For The Women

POP TOPICS

Dear Friends,

Today marks another RED LETTER OCCASION—the long-awaited announcement of the third Semi-Annual POP Awards. Our congratulations to all the 110 winners with a special word of praise for the lucky FIRST TEN. Lo and behold, for the second time in a row ST. AMBROSE ROSARY SOCIETY has captured the top spot, under the direction of Mrs. Harry Seward, POP Chairman, ably assisted by Sr. Rosaire, a teacher in the school.

ST. MICHAEL'S MOTHERS CLUB OF NEWARK went from 8th place in POP Game No. 2 to 3rd place in this Game; ST. JOHN THE EVANGELIST ROSARY SOCIETY OF ROCHESTER, from 10th place in Game No. 1, to 6th place in Game No. 2, to 4th place in this Game; ST. JOSEPH BUSINESS SCHOOL was also a Top Winner in all three Games; ST. CECILIA'S LADIES GUILD OF IRONDEQUOIT, a Top Winner in two Games; ST. JOSEPH'S ROSARY GUILD OF PENFIELD went from 24th place in Game No. 2 to 6th place in this Game. The remaining Top Winners, especially ST. HYACINTH'S CONVENT OF AUBURN, deserve an extra "well done" since they were all new registrants in this Third POP Game.

We're sorry that every POP group couldn't be included in the above list. From our personal contacts with various chairmen we know that many of you worked very hard to publicize POP and to encourage others to participate. Don't be discouraged—the main thing is that you did your best. Remember too that POP profits, however small, are clear profits with nothing to contribute, nothing taken out for "expenses." If you didn't do as well as you'd hoped or expected, there's always another time. POP goes rolling along.

Bishop Says 'Playing it Cool' May Keep Kids In From Cold

Miami Beach, Fla.—(NC)—A bishop said here that by "playing it cool" the family must counteract the many tendencies of youth toward boredom, irresponsibility, insolence, sophistication and give their children values, goals and habits sometimes directly opposed to those of their environment.

Auxiliary Bishop Harold R. Perry, S.V.D., of New Orleans, speaking at the Miami Diocesan Council of Catholic Women convention, said that today's youth "are the first in the history of the world to be raised with television, which, of course, gives them wonderful information, yet daily exposes them to pagan attitudes of which you must necessarily disapprove.

"Your children have been brought up in a time of ease and plenty with money and playthings and extras easy to obtain," the bishop said. "The result is that it is very difficult to impress them with the importance of responsibility, hard work and thrift."

He reminded parents they do not "own" their children, but are charged with their care "for only a little while."

"You help them to learn and to grow as your parents helped you," he declared. "You make them free to follow whatever vocation of love God may call them to. Strange as it may sound, you are in a true sense the babysitter for God."

"It is evident that the morals of the times," Bishop Perry stated, "which are exemplified by television, cheating business executives, oft-married actresses, the Beatles, hippies, doves and hawks, all have their weakening and confusing influence upon children."

Unless youths are properly guided through the family, he predicted, the "status-seeking, security-hungry, conforming society in which we live will soon convince them that the sole purpose of life is to be entertained. That we are here to squeeze every drop of pleasure and fun out of life—that it has no serious purpose."

Can Woman Head Council of Men?

Washington, D.C.—(RNS)—Wife, mother, civic leader, former president of the St. Louis Council of Catholic Women — and a future president of the National Council of Catholic Men?

Her name is Mrs. Charles T. (Dolores) Dougherty, and while the description above may sound facetious, it could prove accurate.

Mrs. Dougherty is now executive vice president of the St. Louis Archdiocesan Council of the Laity—a group formed last March by merging the separate councils of men and women. This year she became the first woman ever to receive an award from the National Council of Catholic Men.

The honor—the St. Thomas More Award—was presented to Mrs. Dougherty and nine men during the 1968 Presidents' Conference of the NCCM in Washington, D.C.

Pour Chateau LaSalle at dinner...or any other time of the day. Highly entertaining just chilled. It's also a great mixer in tall, cool drinks or short punchy ones. Very sociable over ice as a cocktail. No wonder The Christian Brothers put this light, naturally sweet California wine in a decanter instead of an ordinary wine bottle!

THE HOLY FATHER'S MISSION AID TO THE ORIENTAL CHURCH

IN THE HOLY LAND YOU CAN DO CHRIST'S WORK

Do you read our mail? . . . If so, you'll receive in the next week or two our invitation to help the Holy Father do what Christ did in the Holy Land. . . . In Bethlehem, for instance. At the Pontifical Mission Orphanage our Sisters are giving a home to 60 little Arab girls who otherwise might have been lost forever. . . . In Jerusalem the Pontifical Mission office provides clothing (collected in the U.S.A.) to the aging and the crippled, babies, the destitute—as well as food and medicines (more than 1,000 children daily receive their only hot meal). . . . Refugee boys are becoming tailors at the Salesian School in Nazareth, automobile mechanics at the Benedictine School in Lebanon. . . . Blind girls learn to "read" in the Gaza Strip, deaf-mute boys begin to speak at Father Roberts' home near Beirut. It's all possible because you support the Pontifical Mission for Palestine. . . . What is the Pontifical Mission? The sister agency of the Catholic Near East Welfare Association, it's the Holy Father's self-help relief agency for 1.4 million Arab refugees, begun 19 years ago by Pope Paul himself (then Monsignor Montini) after the first Arab-Israeli War. Your own mission of mercy in the Holy Land, it serves Moslems as well as Christians on the basis of 'need, not creed.' . . . If you do not hear from us this week, why not write to us? We'll tell you how you can help.
