is technical director and set designer; Miss Angela DiLuca is director; Sister Rose Teresa, choral director; Sister Marie Stephanie, orchestra director; Alfred Castle, guest orchestra conductor; and Earl Kage, choreographer.

Reserved seat tickets will be $2; unreserved, $1.50.

Honor Society President Installed

Miss Linda Beisman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Beisman of 2164 Westfall Rd. was installed as president of Phi Alpha Theta Chapter at a ceremony held at Good Counsel College, White Plains, recently.

Nazareth Junior Takes First In Acting Contest

Jane Dentinger, 16, a junior at Nazareth Academy, won first place in the acting competition held Saturday, Feb. 3, at Nazareth College Fine Arts Center, in conjunction with the annual Theatre Day sponsored by the Catholic Theatre Conference.

Miss Dentinger was one of five finalists chosen to compete from eliminations held the previous week. Her presentation included scenes from Shaw's "St. Joan," Thornton Wilder's "The Skin of Our Teeth," as well as a dramatic improvization.

The acting competition was the highlight of the day's activities which included slides, demonstrations and films emphasizing the technical contributions to play production. Judges for the event were Dr. Kenneth Cameron of the University of Rochester, Mr. George Sherwood of Bristol Playhouse, and Mrs. John E. Lene of Theatre Arts Academy.

Jane is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Dentinger, 193 Deerfield Dr., Irondequoit, and a member of St. Ambrose parish. She belongs to the Dramatic Club at Nazareth Academy and has been active in school and community dramatics for the past two years. She is considering a career in the Arts.

Other finalists included: Mary John Boyland, Mercy High, Andrew Hanushevsky, McQuaid, Margaret Ronzo, Wheatland-Chili, and Caroline Yeager, Mercy. The winner received an engraved plaque.
