nteers
iteers,
rt the

he 75
h was resent

Seton
pecial-
ts.

Early
h will
Coro-

known 28,000
innual
Bishop

a fund

hop at which
com-

Mary's
le the spital
ward, s stay

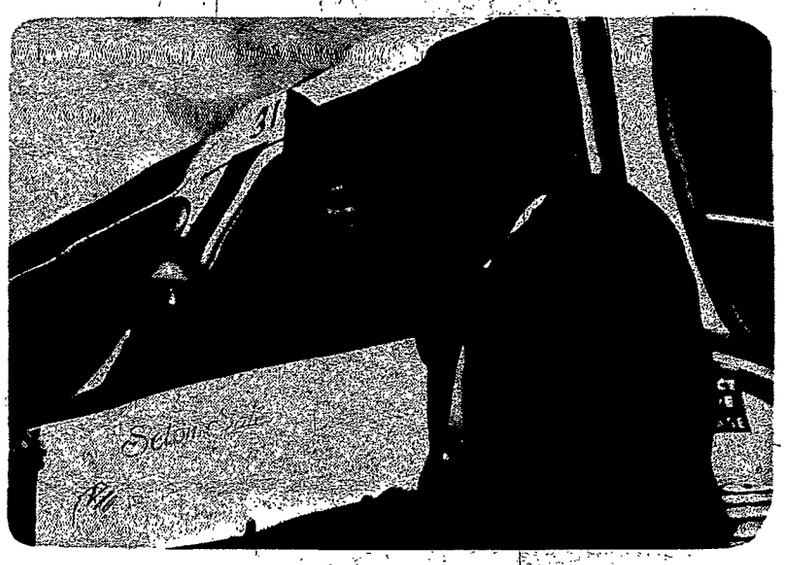
show
train-

spital
ides a
her fi-

Above: head nurse Ann Loughlin monitors patient's heart in coronary care unit while watched by Adrienne Murray and Elizabeth Reynolds from School 29. Seton funds were used for unit. Right above: Bishop Kearney greets Seton Ball chairman Mrs. Anthony Palermo (left) and Mrs. John Ryan, head of Seton Branches. Right below: Mrs. Larry Stidd and Mrs. Charles Gertner pose with Seton Sale posters going on RTS buses. Left: Volunteer Candy Striper Debra Warney pushes Karen Cioppa in wheelchair in the pediatrics ward.



Mrs. Roberta Riordan and Mrs. Anne Martin mix up the dough for cranberry-nut bread for annual Seton Sale.

St. Mary's gift shop enjoys the services of Seton Volunteers, from left, Mrs. James Haher, Mrs. Arthur Brayer and Mrs. Charles Chase.