Deaths

Sr. Mary Paul

Mass of the Resurrection for Sister Mary Paul Caverly, RSM., who taught English at Aquinas Institute for 22 years, was celebrated Sept. 26, in the Sisters of Mercy Motherhouse Chapel.

Sister Mary Paul, 71, died Sept. 24, 1970, in the Sisters Convent and Infirmary adjoining the Motherhouse. A native of County Cork, Ireland, she also had taught in several diocesan parochial schools.

She formerly was on the faculties of Holy Cross School, Rochester, Holy Family, Auburn, St. Michael's in Newark, St. John's in Clyde, St. Ann's in Hornell and St. Vincent's in Corning.

She is survived by four sisters, Mrs. Catherine Donovan, Mrs. John Lally of Brighton, Mass., Mrs. Frank Downes and Mrs. Cornelius Donovan, and several nieces and nephews.

Mr. O'Neill

A Mass of the Resurrection was celebrated Sept. 18, 1970, in Kingston, Ontario for Patrick Ligouri O'Neill. Msgr. Andrew J. O'Neill, a cousin of the deceased, was principle concelebrant.

Survivors include his widow, Beatrice, and three sons and two daughters, who live in Canada; also, a sister Mrs. Michael Leo Lynch, and two nieces, Mrs. Lee Merkel and Mrs. T. Swanson, of Rochester.

Mr. O'Neill was a member of the Knights of Columbus.

Bishop Hogan to Speak At World Peace Mass

A Mass for world peace will be celebrated in Highland Park Bowl at 3 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 11, the Feast of the Motherhood of the Blessed Virgin. People of all faiths are invited.

Bishop Hogan will be both celebrant and preacher, at the request of the Legion of Mary and other sponsors. He said that the event had been planned for "people who would like to be actively involved in efforts for peace, but to whom marches and rallies do not appeal."

The bishops' homily will suggest areas for positive action, that "having prayed to God for our intentions, we may be the first to try to carry out these intentions."

Father William A. Trott, spiritual director of the Rochester Legion of Mary, said that delegations of high school and college students would accompany the bishop in procession and persons from various walks of life would offer intercessory prayers. Community singing will be supported by the Immaculate Conception Church choir. Those who wish may receive Communion.

Father Trott added that sponsoring organizations and individuals would pay all expenses.
